

NEWS OF REIDSVILLE AND ROCKINGHAM

Ann Murdock in Envy today in the first episode of the Seven Deadly Sins. Mr. Alex R. Williams, a prominent citizen of Route 3, was in town Tuesday and gave The Review office a pleasant call.

"It's easy to keep order in a cemetery," an exchange says, and we might add the same conditions prevail in stores that do not advertise.

The Library during this month is open from 3:30 to 6 p. m. The librarian requests all those who have overdue books to please return them at once.

Our good friend, Mr. T. F. Perkins, of near Lawsonville called in to see us Tuesday. He has been in ill health for a few weeks past but is now fully recovered, we are glad to know.

And while it snowed a little Sunday the Weather Man has been kind since then, and garden seed are now displayed in the merchant's windows and people are dreaming of the first plate of home-grown snaps.

Onions with the pep in 'em are being sold by farmers in this town at six dollars a bushel, and retailing at five cents each. They are no longer than walnuts at that, and yet some of the farmers who chew the rag claim they can't make a living.—Greensboro Record.

S. T. Neal, deputy revenue collector, arrived from Reidsville yesterday at noon and will leave this morning to attend a preliminary hearing today before the United States commissioner at Asheboro of a case against a white man named Arledge King, charged with illicit distilling.—Greensboro News.

The grounds around the postoffice are being beautified with shrubbery, plants and flowers which are being planted this week. This will doubtless add much to the attractiveness of the premises. But green velvety lawns are hard to beat, in our opinion, though our esthetic tastes are not very highly developed.

Governor Bickett has designated April Fith as "Planting Day." On that day he urges all people to meet and devise ways and means to plant more foodstuffs; to till all vacant land; to see to it that we this year produce crops in abundance—greater than ever before. Every available plot of ground should be made to produce food. Food will be what we most need and now that spring is here—it is seed time—let the harvest be greater than ever. This call should be heeded by all people, because all people are interested.

Juniors Entertain Seniors

One of the most delightful social functions of the season was the reception Saturday evening, March 17th, given by the Junior Class of the High School of this city in honor of the Seniors. Seventy-five young people were present and from eight to eleven genuine merriment prevailed in the chapel and corridors of the school building.

It was truly a St. Patrick party from start to finish, the decorations and every detail of the entertainment being distinctly characteristic of that revered Saint of Ireland.

The class president, Edmund Watt, assisted by Mary Stokes, Catherine

Waycaster and John Johnston welcomed the guests upon entering the front hall which place they were shown to the cloak-rooms by Mary Ziglar and Jasper Roberts. Then in a corner of the chapel from a table attractively decorated in shamrocks and Irish flags, fruit punch was served by Sara Irvin, Gordon Huffines, William Hester and Emily Reid Morrison.

An unique form of entertainment was an Irish spelling match in which each word must be spelled backwards. Dorothy Mills was the most successful—"backward" speller and received as a prize one of St. Patrick's green snakes. An interesting contest then followed in which Fannie Foy and Edmund Watt proved to be the couple who gave the greatest number of correct answers and they were presented with a box of dainty Irish linen stationery; while John Satterfield and Elizabeth Brooks won the consolation—a tiny pot of shamrock.

At ten o'clock the guests, led by the president of the Junior class, found their places, by means of Irish cards, at small tables which were placed in the halls and music room of the second floor of the building. From the tables which had been made artistic by the use of candles, jonquils, and shamrocks, the guests were served an ice course and bon-bons in which the color scheme was green and white.

The young people reluctantly dispersed, all unanimous in praising their hosts the Juniors.

HOPPER ITEMS

Quite a number of our young people attended the Hickory school commencement.

The D. R. Literary Society of Dan River school held its last meeting on March 9th, with quite a large crowd present.

Mrs. W. H. Ferguson has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Jones of Reidsville.

Miss Nell Hopper is spending some time in Danville with her sister, Mrs. B. G. Lewis.

The Dan River School won in the Ruffin Township spelling contest.

Rev. P. T. Clapp filled his regular appointment at Happy Home church Sunday.

The Dan River school has closed after a successful term.

Miss Nell Alcorn, who has been teaching the school at Dan River has returned to her home near Leaksville with Miss Katherine Moore the principal, being her guest.

An apron party was given in honor of the Dan River teachers at the home of Mr. J. H. Richmond last Monday night. The following were present: Miss Lillie Hopper with Mr. Grover Rice, Miss Laura Hopper with Mr. Hugh Scott, Miss Sude Hopper with Mr. Thomas Ward, Miss Minnie Cox with Mr. Roy Hill, Miss Katherine Moore with Mr. Harry Cox, Miss Nell Alcorn with Mr. Preston Richmond, Miss Elva Ward with Mr. Dillard Dix, Miss Carrie Cox with Mr. Charlie Hughes, Miss Eunice Richmond with Mr. Jimmie Scott and Miss Ruth Richmond with Mr. Russell Cox.

After many interesting games were played, a prize was given to Messrs. Russell Cox and Dillard Dix for the best work.

Monroe Johnson, a Guilford county man, who has been waiting his execution Friday morning at the State Prison under the sentence of the court for the killing of Carl Preddy, overseer of the White Oak mill north of Greensboro, will not be electrocuted. Greensboro will not be electrocuted. Governor Bickett commuted his sentence to life imprisonment at hard labor. One of the moving facts behind Governor Bickett's action was the presentation of affidavits from six members of the jury which convicted Johnson declaring that had they known the facts now admitted to be true, such facts have come out since the trial, they would not have agreed upon a verdict of first degree murder.

RUFFIN
 On last Tuesday afternoon Mrs. H. W. Baker entertained the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church at her home on North Main street. A goodly number of the Society answered to the roll call with a Scriptural quotation. At the close of the business meeting a tempting course of delicate refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Mr. Samuel Wright of the A. & M. Raleigh visited his home folks last week.

Mrs. Hillary Hatcher of this county is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Wright.

Our townsman, Mr. John A. Benton, has recently purchased a lot from Mr. J. J. Worsham on which he will soon begin the erection of a handsome residence. We trust that a few more of our numerous bachelors may follow Mr. Benton's example.

We regret to learn of the indisposition of Miss Cora Harrelson within the past few days.

We are glad to learn that little Gladys Wharton is steadily improving since returning from the hospital.

Mrs. L. Hagood spent the last week end with her daughter, Mrs. Tom Lewis in Danville.

Misses Mary Stokes and Virginia Ferrell visited Miss Mary Carter of the faculty of McIver school recently.

Mr. Harry Ferrell of Danville spent the week-end with home folks here.

Dr. Barnhardt, the new presiding Elder for Greensboro District, will preach for us next Sunday night, en route from Hickory Grove, at which place he presides at quarterly conference.

Miss Pricie Gibson of the Pelham school faculty spent last week end with her parents here.

Mr. E. B. Fitzgerald, who travels from Akron, Ohio, spent several days last week with Mrs. Fitzgerald at Mrs. Cora Worsley's near town.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. A. Calhoun, who has been on the sick list for some time, is on the road to recovery.

The supper which was served by the Ladies Aid in the school building proved a success financially. Also the debate, spelling match and a vocal solo by Miss Mary Stokes, proved a success and was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Miss Minnie Wren is at home her many friends will be glad to learn.

The eleventh annual meeting of the North Carolina Library Association will be held in Salisbury April 24-25.

NERVOUS SPELLS

And Combination of Troubles Relieved by a Combination of Medicines.

A quotation from one recent letter: "I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and Peptiron Pills as a course of medicine and find this combination has worked like a charm. They told me I had neuralgia, and certainly I was in a very low and discouraging state of health. I suffered extremely with nervousness and had neuralgia pains so I was extremely restless and could not sleep nights.

"Those nervous spells were awful!"

"I heard about taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and Peptiron Pills—one before meals, the other after—the suggestion struck me favorably so that I have taken the medicines faithfully with pleasing results.

"It is a long time now since I have had one of those severe nervous spells. I can do a good day's housework, can work in my garden and walk a mile." Mrs. Fred J. Weekley, Bagdad, Fla.

Your druggist will be pleased to supply you with these good medicines.
