

NEWS OF REIDSVILLE AND ROCKINGHAM

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Burton, Route 5, on October 3, a son.

A valuable milk cow belonging to Mr. George Meador of Route 4, fell in Terry's creek from an embankment and broke its neck.

The weather has been ideal for sowing wheat. Farmers in this section are "doing their bit" by preparing to put in a greatly increased acreage.

The big fairs in Greensboro and Danville this week are on and large crowds will attend one or the other of them from this section and a great many will attend both attractions.

By placing a one cent stamp on your periodical or magazine after you have finished it, and dropping it in the postoffice, it will be forwarded at once to the soldiers in France.

Mrs. Lizzie Williams and Luther Smith, both of Reidsville, were united in marriage yesterday in the register of deeds' office at the courthouse. The ceremony was performed by Magistrate D. H. Collins.—Greensboro Record.

There will be a meeting of the school teachers of the county at Westworth on Saturday, October 13. The school committees of the county have been invited to meet with the teachers. Mr. L. C. Brogden of Raleigh will be present.

Rural carriers have a new duty added to them. They have been directed by the postmaster general to co-operate with the Federal bureau of vital statistics in securing records of births and deaths, which will be recorded in the Census Bureau office.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, there will be a special preaching services at Speedwell church, preparatory to Communion at 3 o'clock Sunday. There will also be a Sunday School Rally Day Service on next Sunday at the same time. The public is most cordially invited to attend these services.

Call at one of the banks and sign up for a few liberty bonds. That's the next duty of the man back home to the man who has gone to the front. The purchase price of a Liberty bond is not a gift but a good and safe investment. Hence it's no sacrifice, if one can raise the cash, to help the country in this way. Simply a loan that pays good interest.

Agent N. C. Thompson has been notified by Southern Railway officials to close the freight warehouse for receiving freight at 4 p. m. from October 1st, to April 30th, and at 4:30 from May 1st to September 30. This new ruling goes into effect Oct. 15th. This change of hour does not effect the hours of delivery of the freight.

Mr. J. W. Hudson, a well-known and highly regarded citizen of near Ruffin died at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. A. Ferguson in Danville Saturday morning with pneumonia after an illness of about four weeks. Mr. Hudson was about 63 years old and had been engaged in the tobacco business in Danville for some time past. His wife died about two years ago.

Squire D. H. Collins visited his old home in Rockingham county yesterday and he says he never saw such crops of tobacco as were raised this year, and as to prices nothing ever approached it. One neighbor of the old days this year had enough barns of tobacco to net him something like twenty thousand dollars. And naturally the farmer feels he has suddenly come into his own.—Greensboro Record.

There will be no sales of tobacco in the Greensboro warehouses in the future on Saturday. This arrangement goes into effect at once. Any one who comes in Saturday expecting to sell is doomed to disappointment. This rule is made necessary, notwithstanding the recent agreement, because buyers have been instructed by the bigger concerns not to buy on Saturday. There will be sales on Monday hereafter.—Greensboro Patriot.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bauknight spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Norman. They were returning from Columbia, S. C., where they had been visiting Mr. Bauknight's mother and sister. After spending several days with his people they visited the State Sanitarium to see Mrs. Bauknight's sister, Miss Beasie Morrison and then on to the Baptist Orphanage to see her youngest sister, Miss Lillian Morrison. They reported a delightful visit and left for Richmond.

Eleven cars of a swiftly moving Northbound freight train were derailed close to Stokesland station before daybreak Sunday, blocking the main line for several hours. There were no personal injuries, but the physical loss to the railway company is very heavy. Traffic was resumed on the southbound track at 11 o'clock. The freight was running smoothly through Stokesland when a truss rod on the box car nearest the engine fell. This derailed a coal gondola and it took 10 more cars with it, all piling up together, making a chaos of debris merchandise, coal and lumber. It was one of the worst freight wrecks noted in this vicinity for some time, the rate of speed being largely responsible for the damage done. Large blocks of timber were split into kindling and the box cars looked like crushed match boxes. Fully 100 yards of the track was torn and twisted ed and some of the cars were thrown crosswise, preventing passage on the southbound track.

According to information received in Martinsville, Lieutenant Augustus Hunter Pannill has recovered from his last serious injury which he sustained when he fell in an aeroplane on the French front. He is now in London, convalescing from his second injury sustained in the war. While Lieutenant Pannill's mother lives in Chatham, the Henry County people claim the officer as a former resident and the people of the town feel just as proud of him as do the Pittsylvanians.—Danville Register.

The State-wide automobile law should be strictly enforced. We think everyone is agreed upon that. However, uniform and not spasmodic enforcement is needed if the law is to be of the greatest possible benefit, and we hope authorities throughout the State will give due recognition to that fact. The "rounding up" every few months of alleged violators of such a statute is all right as far as it goes, but it hardly goes far enough. Violations in most cases are due to thoughtlessness, but the knowledge that an arrest is likely to be made at any time might be calculated to make people more thoughtful.

Thomas-Baker.

Saturday, Oct. 6, the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thomas in Greensboro was the scene of a pretty home wedding when Miss Mary Thomas became the bride of Mr. Chas. R. Baker. Marching to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Pearle Rainey, the bride and groom met before Rev. Carl B. Craig and pledged their faith. The impressive ring ceremony was used. Mr. G. Herbert Baker, brother of the groom, was the best man. The bride wore a handsome going away suit of blue.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thomas and Miss Sanford Thomas, father, mother and sister of the bride; Mr. Conrad Baker of Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. G. Herbet Baker of Kingston; Mr. Henry Baker of Winston-Salem, brothers of groom; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McLean, Mrs. Fannie Walker, Miss Annie Watlington, Mr. W. A. Thomas, Mr. R. T. Thomas and Miss Annie Perry.

The bride is one of the most beautiful and accomplished young ladies of Greensboro and the groom is a rising young tobaccoist of Richmond, Va., the son of Mr. G. W. Baker of Rockingham County.

The happy couple left on train No. 36 for a tour in the North. After October 15 they will be at home, 103 E. Grace Street, Richmond.

A LIFE INSURANCE POLICY

is a long contract, and is usually made to run through the remainder of the policyholder's life. Such a contract should be made with none but the safest possible institutions.

The Mutual Life Ins. Co. of New York is the oldest American life insurance company, having issued its first policy Feb. 1, 1843. Its assets exceed six hundred and twenty-four millions of dollars, and it is as safe as anything human can be.

ITS POLICY CONTRACTS are, at the same time, as liberal as sound principles will allow and its dividends are large. It will cost you nothing and will pay you to consult me before insuring elsewhere.
