MADISON

The Madison city schools opened Monday with possibly the largest enrollment in the history of the schools. Many patrons were present with words of encouragement for Supt. J.

C. Lassiter and his corps of assistants.

The opening exercises were held in the high school auditorium, with devotional services conducted by Rev. W. P. Robertson and Rev. R. S. Howie. After the devotional services the exercises were more or less informal.

The following compose the faculty: J. C. Lassiter, superintendent; Miss Eva Coltraine, of Randleman, high school; Miss Pearl Bumgarner, of Wilkesboro, fifth and sixth grades; Miss Grace Moore, of Spencer, Va., third and fourth grades; Miss Bertha Barker Barker, of Lumberton, primary and Miss Violet Teague, of Lumberton, music department.

The Wheeler Brothers shows were here Saturday, and they drew one of the largest crowds that has been in Madison in 12 months.

What came near being a most serious accident here Saturday took place when Hard James and Mr. Cardwell had a head-on collision with their automobiles. Fortunately no one was hurt, but it seems a miracle, for both cars were badly damaged; one of which was moving at very rapid rate of speed.

N. H. Lewis of Stoneville was here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ronis arrived Monday from Baltimore.

Miss Grace Moore was painfully hurt yesterday while swinging, something about the swing breaking.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father to take from our midst and the North Reidsville Missionary Society, one of our oldest and best beloved members, Mrs. Nannie Ellington.

Therefore, be it resolved
FIRST—That we extend to the bereaved family this expression of our love and affection for our faithful sister and our tenderest sympathy in this hour of bereavement and pray that God's grace may sustain them in this their great affliction.

SECOND—We shall miss her amiable and genial presence in our society and community, but we submit to the unerring will of God and pray that He will sanctify this sad affliction to our good.

THIRD—That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minute book of our society and that a copy be sent to the bereaved family, also a copy be furnished each, The Reidsville Review and The Christian Advocate for publication.
