successful in locating their man last night and lodging him in jail.

The W. C. T. U. will observe Flower Mission Day at the home of Mrs. W. T. Barber Thursday at 4:30 p. m. Please bring your cut flowers as we want to send them into every home where there is sickness and sorrow. A cordial welcome awaits all.

Don't forget the Red Cross fete on Friday night, June 15, on Mrs. J. N. Watt's lawn. Let all who want to show their appreciation of our gallant soldier boys come out and help. Our friends all over the county are cordially invited to be present. A good time and a good cause are combined. We look to you our friends to aid in this noble work.

Reidsville friends have received invitations reading: "Mr. J. and Mrs. George Washington Sparger request the pleasure of your company at the marriage of their daughter, Helen Gilmer, to Mr. William Samuel Dickson, on Wednesday afternoon, June the twentieth, at three o'clock, One hundred and seventy-six Cherry street, Mount Airy, North Carolina."

The remains of Mrs. Mary Galloway of Madison, were buried at Mon Vee, near Leaksville Friday at noon. The funeral services were conducted by Revs. Wm. J. Gordon and Howard Hartzell. Mrs. Galloway, who at the time of her death, was in Danville attending a meeting of the Episcopal church. Saturday she underwent an operation for locked bowels.

Miss Margaret Berry, an attorney at law at Charlotte, and who has frequently visited Miss Louise Craig in Reidsville, is spending a few days at her home at Chapel Hill before becoming clerk to a base hospital unit bound for France. Miss Berry graduated from the University of North Carolina two years ago and securing her A. B. degree she studied and secured her degree in law, opening an office about a year ago in Charlotte, where she has been quite successful in the practice of her profession.

The board of education has about decided that the teachers' institute for the white teachers of the county will commence on some date the latter part of July. Probably the 23rd, but the date has not, as yet, been finally determined. This institute promises to be one of the most interesting the county has ever had, and will be among the first conducted under the new regime. Two conductors male and female, from the State board of institute conductors will in conjunction with the local superintendent of county schools supervise the work. The institute will be held in the county court house.

During the absence of Dr. J. A. Pinnix of Caswell county, who was in Washington attending the reunion, a cow on his plantation developed what is believed to have been hydrophobia. The cow after plunging wildly over the grounds of the farm was shot and the head was cut off and sent to Raleigh to be examined. In the meantime Mrs. Pinnix is very anxious as to the state of her own health. She has been tending the cow and has a bad sore on her hand which she fears may have become infested. Dr. Walker of Burlington accompanied Mrs. Pinnix to Baltimore, where it was deided she should take the Pasteur treatment.

Mrs. Joe Smith has entered a Richmond hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Scales of California are guests of relatives here.

Mr. John Mitchell of High Point has been spending a few days here with relatives.

Mr. B. L. Hurdle is at Mt. Airy White Sulphate Springs in the interest of his health.

Lieut. Sidney E. Buchanan of Spray has been ordered to report to Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., on July 20 to take a three months' training in the medical service.

Copious rains have fallen all over the county the past few days and all crops are doing well. Some complaints are made that too much rain has fallen in some sections.

Mrs. M. B. Tracy well known here, died at her home in Lexington Thursday night of last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Clodfelter, age about 90 years. The deceased had been an invalid for a number of years.

It is especially requested of all citizens to promptly report to phone 92 or 142 any leakage in water coming under their observation or any repairs needed in the electric light line, thereby assisting the authorities to give first class service at minimum cost.

Beginning yesterday in every city, town village and hamlet the bells of schools, churches and town halls will ring a mighty call to Americans to service in the case of freedom by investing in liberty bonds. They rang four times last night, for four days yet remain in which to make subscriptions; Tuesday they will ring three times; Wednesday they will ring twice and Thursday they will ring the last call.

The Messenger had a letter from its good friend, Nathan Case, of Mayodan Route, telling of the tragic death of his brother and son, J. P. Case, at Charleston, Ill., the other day by one of the tornadoes that swept the western part of the country last week. Mr. Case was sending his brother The Messenger and writes us that it is no longer necessary to do so, from the fact that the home was swept away, his brother and his son being killed, while the wife was badly hurt and she will probably die. Mr. Case left this section several years ago for Illinois and has many friends here who will regret to learn of his death.—Madison Messenger.

The postal laws and regulations with regard to the Sunday work at postoffices have been amended as follows: "Postmasters at first and second class postoffices shall not require more clerks and carriers to be on duty on Sunday than are requisite to collect and prepare mail for dispatch and to make such distribution of incoming mail as is necessary to meet the requirements of the law as to special delivery mail and to perform such distribution as may be necessary to prevent congestion or accumulation of mail that would prevent prompt deliveries on Monday. Renters of lock boxes may be permitted to obtain on Sundays such mail as may be distributed into their boxes during the process of distribution."

Mayor M. P. Cummings has received the following telegram from H. R. Lunk, Red Cross Secretary: "You as highest official in Reidsville are asked by war council appointed by President Wilson to lead the movement in your community to help raise hundred million dollar Red Cross war fund. Great national responsibility. Appoint committee. Wire reply." The committee appointed to work in conjunction with the local Red Cross chapter is: R. B. Chance, T. W. Andrews, Robt. Hairston, P. W. Glidewell and J. R. Joyce.

Misses Sarah and Rebecca Wall charmingly entertained Wednesday afternoon, May 31, at 4 o'clock in honor of Miss Margaret Spurgeon. This was the first of a series of parties to be given in honor of Miss Spurgeon, who on the twelfth of June will become the bride of Dr. A. J. Warren, of Hillsboro. The decorations were daisies. The idea being carried out in the attractive score cards. After several exciting games a salad course ice tea and sandwiches and an ice course were served. Miss Spurgeon was presented with dainty gold pins. The guests were Misses Margaret and Pattie Spurgeon, Sue Hayes, Sue Rosemond, Mildred Durham, Mabel and Ellen Jones, Edna Caviness, of Ashboro, Virginia Parris, Emma Robertson and Margaret Rosemond.—Hillsboro Cor.

Mr. Robt. H. Smith a well known former citizen of Reidsville died in San Francisco, Cal., the fifth inst. For several years past he has been a resident of Phoenix, Arizona, where he conducted a successful real estate business. He had been in declining health for some time past and went to San Francisco for treatment. As a last resort his physician gave him a transfusion of blood furnished by his faithful wife. His body was carried to Phoenix for burial. Mr. Smith was about 70 years of age. He was a resident of Reidsville for many years and was highly regarded by all who knew him. He is survived by his widow and a nephew, Mr. Will Isley, of Phoenix. Mr. Sam Smith of Danville, a brother and two sisters, Mrs. Armistead Jones and Mrs. Tally of near Reidsville.
