

NEWS OF REIDSVILLE AND ROCKINGHAM

Mass-meeting tonight! An unusual program of fine pictures at the Grande Theatre every day this week. Mr. Harry Clark left Friday night for Akron, Ohio, where he will study the rubber business. Watch for announcement of a big land sale by the Reidsville Insurance & Realty Company in the next issue of The Review. Our Primitive Baptists friends were treated to some very fine sermons Sunday, the preachers being Elders Gold, Denny and Adams. Mr. J. Nunn, a leading farmer of near Lawsonville, gave us a pleasant call Saturday. He says good progress has been made in getting in crops. Mr. R. H. Hopper of near Oregon Hill gave us a pleasant call Saturday. He says the biggest corn crop he has ever known is being planted in his section. Mr. Frank Anderson of Route 4, called in to see us Friday. He says the Irish potato crop in his section has been increased five-fold this season over previous years. Mr. J. D. Matkins, a prominent farmer of McIver called in to see us Saturday. He says the farmers are putting forth the greatest efforts of their lives to increase food crops. Messrs. Sam Walker and Wm J. Penn and Reid Ray of Spray have made application to take the military training and officers' examination at Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., beginning May 8th. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Thomas Chandler announce the marriage of their daughter Annie to Mr. Nick Bothe on Wednesday, April twenty-fifth, Greensboro, North Carolina. They will be at home in Richmond, Va., after May 1st. Mr. W. M. Babb, who has filled the position of the local ticket agent for the Southern Railway, has been promoted to a similar position in Salisbury and has moved his family to that place. Mr. Babb made many friends here who regret his departure very much. Mrs. Sarah B. Hines died at the home of Mrs. Kate Watkins in Milton Sunday morning at 3 o'clock. She was in her 71st year. She was a most estimable and deeply beloved woman. Mrs. Hines is survived by two granddaughters. She was a sister-in-law of Mr. H. W. Hines of Reidsville and was a resident of this place several years ago. The burial was at Milton cemetery yesterday morning. A great many farmers were in town Saturday. The ground is getting rather hard to plow and many of the tillers felt that they could take a day off to do a little shopping. Quite a number of them took occasion to call at The Review office during the day to congratulate us on the fight we are making against selling out the electric light plant. They are greatly interested in this contest and all of them say they wish they had a vote in the municipal election so they could help us win. Mr. William Ernest McCollum of Reidsville and Miss Genevieve Hopkins were united in marriage on Monday, April 25th, at the home of the bride's parents at Port Norfolk, Va. Mr. and Mrs. McCollum came to Reidsville immediately after the ceremony. The bride is a very attractive young lady of Port Norfolk. Mr. McCollum is a member of the firm of J. D. McCollum & Son, and is making great progress in the business world. We join their many friends in wishing the young couple their full share of happiness. Although he is wanted in Reidsville for a more serious crime than that for which he was held here, H. Jackson, alias Hunter Roberts, a negro, must serve his four months on the streets here, before he is turned over to the other town. He was arrested here for carrying a concealed revolver and was sentenced yesterday. Reidsville wants him for breaking into a store. The police yesterday communicated by letter with the neighboring town. Shortly after the train which was due in Reidsville, a telephone message from Reidsville, informed the police that the negro was wanted there and that his real name was Hunter Roberts. He will be held for Reidsville after he completes his sentence here.—Greensboro News. Misses Ruth Burton and Irene Taylor spent the week-end with Miss Ethel Gibson in Danville. Mr. J. R. Butler, who has been in the Greensboro hospital for some time suffering from blood poisoning, has recently had to undergo another operation and his condition is not so favorable, we regret to know. Owing to sickness, Mr. J. B. Hazell found he could not serve as judge of today's election and resigned the position. The board of commissioners yesterday elected Mr. E. H. Mathewson to serve in place of Mr. Hazell. Mr. J. C. Weaver and Miss Willie Rice were united in marriage Sunday, April 29th, at the parsonage of the First Baptist church in Greensboro. Both the contracting parties are well known in this community and we are sure they have the good wishes of every one who knows them. A thief broke into the Reidsville Motor Company's garage Friday night and stole a fivepassenger Ford automobile belonging to Rev. A. P. Dixon of High Point. Mr. Dixon was in attendance at the Young People's Convention of the M. P. Church here and had stored his car at this garage. No clues to the thief have so far been obtained. He made a clean get-away. Mr. T. I. Duke, an influential farmer of Route 4, called in Saturday to congratulate The Review on its fight to prevent turning over the town's electric plant and a 60-year franchise to an alien corporation. He says he can not see what the people of Reidsville are thinking about to thus barter away their rights and liberties and bow their necks to trust domination. He says the sympathies of the farmers are wholly on the people's side in this contest and he can not understand how anyone who believes in people's rule can line up on the side of the trusts and corporations in this fight. Mr. Duke says if the farmers in a radius of three or four miles of Reidsville had a vote on the question they would settle it right, beyond a doubt. The Reidsville baseball team met defeat at the hands of the strong Mayodan team Saturday in a 7 to 3 contest. Reidsville was up against a tough proposition and this, coupled with seemingly such glaring unfair decisions by the umpire, proved too much for our bunch. This was Reidsville's first game of the season, but those who witnessed the game declare that the team in due time will prove itself the equal if not better than any team ever seen on the Reidsville field. On the other hand, Mayodan's team, after many hard-fought games this season, of course had considerable advantage, but they had their hands full at that. Ingle, who was in the box for Reidsville, showed the lack of arm muscle that will surely come to him as the ball season begins in earnest. Hunter Mobley caught him in the old, old way, and the other members gave the battery good support. Barnes, Oak Ridge's twirler, and Vernon, comprised the battery for Mayodan. The opening game of the season on the local diamond will be played Saturday. Mr. Frank Talbot of Danville, the efficient superintendent of the Danville electric light and water works, delivered an address to a large and intelligent audience of men and women at the armory Saturday night on the advantages of municipal ownership of public utilities. Mr. Talbot made a highly interesting talk which was closely listened to and greatly appreciated by his hearers. His reasoning in favor of municipal control of all public utilities was clearly and succinctly presented and his arguments are unanswerable. It is with the deepest regret that The Review is unable to give a synopsis of his great speech. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Francis Womack. Col. A. B. Carrington and Mr. R. L. Dibrell of Danville also made short talks corroborating Mr. Talbot's statements as to Danville's experiences in municipal ownership. Both gentlemen stated that in their opinion Reidsville would be taking a backward step if the people voted to put their utilities in the hands of private monopoly. Messrs. J. R. Joyce and W. R. Dalton also made short, but red hot speeches in opposition to selling out the light plant and franchise.

Southern's Flood Book From its Washington office the Southern Railway has just issued a complete and elaborate book, giving most accurately the details of the great flood of July 1916, which wrought such havoc to the lines of the company in the South and in North and South Carolina, particularly. The title of the book is "The Floods of July 1916—How the Southern Railway Organization Met an Emergency," and is dedicated to "The Man on the Job." The purpose of the book is to put into permanent form the railroad company's recognition to the work one by its organization in restoring order and life to the system, following the havoc caused by the floods. The book is worthy of preservation because it vividly shows the path of destruction of the flood and because it shows the wonderful organization of the Southern Railway Company in getting the tracks into shape again. The railway company at the time of the flood needed men, not money, and it is most gratifying to the members of the company, as shown by the book, as well as the people who live on the line of the Southern, that men entered most earnestly and zealously in the great task of rebuilding the destroyed system. FARMERS ARE WARNED OF GERMANY'S ERROR The farmers of Cook county have been dependent to a certain extent upon labor agencies to get farm help, said Mr. Geweke, "but the class of help obtained from this source, of course, has been the expert help. What we will need now, if our crops are to be increased, are people to carry the crops through the weeding and harvesting season. "We will be able to get enough expert farm help to plant the crops, as one man can plant as much as twenty men can harvest. But we will have some assurance that we will have labor to care for the crops after they have been planted." Prefer Experienced Workers. Mr. Geweke said that the Cook county farmers would ask the Chicago board of education to help them obtain boys and girls from the schools, who will be provided with permits. A particular appeal will be made to the Polish and Bohemian sections of the city for helpers. The wages for unskilled farm labor, he said, would be from $1 to $2 a day during the weeding season and probably as high as $3 a day during the harvest season. Those who have had some farm experience will be given preference in employment. James A. Patten has volunteered to help buy two carloads of seed potatoes provided others will join with him in the project. The city authorities have under consideration a plan to place the vagrants of the city and the inmates of the Bridewell and other penal institutions not otherwise employed on a tract of land of more than 1,000 acres in extent near the Bridewell and raise there vegetables and other farm products. The plan has the sanction of the circuit judges and others interested. These "gardeners" would be under direct supervision of guards and compelled to work. Hit Hard. "I flatter myself I've made a hit with this song. Er—by the way, who was the gentleman that was moved to tears and went out?" "That was the composer."—London Tatler. Read the paper regularly.
