NO. 29. Reidsville, N. C. By G. W. BRITAIN

JINGLES—Now while so many of us are to remain at home this summer, let's take to JINGLING. It's easy and a diversion. For the best parody on Psalm of Life, We will give the composer, One Dollar in Merchandise. Here's one to suggest the JINGLES.

Hats of great heads, oft remind us, If we choose the proper way, We can get up every morning With a head as big as they.

Jingles must reach us by Saturday, August 25th. Address all Jingles to JINGLE DEPARTMENT, Brittain's Drug Store, Reidsville, N. C.

Canned products in glass if exposed to light, will bleach, fade and sometimes lose their food value. Glass jars if wrapped in paper will preserve the color and quality.

Sow Turnip Seed, and less Oats of the wild variety, Says Silas, We have the Kind that do grow.

Red Mason Jar Rings, five cents the dozen. And Canning Acids for Corn and Snaps.

In days Petersburg, Va., was a leader in fruit, Fur and Lumber. Which same meant persimmons, Rabbit Skins and Hoop Poles. Now Yanceyville leads the world unless we reckon with Siler City or Madison. Sit steady Stoneville.

Brittain's Pink Pills for all people, increase the strength amazingly. They give more lasting muscle and nerve tone than any ever. 50 Pills for 50 cents.

A venturesome Drug Clerk named Bly, To mix Chlorate Potash with Sulphur did try.

In the cold clammy clay, his remains they did lay, And he's now mixing pills in the sky.

Close the refrigerator Lizzie, the butter is escaping.

Ice Water for all who care for us, Walk this way Jerry, you too Morning Glory.
