

NEWS OF REIDSVILLE AND ROCKINGHAM

List your taxes! Pearl of the Army today, Monday, at the Grande.

Every mail order catalog in this town is a leak.

Don't miss the second episode of Pearl of the Army.

This town will never grow on money that is sent to some other town.

A good way to drive children away from home is to tell them what a poor town this is.

Mr. J. O. Hines, an influential farmer of Route 4, was in town Friday and gave us an appreciated call.

Large numbers of county people were in town Saturday. Our merchants enjoyed a splendid trade during the day.

Many persons from this immediate community have been attending the Primitive Baptist association at Spray the past few days.

Wouldn't it be a fine thing if the fellow who talks about eliminating the merchants of this town would some day fall into his own eliminator?

Mr. James Bailey, an aged citizen living on Mr. James Butler's place East of Reidsville died Saturday, aged 83 years. His death was caused by paralysis.

Mrs. Polly Hayden, an estimable lady, died at the home of her cousin, Mr. John A. Benton at Ruffin, Sunday night. The burial took place yesterday afternoon.

You never can enrich your farm by putting the fertilizer on somebody else's land. You never can build up this community by sending your money somewhere else.

The Ladies Aid Society of Salem church will give an ice cream supper on the church lawn Saturday, May 26th, beginning at 8 o'clock. Every body is cordially invited.

Mr. R. J. Martin, a successful farmer of the Oregon section, was in town Friday and gave us a pleasant call. He says his people are strongly aroused over the importance of increasing food crops this year.

A big Sunday School picnic conducted by four neighborhood churches was held at Prospect Hill, in Caswell county, Saturday. Our townsman, Mr. E. F. Hall delivered the principal address. A large crowd was in attendance.

Mrs. John M. Galloway, of Madison, spent the day yesterday at her cottage at Piedmont Springs. She was traveling in her handsome new Cadillac and was accompanied by several of her lady friends. Mrs. George Martin of Madison who accompanied the party stopped over in Danbury and spent the day with friends.—Danbury Reporter.

Register of Deeds J. P. McMichael is just in receipt of a letter from the State authorities at Raleigh in regard to the fact that the law requires that sign boards or guide posts be erected at the various road crossings and forks of roads in the county by August 7th. Mr. McMichael is instructed to call the attention of the commissioners and road commissioners to the fact.

Mr. Geo. W. Fowler of Baltimore, and Miss Mamie King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex King of the Bethlehem section were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, the 16th inst. Squire W. E. Dix performed the ceremony. Many friends and relatives were present and an elaborate wedding supper was served. The bride and groom left the next day for Baltimore, their future home.

Miss Hallie Allen of Reidsville will receive the degree of A. B. from Salem College on May 29th. Miss Allen is Vice-President of the class, and has taken an active part in college affairs being Business Manager of the Ivy, the student publication, one of the editorial staff of the college annual and Treasurer of the Athletic Association. The exercises of Commencement Week will begin on Saturday, May 26th continuing until May 29th. The musical feature of the week will be the grand concert on Monday night given jointly ly by the faculty and students of the college, the Thursday Morning Music Club and the Apollo Male Chorus of Winston-Salem. On Tuesday Lieutenant Governor, O. Max Gardner of North Carolina will address the graduates taking as his subject: "The Limitless Sphere of Woman—Usefulness."

Capt. W. B. Millner asks us to say that there are a limited number of vacancies in the Reidsville company and those young men who do not want to be conscripted should make application to him at once for membership, thereby being assured of leaving home with friends instead of being sent, perhaps to the water or flying squadrons, thousands of miles from acquaintances and friends.

The necessary cards for registering those who are subject to army duty have been received here for Rockingham county. The cards contain questions and blanks for giving a full description of each man who registers, together with his occupation, address, nationality, etc. All male persons, including those of the colored race, between the ages of 21 and 30 years, are required to register.

Mr. Thomas F. Perkins, a well known farmer of near Lawsonville, died at his home Saturday, aged 57 years. His death was caused by cancer on the stomach. The funeral was conducted from the residence at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon and interment was made at Wolf Island cemetery. Mr. Perkins was of a sunny, cheerful disposition and was highly regarded by all who knew him.

Mr. George Rogers, the noted tenor who visited Reidsville a few days ago, in a letter to Miss Rohr, wrote of Miss Mary Womack: "Miss Womack who played is certainly a wonder as an accompanist and is wasting her time in Reidsville." We are sure it is of interest to the Reidsville people to know what so prominent a musician thinks of our own Reidsville talent. Mr. Rogers is Madame Sembrich's favorite pupil and has quite a reputation.

A delegation of Reidsville citizens will go to Yanceyville today to try to construct a new sand clay road from Yanceyville to the Rockingham county line near Lenox Castle. Caswell county will receive a Federal appropriation of about $7,000 toward building a road. This amount will be duplicated by the commissioners of that county. Under instructions from the War Department at Washington, an order is issued for Brigadier General Laurence W. Young, of the North Carolina National Guard, to make personal visitations to the home stations of all the units constituting his command. The colonels of the First, Second and Third regiments are ordered to accompany the brigadier in the visitations to the companies of their respective commands. The desire of the military authorities is that each of the towns having military companies that are visited there shall be public meetings arranged so that the people may become as far as possible enthused in the cause of recruiting their respective companies to full strength. It is in the hope that these visitations will quicken enlistment of men that the tour of the companies is ordered and it is all in preparation for the impending order mustering the brigade back into service, which it is expected will not be long delayed. The visitors will come to Reids-ville on Wednesday, May 30, and fitting reception should be accorded them.

The weather has been quite summerish the past week and fine on growing crops. Rain is needed, however.
