AMERICA'S REASON FOR FLAG ACROSS THE SEAS

America's reasons for sending her flag against the fire of the enemy across the sea and the purpose she seeks were stated anew by President Wilson in a Flag day address beneath the Washington monument.

Germany's military masters denied the United States the right to be neutral, the President said, and by extraordinary insults and aggressions "left us no self-respecting choice but to take up arms in defense of our rights as a free people and of our honor as a sovereign government."

Now that America has been forced to war, declared the President, she bids her men go forth to fight on fields of blood far away for the same old familiar heroic purpose for which it has seen its men die on every battlefield upon which Americans have borne arms since the revolution for democracy. A sinister power, he said, which has the German people themselves in its grip, "now at last has stretched forth its ugly talons and drawn blood from us."

"The whole world is at war," he added, "because the whole world is in the grip of that power and is trying out the great battle which shall determine whether it is to be brought under its mastery or fling itself free." In giving warning that Germany actually have carried into execution their plan to throw a broad belt of military power across the center of Europe and into the heart of Asia, rejecting the idea of solidarity of races and the choices of peoples, Mr. Wilson spoke of the "new intrigue for peace" now appearing in many guises at the behest of the Berlin government.

"It cannot go further; it dare not go back," he said. "It wishes to close its bargain before it is too late and it has little left to offer for the pound of flesh it will demand."

Several hours before the President spoke, Washington had been drenched with rain and pelted with hail. All through the speech rain came down softly and a secret service man held an umbrella over the President's head, while hundreds of umbrellas hid the faces of most of the hearers.

Newspapers Censor Themselves

Military information of value to enemies is being divulged by one per cent of the American newspapers, which are not regarding the volunteer censorship being respected by the other 99 per cent, the committee on public information announced in an appeal to all to suppress publication of matter of that nature. The committee said:

"While 99 per cent of the papers of the country are scrupulously observing the rules of voluntary censorship a certain few are printing daily information that may expose American soldiers and sailors to deadly peril."

A request to newspapers not to publish the names of armed merchant vessels which encounter submarines was issued by the committee on public information.

"A prime concern of the voluntary censorship imposed upon itself by the press," said a committee statement, "has been the suppression of the identity of armed merchant vessels that may engage in the defense encounters with submarines. The captains of these vessels not being a part of the recognized naval organization of the United States are outside the protection of laws of war as the German empire interprets them. In even of their capture, death would be their fate. The judicial murder of Captain Fryatt, makes clear the German attitude to these men."

"The peril of the destruction of the vessels themselves in subsequent voyages also is intensified by establishing the identity as the destroyer of a submarine. The added danger to the picked crew of the fine young Americans is equally apparent."

"The agreement of secrecy was shattered last week by cable dispatches from France naming the Silver Shield as victor over a German submarine. The act was unintentional and the government of the United States has since been assured that both the British and French governments will cooperate in the future for the protection of our merchant ships and their captains."

Beware

A German, posing as a neutral, has been arrested in Sweden upon his return from Russia, where he secretly spread hog cholera and infectious diseases among hogs and cattle. He carried the poison germs in lumps of sugar, imitation lead pencils and in other harmless looking devices. It is possible that recent outbreaks of cholera in the corn belt are due to a similar cause? Why may not contagious diseases among humans be secretly distributed? Would that be any worse than aeroplane attacks on defenseless women and children, or the work of submarines?—Farm and Home.

Sour Stomach

This is a mild form of indigestion. It is usually brought on by eating too rapidly or too much, or food not suited to your digestive organs. If you will eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, eat but little meat and none at all for supper, you will more than likely avoid the sour stomach without taking any medicine whatever. When you have sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets to aid indigestion.

NARROW GAUGE

Mr. Dove Craddock has returned to Mahoningtown after a month's stay with his mother, Mrs. E. A. Craddock. He has improved in health very much since his operation in Alliance City hospital several weeks ago.

Mr. Vellna Craddock, who has been employed as night clerk in a Durham hotel, spent several days with his mother here. He left last week for the north with his brother, where where they will try out their luck.

Mr. John P. Jones of Greensboro spent a few days last week with his mother, Mrs. Cornelia Jones, who was operated on for a cancer on her face. She is getting on as well as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Corum visited relatives near Leaksville Saturday and Sunday.

We regret to learn of the death of Mr. R. H. Smith of Phoenix, Ariz. He was an uncle of Mrs. E. A. Craddock and visited her and other relatives here not very long ago.

Mr. Willie Isley is on the sick list we regret to learn.

War is all that we hear now and we pray that it will soon end.

We have been blessed with good rains and crops are looking fine, but we hate to think of what a fight we have got to make on Mr. Crab Grass.

Cherries and dewberries are ripe now and we guess there is a small cost of living for the present. Miss Blanche Craddock has accepted a position with the Southern Bell Telephone Company at Winston-Salem. She will join her sister who went there recently to take a similar position.

Fresh Vegetables For Winter Use

In addition to canning every conceivable foodstuff for winter use it is most desirable, nay, absolutely necessary, that every possessor of a garden spot and every farmer in our country, prepare now by planting the seed, for his winter crop of vegetables. From the can, and out of his garden, and from these two sources only, will be available the necessary vegetable food to maintain good health during the winter of 1917-18. Our city population, and our boys on the firing line, will take all the surplus canned stuff raised in the States this summer. We must not depend upon getting any, unless we put it up ourselves, and a winter passed on a bare meat and cornbread diet, without the necessary blood corrective in the shape of vegetables, will leave us in bad shape. Therefore, we again urge that reference be had to our article on winter vegetables in our issue of the 11th inst., and seed be put down now for transplanting in July, in preparation for an unlimited supply of live giving vegetables during the winter.

GIVES ADVICE ON BLOOD TROUBLE

Warns Against Alcoholic 'Patent' Medicines—Injure Kidneys Says Writer Below

Many people taking iron in one form or another seeking richer, better blood strength and vitality, make a serious mistake, according to a well known writer on the subject.

"If people realize that the kidneys are intrusted with the duty of filtering the blood of impurities, uric acid and other poisons, they would certainly not take alcoholic 'patent' medicines as recklessly as they do. Alcohol is very bad for the kidneys, not to mention stomach, nerves and liver. Any doctor will tell you that."

Go to the nearest druggist and get a fifty cent or dollar bottle of natural iron known as Acid Iron Mineral. This is pure, highly concentrated and goes twice to ten times as far. One half teaspoonful in a glass of water is a dose. Take after meals and on going to bed.

NOT PATENT MEDICINE

Nature in her own inimitable way mixed it—kept it pure, down in the earth. Acid Iron Mineral is not a patent medicine. It helps instead of injuring the teeth, stomach, kidneys, bladder and nerves. All druggists, of course, have it.

Mission Coming From Japan

Japan will send a mission to the United States. The mission will have broad powers, especially in diplomatic consultation and is expected to leave Japan during the first part of July.

The mission is regarded as offering an unpleasant opportunity for a closer understanding between the United States and Japan through a full discussion of the many complex questions of the unsettled Far East. The change through the eradication curtailing of British, French and Russian power, creating a new community of interest between the United States and Japan and China, will be gone into fully.

Viscount Kirukijiro Ishii will head the Japanese mission. He formerly was minister of foreign affairs. Vice-Admiral Takeshita who is well known in the United States, heads the naval section of the mission. The army section is headed by a Major General Sugano.

STACY

Will Tate is laid up with lameness caused by a bruise while at work at the quarry. He stood the doctor's knife well.

George Brown is lingering with a mild case of appendicitis.

The wheat crop is fine. There is a plenty of it with 3 and 4 grains to mash.

Corn is looking fine, and tobacco is starting off nicely since the rains of last week.

Our farmers are beginning to live high. Plenty of peas, snaps, Irish potatoes, beets, etc.

TWO RICHEST MEN IN WINSTON AND DURHAM

S. R. Wintz in his Durham correspondence to the Raleigh News and Observer says:

The ownership of over $3,000,000 worth of real and personal property goes to George W. Watts the distinction of being Durham's wealthiest citizen, and the second largest individual tax-payer in North Carolina. R. J. Reynolds, of Winston-Salem, alone claims priority for his bulk contributions to the state tax lists. The completed tax books of Durham county reveal the riches of the Durham man whose philanthropy embraces aid to schools, colleges and the Presbyterian church. The taxable wealth of Mr. Watts—real and personal property—has shown a phenomenal jump from that of 1916. The increase, according to the tax sheets, for a 12-month period, has been in excess of one million and a half dollars. Stocks in foreign corporations are his principal assets, and he is a director of the Seaboard Air Line railway. He contributed in actual taxes toward the upkeep of the county and state something like $30,000 and around $40,000 to the city of Durham.

A NEW SUGGESTION AS TO THE USE OF DOGS

Anent our proposed war tax on dogs, Mr. John G. Logan, president of the Southern Road Machine Co. of Knoxville, writes the Manufacturers Record.

"We have read with interest your article on the useless dog. We agree with you that they are worse than useless, but suggest that they be made useful by killing and making them into fertilizer, leather, and glycerine for making nitroglycerine."—Manufacturers Record.
