The ladies present were: Mesdames W. N. Poole, S. P. Tesh, Frank Matthews, Sherman Reynolds, Jim Roach, Tom Crews, Everett Nelson, Sam Martin, J. W. Austin, Misses Sue Alley and Annie Smith. GROOM'S

The wheat and oat crops seem to be a failure this season. Elder John R. Smith will preach at New Hope the 4th Sunday at 3 o'clock. We hope a large crowd will attend. Miss Maude Wall was a visitor at the home of Mr. Will Manly on Route 6 Saturday. Mr. William Stanfield and Mr. Stephen McKinney of McIver were visitors in this section Saturday and Sunday. Messrs. Ellison and Prescott McKinney of McIver spent the week-end in this vicinity. Mrs. George Brown of Stacey visited friends and relatives in this section the past week. Miss Laura Wall visited at the home of Mr. Will Manly Saturday afternoon. The party given by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Manly Saturday night was enjoyed by a large crowd. Mr. Robt Halzlip was a visitor at the home of Mr. Will Manly Sunday afternoon. Mr. Willie Garrison of McIver was a visitor in the neighborhood recently. A large crowd attended the singing school at New Hope Saturday. They will hold their next meeting Saturday the 24th at one o'clock. We hope a large crowd will be out. Mrs. Whitt Brown and children visited Mrs. Della Somers of near Lawrenceville one day the past week. Whooping cough and measles seem to be all the rage in this vicinity. The widowers are taking the day in this section and the writer thinks the young men had better look out and keep their eyes open if they do not care to be left. Mr. A. G. McKinney was a caller at Mr. J. H. Wall's Sunday afternoon. The Mt. Carmel writer thinks he is some "scribe" and we think it would be wise for the farmers of this section to read the Mt. Carmel items and stop reading the Progressive Farmer and other farm papers for awhile. Mr. Norman McKinney was in our midst Saturday. The Valentine party given by Mr. Charlie and Aureals Saunders Wednesday night was enjoyed by a large crowd. Mrs. A. A. Walker of Route 6 visited Mrs. J. H. Wall Friday. Meeting of Bachelors' Club

The Bachelors' Club held its regular meeting, Monday evening, February 9, at the Bachelors' Hall. The Club was called to order by the president and roll called by the secretary. Two new members were enrolled. The majority of the members having thought it best to secure a wild roat, ordered it from the jungles of Africa, but on account of the late Act of the German Imperial Government, was delayed by the transportation company. Provided the goat is not blown up by the pests of the sea, the initiation will take place at the next meeting. Matters of striking importance were discussed, such as: "What course bachelors should take; Why girls are so deceiving; and How often the boys should call on the ladies." Having carried out the program successfully, refreshments were served and each member reporting a jolly time, the Club adjourned at 10:45.

MT. CARMEL

The weather has been very unfavorable for preparing plant lands this week. But fortunately most every one has finished burning in this section. The dry freeze last week has caused the wheat to look as if half of it is killed. But we trust there will be a full yield in this section. The oat crop is almost a complete failure and now begins to look like some of us will have to get our share from the western farmers. Mr. Silas Strader has returned from Richmond where he was employed by the Virginia Railway and Power Co. for the past year. We understand that he will try his luck at raising tobacco this year. Miss Mary Vaughn of Nance spent a few days the past week with her aunt, Mrs. T. M. French. Mrs. G. D. Ellington visited friends and relatives in Reidsville Saturday. Mr. E. M. Gunn and family visited Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Strader on Route 3 Sunday. Mr. Edward Dix and family visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Vaughn near Nance Sunday. Mrs. Lula Allen of Reidsville visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Allen, near Bethlehem Saturday and Sunday. It seems that some of our farmers have taken the good-road fever as they have been seen making a split log drag and as soon as the weather favors they will be out trying it. Choppings are all the go in this section these days. Mr. Robert Hudson of Ruffin spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hudson. Rev. F. L. Townsend will fill his regular appointment at Mt. Carmel Sunday at 3 p. m. We hope to see a large crowd out to hear him. The next regular meeting of the Mt. Carmel Local Union No. 1643 will be held at the school house Saturday February 24, at 2 p. m. sharp. Members are urgently requested to be present. We understand that one of our young men thinks that Sunday night, February 4th, was the coldest night that he has ever experienced in his life. It is reported that he had been to see his best girl and while returning was caught in a snow storm and upon arriving at home he pulled off his shoes to retire and the next morning they were frozen fast to the floor. It seems that all of the family and some of the neighbors had to make a trial attempt before the shoes were released from the floor. The mattress on the bed was also frozen to the foot board the next morning.

GENERAL FUNSTON DIES SUDDENLY AT SAN ANTONIO

Major General Frederick Funston commander of the Southern Department of the United States army since February 1915, died suddenly at a San Antonio hotel Monday night a few minutes after he had finished dinner. He collapsed while seated in a lobby of the hotel talking with friends, and was playing with little Inez Silverberg of Des Moines, Iowa, when he fell unconscious. Death was almost instantaneous. General Funston was 51 years old. Ever since March, 1916, when he was placed in command of all United States forces on the Mexican border, General Funston had worked at an unusual pace. At critical times in border developments he frequently remained on duty twenty hours of the twenty-four. The handling of regulars disposed at various stations on the border, the Pershing expedition and, of late, re-arrangement of regular troops while providing for the return of national guardsmen have entailed an enormous amount of detail work, probably exceeding that which fell to any commanding general of the United States army since the civil war.

He was invited to speak on the subject, "Juniorism—What it Means". Mr. J. W. Sechrest, Deputy of District in which the county of Randolph is included and Mr. L. D. Mendenhall, National Representative, were also on the program. The Junior Order is very strong in Randolph and Guilford counties while Rockingham claims nearly thirteen hundred Juniors.
