GOV. CRAIG MAY CALL EXTRA SESSION OF LEGISLATURE.

A special from Raleigh to the Greensboro News says: The practicability and the impracticability of calling the Legislature together to take action in the freight rate matter have been freely discussed since the adjournment of the conference between the State and rallroads by almost everybody except those on whose shoulders the responsibility for the assembling of the Legislature for this purpose would fall. That even those who would shoulder the responsibility are discussing the question there is no doubt, but they are not saying anything for publication. It is too grave a matter to rush pell mell into print, and for His voice is genlly pitched; this reason the convertsation part of it is left to outsiders.

Sentiment is undoubtedly strong for the special session among the shippeis, but even they cannot sug- He runs on errands willingly gest anything that the Legislature To forge and mill and store. might do except in a retaliatory way. It is an interstate proposition pure and simple, and all the State - can do is to harrass the carriers and make it so uncomfortable for them that they will accede to the demands of the shippers for justice. Any attempt to interfere with interstate commerce would find the State bucking the United States court without a show of winning. The Legislature would have to confine its acivities, therefore, to matters within the domain of North Carolina.

It is not known yet whether the Corporation Commission will press its claims before the interstate commerce commission for relief from alleged discriminations from Western points. The matter was temporarily taken out of the hands of the commission by the Legislature, which authorized a special commission to deal with the railroads directly, and until both sides announce that there is positively nothing to be gained by waiting, the Corporation Commission will not likely push its suits. It is ready to proceed, however.

There remains no doubt about the fact that North Carolina is unreasomably discriminated against. The railroads outpointed the State and shippers as to technicalities, but the State scored every time in showing instancees of gross charges. One of the best speeches of the conference was made by C. H. Ireland, of Greensboro, who compared L. Green, general traffic manager of the Southern, to a Christian Science healer. This person when you have the stomach ache, Mr. Ireland said. simply patted you on the back and informed you of your mistake; that it was imagination. And that is what Mr. Green has been telling the shippers when they complained about unjust rates. "Forget it" was ADA. mental suggestion of Mr. Green, "your troubles are imagi-And all the time the jobbers nay." in other States have been closing in on the North Carolina merchants. As has been said everybody recognizes the gross discriminaitons, but there is a division of sentiment as to the means of correcting these. One legislator, who did not care to be quoted, said the movers would find mighty stiff opposition in the House to any program of retaliation against the railroads, and that this opposition would not come from men in the pay of the carriers, but from persons who believe in using the courts rather than the club. He did not believe anything can be accompliahed and he advised the Governor against calling an extra session. This legislator, it might he stated, was one of the progressives in all legislation of an advanced nature. However, that is merely his opinion. With the public fully aroused to the enormity of the breach between the State and the railroads, and with small likelihood of ever getting relief through the usual court channels, the General Assembly might go on the warpath and make it interesting for the carries. The next two weeks should certainly unfold the secret of whether there will be a special session of the Legislature. In the meantime nobody with authority is saying anything.

This act imposes a maximum fne of $5,000 or imprisonment of not more than ten years for any person convicted of unlawfully breaking into any railway car containing interstate or foreign shipments of freight or express or of stealing or obtaining by faud or deception from any car, depot, platform, vessel or wharf, any freight, express or baggage which constitutes or is part of any interstate or foreign shipment. While the Carlin act in no way infringes on the jurisdiction of the State courts, it puts the whole power of the Federal Department of Justice behind the detection and prosecution of persons guilty of stealing from cars or depots since it will be practically impossible for thieves to distinguish between intrastate and interstate shipments. As the Carlin act becomes better crook will look pon express packence and awe as he has been taught the commissioners. to respect all mail matter, however tempting its purloining may be his criminal instincts.

Keep the Balance Up.

Men and women alike have to work incessantly with brain and hand to stake; thence in a Western direchold their own nowadays. Never were the demands of business, the wants of the family, the requirements of society.more numerous.The first effect of the praiseworthy effort to keep up with all these things is commonly seen in a weakened or debilitated condition of the nervous system, which results indyspepsia, defective nutrition of both body and brain, and in extreme cases in complete prostration. It is clearly seen that what is needed is what will sustain the system, give vigor and tone to the nerves, and keep the digestive and assimilative functions healthy and active. From personal knowledge. we can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for this purpose. It acts on all the vital organs, builds up the whole system, and fits men and wemen for these high-pressure days. A man living at Auburn, New York, had a severe attack of kidney and bladder trouble. Being a working man, not wanting to loes time, he cured himself completely by using Foley Kidney Pills. A year later he says: "It is a pleasure to intestines can be quickly cured by report that the cure was permathorough nent." His name is J. A. Farmer. while you For sale by all dealers.
