Instant Relief! "Papes's Diapepsin' Ends Your Stomach Distress. Try It!

Wonder what upset your stomach which portion of the food did the damage-do you? Well, don't bother. tf your stomach is in revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coatedjust take a little Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have dyspepsia. A little Diapepsin occcasionally keeps the stomach sweetened and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful-it stops fermentation and acidity and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

Reading Club

On Tuesday, March 2., Mrs. Diuene Watt was hostess to the Real ing Club when an enthusiastic weeting was held by the fifteen members. Titian and Corregio were the subjec's for the afternoon and at roll call a fact concerning the life of, or a description of some painting of either artist was given.

Mrs. M. P. Cummings gave a good sketch o the great Venetian artist. Titlan also mentioning and explaining many of his works of art. Miss Jessie Lawrence presented "Corregio and the Cathedral of Parma," giving a summary of the works of Corregio and especially describing his paint ings at Parma.

Miss Frances Scales concluded to program with two fine readings: "The Pesaro Madonna," by Titian and "T Madonna of St. Jerome" by Corregio.
