

NEWS OF REIDSVILLE AND ROCKINGHAM

Town Hall tonight! Mr. W. W. Boyles spent yesterday in Winston-Salem. Miss Mary Freddy is visiting relatives in Greensboro. Miss Mary Boyd of Washington is a guest of friends and relatives here. Mrs. J. H. Barber and son Robert are visiting in Petersburg, Hopewell and Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Moffitt and little son of High Point are visiting Mrs. J. N. Hester. Mr. L. L. Self, formerly of Roanoke, Va., has located at Mayodan for the practice of law. Mr. G. W. Patterson, a well known insurance man of Charlotte, was in Reidsville Wednesday. Mrs. J. F. Wray and Mrs. Scott Fillman are attending the Virginia State Fair in Richmond. Cole's Hot Blast Heaters make a big reduction in your coal bill. See their advertisement and guarantee. Republican headquarters for this county have been opened in the first building over the Chimax barber shop. Mr. John Hester is attending the University of Maryland at Baltimore where he is taking a dental surgeon's course. Mr. J. F. Drish of Prince William County, Va., is in Reidsville looking around for a farm with a view of locating in this section. Mr. and Mrs. Otis Phillips and children of Richmond are visiting Mrs. Phillips' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Moore, on Maple avenue. Mr. A. H. Dickerson, a progressive farmer of the Mayfield section was in town Wednesday and gave The Review office a very pleasant call. Democratic county candidates will speak at the town hall tonight, Thursday, at 8:45, immediately after the preaching at Methodist church. Mr. R. G. Henson, Jr., the Inevitable and Immigration Agent of the Southern Railway, with headquarters at Asheville spent Wednesday here. Rev. L. I. Cox of Elon College will fill his regular appointment at the Reidsville Christian church on next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The public cordially invited. Every member of the Presbyterian congregation, who can do so, is earnestly requested to donate preserves, jelly, canned fruits, etc., for the Barium Springs Orphanage on the 15th of this month, and please send the same to Mr. C. H. Fetzer's drug store for shipment. In order that everybody may go to church tonight (Thursday) and also hear the county candidates, the speaking at the town hall will not begin until after the church service. Miss Lillie Roman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Roman of Reidsville and Mr. Joseph Potter were united in marriage last Sunday evening at six o'clock at the Wilson Street Synagogue, Danville, Va. Patrolman T. D. Hatcher of the Mount Airy police force, was here a few days ago to deliver Percy Fry, a white man, wanted in this county on a charge of retailing. Mr. Hatcher arrested Fry in Mt. Airy. Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Barber and son Raymond motored down to Jackson Springs and spent the week-end with Miss Audrey Barber, who is teaching school at that place. Miss Margaret Young accompanied them. There will be an important meeting of the Royal Arcanum Council on Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired, as something that may seriously concern each member will be brought up for careful consideration. The weather has been ideal for the fairs this week—clear, cool and crisp. Large numbers of our citizens have visited the Danville and Greensboro fairs and a few have taken in the Virginia Fair at Richmond. All report pleasant outings. The Rev. E. C. Murray, D. D., pastor of the Alamance church, Guilford county, will preach at the Presbyterian church here Sunday, and also will speak in the interest of the Glade Valley High School. A full attendance is desired. John T. Wooten of near Wentworth one of The Review's most loyal colored friends, sold tobacco here Wednesday at fancy prices. John has been a regular subscriber of The Review for over twenty years and we appreciate his constancy and friendship. Mrs. Mattie Moore, mother of Mr. Harry Moore, of Reidsville, has in her possession a copy of the "Lister County Gazette," published in Kingston, N. Y., under date of January 4, 1890. It is a four-column, four-page sheet, and was published weekly. The issue is in mourning for Geo. Washington, who died a few days before that date. Considerable space is devoted to the European war news, though three months old. Among the advertisements is one offering a "negro wench" for sale. The paper is quite a curiosity. Mrs. Jack Sands is visiting relatives in Chatham, Va. The Irving Literary Society held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon in the school auditorium. The initiation of the new members caused a great deal of fun among the old girls. The new members took the oath, and after the reading of the constitution the old girls gave an attractive play, "Mrs. Jarley's Famous Wax Works," which was enjoyed by all. Mr. J. E. Garrett, a popular young farmer of Lenox Castle, was united in marriage Wednesday night, the 11th, to Miss Lucile Blackwell, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Blackwell of Waynesville. Mr. Garrett was accompanied to Waynesville by Mr. R. G. Wray of Reidsville, who acted as best man. The newly wedded couple left immediately on an extended bridal tour before returning to the groom's home at Lenox Castle. Very satisfactory progress is being made on the city's street paving, a large area on Main street having already been laid with the mixture of asphalt and broken stone preparatory to the pure asphalt top. The road shows up very well under the present condition, and when the asphalt is laid, Main street will certainly present a very handsome appearance, and with the completion of the paving we will have a system of thoroughfares second to none. But additional labor is badly needed. Hands, white or colored, are in demand. Wages of $1.25 to $1.50 a day are being paid and the contractors could use fully fifty more hands right now. Hon. A. L. Brooks of Greensboro was in town Wednesday en route to Oregon Hill where he made a red-hot Democratic speech at the rally there. He gave The Review office a pleasant call. Mr. Brooks is doing some effective campaign work and is in fine fettle and very optimistic over Democratic prospects in the nation. He held a joint debate with Jake Newell of Charlotte Tuesday night and sewed up that doughty Republican to the queen's taste. Mr. Brooks also spoke at Pelham yesterday where a big rally and Brunswick stew were held. We are informed that Mr. Brooks' address at Oregon was one of the finest ever heard in this section, the late beloved Aycock's efforts not even being excepted. Five hundred people were there to hear him and to enjoy the delicious stew. CLUBBING OFFERS The following clubbing offers are good for a limited time.
