

NEWS OF REIDSVILLE AND ROCKINGHAM

Baseball Friday and Saturday. Today is the longest day in the year.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Driskill on the 18th a son.

Triangle feature and Keystone comedy today at the Grande Theatre.

Corn bread tastes better than ever since corn soared to $1.50 per bushel.

Effective June 24, Southern trains No. 35 and 43 will again swap schedules.

If you like a feature program say so by your patronage at the Grande Theatre.

There will be a subscription dance Friday night. Music will be furnished by Hood's orchestra.

It is hinted that Harry Miller will pitch both games against Reidsville Friday and Saturday. The nerve of him!

Rev. Carl B. Craig will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning. There will be no evening services.

Housewives can do an important bit to relieve the food shortage by cutting out all waste. A loaf saved is a loaf made.

There will be a committee meeting of the Red Cross at the C. & A. hall tonight (Thursday) at 8 p. m. A full attendance is urged.

The Primitive Baptists will hold their services at the Christian church Saturday and Sunday as their church is undergoing repairs.

Deputy Sheriffs Brown and Shreve captured a 15 gallon whiskey still near Cunningham's mill Tuesday night. No arrests were made.

There will be preaching at the Reidsville Christian church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock by the pastor Rev. L. I. Cox. The public is cordially invited.

Mr. John F. Scott, superintendent of the Edna Cotton Mills, has purchased the F. R. Penn home on East Market street and his family will occupy same at an early date.

The members of the Red Cross wish to thank all who helped to make the Red Cross Garden Fete such a splendid success and they feel especially indebted to the Booster Band. Many thanks for their inspiring music.

Mr. R. E. Gunn of Route 2 called in to see us yesterday. He says crop conditions are first rate in his section and the wheat crop is exceptionally good. A heavy rain fell in his neighborhood Wednesday afternoon, he says.

There will be Children's Day and Memorial services at Fairgrove M. P. Church next Sunday afternoon, June 24th, at 2:30 o'clock. Everyone cordially invited to attend. Those who have relatives and friends buried there are requested to bring flowers.

Wheat harvesting began this week and farmers are heartened with the prospect of a fine yield. Crop conditions are generally good at present. The seasons have been favorable and the crops have been kept clean and free of grass. Corn and tobacco are starting off nicely.

The Rockingham Vulcanizing Co., has an interesting advertisement in today's Review. Messrs. Turner Bros. the proprietors, are hard working young men and are fast building up a business of good proportions in making old automobile tires as good as new and thus doubling their service.

Miss Pearl Peters, the 17-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Peters, died at her home on Highland Heights Wednesday afternoon. Her death was caused by pleagra. The funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon by Rev. Carl B. Craig. Interment was made at Greenview cemetery.

Mr. Eugene P. Walker, a former Reidsville boy, volunteered for service in the aviation corps and is now in training at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. A recent letter from him says there are 480 in training in his class and that all of them are high-toned young men. He is highly pleased with his surroundings, he says.

An automobile law of interest which will go into effect the first or July requires that all automobiles be equipped with dimmers. The law also requires that the State number be displayed both in front and in the rear of each machine. The local authorities have received instructions to enforce this law.

The Booster Band has contracted to furnish music at the big 4th of July celebration in Danville. The local military company will take part in the celebration at Spray. However, Reidsville will not be deserted on that day. Chantauqua will be here and the local ball team and a visiting ball team will play a double-header here on that day.

Messrs. S. Heiner & Company have bought out the stock of dry goods, notions, and shoes of Messrs. Harris Bros. on Scales street and will move their stock from their present quarters on West Market street into that store next week. This is one of the best stands in the town and Messrs. Heiner & Co., are to be congratulated on securing it. They will run an up-to-date department store and carry a large and varied stock of goods. Messrs. Harris Bros retain their stock of groceries and will close those out as soon as possible at bargain

THE TIMES TOPICS

NO. 21. Reidsville, N. C. By G. W. BRITAIN

Who's the who? Why not try it out here in Rockingham county? Think of a perfectly city broken young man thirty years old, offering himself in matrimony to the girl who makes the highest bid for him, the sum to go to the Soldiers camp at Hoboken, N. J. Now let's see who wants a chance. Sit steady.

We want and appreciate patronage we guarantee satisfaction or refund you the money.

The merry, merry music of the jingling of the cans, am right here. Walk this way Moses.

A machine thief swallowed a lump of gold leaf, and later died in great agony. Succumbed to an inward sense of "gilt."

What has become of that Bachelor's

Lawn Party to be held at Wentworth Tell us Estelle, tell us.

Uncle Ben says, There's no accounting for the antics of a man in love. General Buz Fuz declares that he lives on the pinnacle of dizzy superiority to every thing but the one enchanting bit of femininity. Here he exalts to the seventh heaven and worships as long as the spell lasts. Come in drink to her, nice Cold Ice Water free for all, pass the goörd Willie.

Toilet articles the popular ones, and we have the real anchors on time when it comes to keeping pretty.

The man who works in a match factory isn't necessarily an optimist because he makes light of things.

When melons, squash, and snaps begin to cumber, and cucumber beets a tatoo, then we know tis summer time.

prices. We understand Mr. John Harris contemplates returning to New York city to live as soon as the business of Harris Bros. is wound up. Mr. E. R. Harris will secure other quarters and conduct a family grocery store.

The Reidsville ball team and its friends are "laying" for Frank Wilson and Harry Miller, who will bring over the Draper aggregation for games here Friday and Saturday. They will try to get sweet revenge. On the other hand these two former Reidsvillians declare they have no intention of allowing Reidsville to "cop" either of these contests. It's going to be a battle royal—no doubt about it!

Our aged friend, Mr. William Stanley of Caswell gave us a pleasant call to renew for his favorite paper. He nearing his 96th birthday and enjoys good "quid" of tobacco as much as ever. He says he has cut out his morning toddy as it is unnecessary. He left his brother, Alfred Greene Stanley, at home in his usual good health. It was only last year that his sister, Mrs. Lucy Stanley Pettigrew, at the age of 102 years, passed to the great beyond.

The Secretary of State has forwarded to the chairman of boards of elections in every county a blank book for the purpose of registering the names of all who are expected to be included in the selective draft, and who may want to take advantage of the privilege of the law providing for voting by mail. By seeing that his name is properly registered in this book any citizen will have opportunity to participate in any primary or general election which may be held at home during his absence.

Thomas B. Whitted, Jr., son of Col. and Mrs. Thomas B. Whitted, was a member of the graduating class at Baird's school last session, having the distinction of being not only one of the smartest boys in the class, but the youngest. In handling the examination papers Major Baird had the misfortune to misplace Mr. Whitted's examination paper in algebra. Mr. Whitted thereby not appearing on the honor roll in algebra. Several days ago Major Baird found the missing paper. Mr. Whitted made a high average, entitling him to be on the algebra honor roll, and his name is thereon recorded.—Charlotte News.

In some places, community canning outfits have been established for the benefit of housewives, who desire to can their surplus vegetables but have not the facilities at home for so doing. The movement will no doubt spread rapidly until the housewives of practically every city and town in the State will be able either to put up their own surplus fruits and vegetables at a community cannery or have their jars filled at reasonable cost by some canning club.

Superior Court is in session at Wentworth this week. Owing to the busy times on the farms the attendance has been unusually small. The case of F. M. Ellett vs. B. Frank Mebane, Mrs. Mebane and the Spray Land and Water company was taken up early in the week. Arguments by attorneys were completed Wednesday afternoon. Judge Harding delivered the charge to the jury yesterday morning and at this writing the jury is still deliberating over the case.

Mr. B. R. West, who has been Colt Acetylene lighting and cooking plants in our county, has left on a business visit to New York, where he will be in consultation with his firm for a few days. Mr. West has placed over 150 plants in the houses of our farmers in Rockingham, and is to be counted as one of the important factors in building up our county. Mrs. West has gone for a sea trip from Norfolk to Richmond, and will spend a short time with her folks in Culpeper, Va.

Good Shooting.

The story below of certain Virginia mountaineers whose patriotism was only equalled by their marksmanship is one told by C. K. Bolton in the American Historical Review.

In 1775 many recruits were needed, but many more came forward, and the commanding officer decided on a shooting match to determine their proficiency. A board one foot square, bearing a chalk outline of a nose, was nailed to a tree at a distance of 150 yards. Those who came nearest the mark with a single bullet were to be enlisted. The first forty or fifty men who shot cut the nose entirely out of the board.
