A Market For Your Products. 9.33 To the Farmers of Rockingham Coun-

If you have any potatoes, beans, peas, canned goods, corn, wheat, or any kind of farm products for sale, I can help you dispose of it at a price to be agreed upon between you and the prospective buyer.

Now the plan is this: The Southern Railway, in its endeavor to help develop the country along its lines. and to encourage the growth of more foodstuffs, issues each week a "For 45.55 Sale" Bulletin of farf products where-22.50 in are listed the varieties, amounts, etc., of the several kinds of farm products that are generally in 30.00 demand, with the name and address 25.00 of the man who has it for sale. For instance, in the "For Sale" Bulletin of November 5, F. M. Dodson, Pilot 3.90 Mountain, N. C., has 25 bushels navy beans and 25 bushels of mired beans. The Southern Railway distributes these Bulletins among prospective P. H. Simpson, labor 137.64 buyers who negotiate with the man R. H. Pruitt, groceries 26.10 who offers it for sale, and thus buyer and seller are brought together. Let me know what you have to of> fer and I will list it in those for sale bulletines, and the man who wants what you have for gale will write you for prices, etc. Yours to serve. 24.60 REIDSVILLE COMMERCIAL & AG-

PROMINENT MASONIC OFFICER TELLS HOW NEW HERBAL MEDICINE ASTONISHED HIM. GIVES SIGNED STATEMENT.

"I wouldn't take a thousand dollars for the good it is doing me. Really it astonished me." These are the words of W. D. Branson who resides on R. F. D. No. 3, Kernersville, Guilford county, N. C. Mr. Branson is prominent in fraternal circles, holding the important office of Junior Deacon in his Masonic Lodge. He has suffered for some time from stomach gas, kidney and liver troubly, headaches and constipation. He took one bottle of Dreco, the new herbai medicine and the good results he obtained may be gathered from the above signed statement. Mr. Branson is only one in hundreds of men and women who suffered, who tried almost everything with, out relief, and who, just as they were about to give up hope were persuaded to try Dreco. It is these men and women who are always glad to make public their experience so that other people in the same unfortunate plight may read and be benefitted.

Dreco is purely an herbal medicine. It is pleasant to take, harmless and contains no injurious mineral saids. Its action is quick and 23.50 pleasant in most cases, Dreco is recommended and sold in 13.50 Reidysille by Gardner Drug Co.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

The Tuesday Afternoon Reading Club has been requested by the Library War Council to secure in Reidsville, money for the Library Service Funds for the erection, equipment and maintenance of libraries wherever United States soldiers and sailors are assembled in force.

The Club has secured Dr. Tupper who recently lectured here to deliver a patriotic address on "America and the War" on Tuesday evening, December 4th in the Franklin street graded school auditorium. The procreds of this lecture will go to this cause. Dr Tupper is now with the soldiers in camp at Augusta, Ga., where he was sent by the government and he will be able to give experiences from camp life. A large patriotic gathering of the people of Reidsville is expected. Admission to to the lecture is 25c and no further contribution will be solicited.

Be patriots; buy a ticket; come to the lecture and get your money's

Press Notices

Progressive and prominent Pennsylvanians of the Nineteenth Century contains the following characterization of Dr. Tupper: "In social relations Dr. Tupper is affable; as a writer he is accurate, polished and logical; as a preacher he is scholarly, instructive, eloquent and thoroughly evangelidal. He invariably speaks willtout notes and after careful preperation. His learning and scholastic training has been admirable, and his triumphs in educational pursuits have won him numerous degrees. He received the degree of A. B. from Mercer University Georgia and A. M. from the same College, his Alma Mater; D. D. from Central University. Iowa, and LLD from Mercer University. Dr. Tupper is also widely known as a writer on theological and other subjects. He is the author of Robertson's Living Thoughts, 'Seven Great Lights,' 'Life of Diaz,' 'Gladstone and Other Addresses' and 'Relation of Haptists to Literature.' As a lecturer be speaks on The Shadow of Castle Garden, 'Robert Burns,' 'Biographical Reading," 'Be a Man' and William Ewart Gladstone,' Dr. Tupper is chosen each summer to preach in the prominent churches throughout our land. He has traveled widely in Europe, Egypt and Palestine, is a constant writer for many religious journals and magazines, and at present is engliged in preparing a work on English Synonyms."

"Dr. Kerr Boyce Tupper is a most eloquent lecturer, his elocution a model of distinctness, enunciation and variety of modulation. His diction is pure, his style elegant. His lectures never tire, because the eunnciation and development of philosophical truth are always varied with anecdote and illustration."-Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

"Dr. Tupper's oratory is polithed, luminous, powerful. He is a most popular lecturer, his favorite and happiest subjects patriotic themes. In symmetry and completeness of talent he will be difficult to surpass He is a wide reader, endowed with phenominal memory, but guided by a iyrical and analytical mind."-Denver Republican.

Helps

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness, ... and the pains were very severe. A friend told me I had tried everything else, why not Cardui?... I did, and soon saw it was helping me . . . After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."
