

NEWS OF REIDSVILLE AND ROCKINGHAM

Butterfly feature today (Thursday) at the Grande. Five parts. Go to Wentworth next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and enjoy the "Children's Day" exercises. There will be a pie party given at Lauder's School House Saturday night November 3rd. Everybody cordially invited. Mr. W. M. Stratton of Edgerton, Va., spent several days this week on a visit to friends and relatives in this section. The State Supreme Court handed down a decision yesterday in the Chandler Mill dam case from this county of Pruitt vs. Bethell. No error. Next Sunday afternoon in the Wentworth M. E. church the Children's Day exercises will be held and Rev. Mr. Smith of Ruffin will deliver the address. Everybody invited. Mr. Pritchard Cummings, a hustling young farmer on Route 2 called in Tuesday to enroll for The Review. He is putting in about 20 acres of wheat this fall to help feed the allies. "Private" John Allen, member of Congress from Mississippi for 16 years until his retirement in 1901, and one of the picturesque figures of that body, died at his home in Tusculo, Miss., early Tuesday. He was a kinsman of the late Mrs. F. R. Penn and had visited Reidsville frequently. Mr. J. A. Tally of Route 5 called in to renew for The Review Wednesday. He averaged nearly $40 per hundred for a big load of tobacco on the local market and was highly pleased with prices. He says he has sowed a large wheat crop this fall and the grain is coming up beautifully. The State Food Administrator has requested all County Food Administrators to send in daily reports of all Food Pledge Cards as fast as they are signed. Therefore all committees and teachers in this county are urgently requested to send in daily reports to me so that I may report daily to Mr. Henry A. Page at Raleigh.—Robt. Halston, County Food Administrator. The National Red Cross has sent out an appeal for 100,000 handkerchiefs. In response to this call, Mrs. Alvin Hopper of Leaksville is the originator of a patriotic scheme for the school children of Rockingham county to make a generous contribution to this necessity of the soldiers in trenches and camps. Her plan is to ask all the superintendents and teachers of the county to co-operate with her in having November 9 as "handkerchief day" in all the schools. Su-

More Meat. Horse meat is sold for food in the Middle West. Which do you prefer, folks, the pacing portehouse or the trotting tendrion. Give me justice and friendship while I live, and a fig for your flowers after I am too dead to smell their perfume. Big line of Hair, Tooth and Scrub Brushes all at reasonable prices And nearly all the many brands and makes of the BEST in TOILET ARTICLES, on the very same schedule. Come to the store with a conscience. Teacher of Scripture Class—Yes, children, then Nero ordered his centurion to give the slave twenty stripes Mabel, (whose father is in camp)—Lord, mum, that must 'a' made 'im a blooming Colonel. We are prepared to supply your drug store needs. Come, 'phone or write us and We'll do the agreeable. Some present day measures. Bill—"Why do you have all your mail sent to our office?" Harry—"Because there's a censor at home." From the bush of useless knowledge. The rich kick about the income tax and the poor growl about the outgo tax. Yes Sirs, you are right about the Natural Bridge. It was not destroyed by fire. Walk this way Hiram, always have a chair for you, and a stove as hot as needs be.

perintendent Hickerson gives the plan his hearty approval. Tobacco offerings have been some larger at the Reidsville warehouses this week than last and sales have lasted until the afternoon on several days. Prices continue at the very highest and the war-house averages continue to creep upward. Individual averages of $40 and over are of ordinary occurrence. Mr. R. O. Gamble sold a pile of tobacco at Watt's Warehouse Tuesday which he contributed to the Summerfield Chapter of the Red Cross of which Mrs. Gamble is a prominent worker. The sale amounted to $13.30. This is the largest pile of tobacco so far donated by a Rockingham county farmer to this worthy cause. The new war taxes went into effect yesterday. They include 5c on telegraph and telephone messages; 2c to 3c on moving picture admissions; 8c on the dollar on railroad transportation; 3c on the dollar on freight bills; 4c on the dollar on express charges, and many other items. The new postal rates go into effect today. The booking of "Womanhood" at the Grande Theatre for next Tuesday, November 6th will give to the people of Reidsville an opportunity to see the best picture ever produced, the glory of a nation. This picture is in 7 massive parts. Every man, woman and child should see this picture. The first show will start at 10 o'clock in the morning, 2:30 in the afternoon and 7:30 at night. Miss Lillie Harris, wife of T. A. Harris died at her home in Danville Wednesday morning and her remains were brought to Reidsville for burial at Greenview cemetery. Mrs. Harris formerly lived in Reidsville and moved to Danville about a year ago. She leaves a husband and two small children. Her death was caused by pneumonia. Mr. W. G. Ballard brought to The Review office Tuesday some nice strawberries which he picked from his vines that morning. They are well matured and of good flavor. They are the "Never Stop" variety and were planted in the spring. The vines began bearing 30 days from planting and have been on the job ever since. Dr. Kerr Boyce Tupper of Philadelphia will deliver a series of Bible lectures in Reidsville next week. His first lecture will be delivered at the Main street M. E. church Sunday morning, followed by an address at the Main street Baptist church Sunday night. During the following week he will lecture each night at the Main street M. E. church. There will be no admission charge to any of these lectures and the public is cordially invited to attend them. Dr. Tupper has a national reputation as a lecturer and orator and our people are to be congratulated on their opportunity of hearing this distinguished Biblical scholar. Dr. Ruasel H. Conway, well known to our people says that "Dr. Tupper's lectures are the finest I know of. They are scholarly yet popular, up to date yet even, logical and presented with rare eloquence. Beginning today (Thursday) the federal war tax is imposed on every person that enters a theatre. This includes the smallest of children. The manager of the Grande Theatre is required under the statute to keep a record of each and every person entering his place, and make a sworn statement of same at the end of each month, and pay the tax as required by law. Mr. John J. McCargo, a well-known Confederate veteran and one of the county's most respected citizens, died at his home near Cavalry church Wednesday afternoon in his 80th year. He leaves a widow and three grown sons. His remains were buried at Cavalry church cemetery yesterday afternoon, Rev. D. W. Overby conducting the services. Mr. McCargo was highly regarded by all who knew him. He lived an honorable, upright life and had a wide circle of friends throughout the county.

Code of Beauty. Our code and schedule of beauty is, I often feel, a very formal affair. Either we are afraid or ashamed to differ from received opinions, or we have never thought of revising the code we adopted in our youth, or we do not really look at things, or we do not care about beauty at all.—A. C. Benson.

THE HELPING HAND OF CREDIT! Perhaps one of the greatest lessons to humanity is GOOD CREDIT. There is hardly any of us who, at some time, do not find ourselves in need of it. Heretofore, the advantages of a credit account have been limited to a "Favored Few," but this Store has EVOLVED A SYSTEM WHEREBY ANY ONE CAN SECURE UNLIMITED CREDIT IN THE MOST SATISFACTORY MANNER. As to the merits of our system, we will refer you to the UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT. Although the WEALTHIEST country in the world, and having unlimited capital at its command, our Government uses its CREDIT very largely. Also, when floating its "LIBERTY LOAN," the Government offers its Bonds in exactly the same manner as we offer you our merchandise—A SMALL SUM DOWN AND THE REST IN SMALL INSTALLMENTS. Come in and let us explain.
