

WENTWORTH

The Bethlehem young people presented the play, "Miss Topsy Turvey," Thursday night at the Wentworth High School building and a neat sum was realized which will be used to paint the Bethlehem M. E. church.

The cast was well selected. Miss Lucile Moore being the star, acting with ease and effect. She was well supported by Misses Nellie Moore, Eloise Mobley and Allene Dallas, while the English Lord of Wealth was portrayed splendidly by Mr. Ernest Jarrell. Mr. J. Oscar Thomas as "The Deacon," won applause as did Mr. Charles Burton, "Topsy's brother." Mr. James Duncan as "Ned," the colored servant, entered into the spirit of his lines and produced real enjoyment. The young folks deserve praise for their enterprise exhibited in such a deserving cause.

Court commenced Monday. His Honor F. J. Adams of Carthage is presiding. Among the cases to be tried will be the case of State against Harry Lindsay, ex-Policeman at Draper.

Mrs. James D. Mitchell continues ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Samuel Ellington. Her friends are anxious about her.

Mr. Will Julian of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., Winston-Salem, is spending his vacation at Wentworth.

MT. CARMEL

The weather has been ideal for the past week and crops are looking fine. The tobacco crop has begun to ripen up and some have begun to cut and cure while others are priming it up and curing it.

Those that have cured any say that the color and quality is far better this year than last year. The corn crop is the best that we have seen in the past ten years.

Now Brother Farmer have you sown your turnip crop yet? Remember that now is the time that it should be done.

Mr. R. H. Ellington and family visited his brother, Mr. J. H. French the past week.

Of Interest To Women

France has two women locomotive engineers.

More than 12,000 women are engaged in the military business in New York City.

The largest safety razor company in the world has a woman as advertising manager.

In one of the largest lumber yards in Chicago women are doing men's work and receiving men's pay.

President Van Hise, of the University of Wisconsin, predicts worldwide woman suffrage after the war.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., is an instructor in the cooking school for naval reserves at Newport.

Negro women as section hands made their appearance in the Baltimore and Ohio railroad yards at St. Louis.

King George has instituted two new orders of chivalry open women, in recognition of their manifold services during the war.

The secretary of war and the secretary of the navy have agreed to prefer women employes henceforth in appointments to the clerical force of the war and navy departments.

In a suit brought in the federal court St. Louis under the contract labor law the jury decided that dressmaking is not an art and that a "premier dressmaker" is only a laborer.

During the past thirty years nearly 10,000 patents have been granted to women in the United States, their inventions including almost everything from a baby jumper to a deep-sea telescope.

Mrs. D. V. Whitney, of Kansas City is a member of the American Pharmaceutical Association and the Kansas Pharmaceutical Association, and first vice president of the Missouri Pharmaceutical Association.

Mrs. Christopher W. Collier, wife of the pastor of a church at Lexington, Mass., has undertaken to perform the church activities during the absence of her husband, who has gone to France for service in the American Ambulance corps.

The honorary degree of LL.D., which has been conferred by Fordham University on Sister Mary Pauline Kelligar, president of the college of St. Elizabeth, comes to a nun for the first time in this country, and to a woman for the first time in the three hundred years of work of the Jesuit order.

LEMON JUICE IS

FRECKLE REMOVER

Girl! Make This Cheap Beauty Lotion To Clear and Whiten Your Skin.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quart pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms, and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

Summer Complaint.

During the hot weather of the summer months some member of almost every family is likely to be troubled with an unnatural looseness of the bowels, and it is of the greatest importance that this be treated promptly, which can only be done when the medicine is kept at hand. Mrs. F. F. Scott, Scottsville, N. Y., states: "I first used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as five years ago. At that time I had a severe attack of summer complaint and was suffering intense pain. One dose relieved me. Other members of my family have since used it with like results."

STACY

Misses Grady and Gladys Burgess spent the week-end Danville visiting friends.

Miss Esse Tally is at home on her vacation.

Messrs. Walton and Claude Lillard of Danville were in town Sunday.

Messrs. Turner Golden and George Brown visited in Danville Sunday.

Mr. E. T. Burgess joined his brother, J. W. Burgess in Greensboro and will look over the quarries in their charge.

Mrs. O. H. Talley has returned to Baltimore after a short visit to relatives here.

Sunday School is progressing nicely with a large attendance every Sunday.

Germany's press is decidedly lukewarm in its welcome to the new occupants of the ministerial bench, and characterizes the 14 new-comers to executive and minor posts as a cabinet constituted of officials whose appointment does not betray a change in system.
