JUNKERS BLAME THE ALLIES

Seek to Instill New War Spirit in Starving People by Fear of Total Destruction—Pamphlets Sent Across Border Calling the War Policy of the Kaiser Humbug of the People.

As an illustration of the activity of the German republicans in Switzerland who are working to overthrow Hohenzollernism copies of a pamphlet which is being circulated across the frontier were made public by the committee on public information at Washington.

This political tract denounces bitterly the junkerism of Germany, the war lords who control the government, whose sham peace proposals are described as an effort to humbug the German people.

The pamphlet of the German republicans evidently was written some time ago, but copies just have been received in the United States. Officially no reference has been made by the United States government to this activity, and the movement, if it may be described as such, is not regarded as having been developed to such a point that it might be considered a factor in the German situation. It is known, however, that the German republicans are continuing their agitation at least without the empire and circulating their literature of protest against the present government.

Torn Out Sympathy by Roots.

The author of the pamphlet, discussing early German peace overtures, says of the ruling classes in the empire:

"Did they intend this step to produce any impression upon the neutrals? That may scarcely be. By the invasion of Belgium, by the reckless drawing of thousands of the women and children of neutral peoples in the sinking of the Lusitania, Germany has torn out by the roots the sympathy of every thinking neutral. That sympathy cannot be recovered by any such pathetic peace suggestion as this. And, then, does anyone in the upper circles in Germany imagine that the neutrals, especially in Switzerland and the Netherlands, are unaware of the true economic situation, or, rather, let us say the economic distress of Germany; that they do not know despite all its victories east and west that Germany has not the slightest chance of imposing upon the world a 'German' peace such as is the dream of the chimney pot and cabbage lords of Prussia?"

"What is the object aimed at in this whole thrashing out of peace phrases? It is not intended to produce any impression either upon the enemy or upon the neutrals—no, for the ever so manyth time it is intended to humbug the German people.

"The German people," the pamphlet continues, "which at bottom does not understand why it has to defend the boundary line of Germany so far away as down there in the distant Balkans, knows only too well that a success in that remote theater of war can in truth bring a prolonging of its misery, but can in no sense bring a decisive victory. The weariness of war marches on into infinity; in order to instill patience into the people something new has been invented, and that is the farce of peace, which now, in accordance with all the rules of dramatic art, is to be presented to starving women and children.

The Farce as They See It.

"The program of the farce may now be sketched with a light touch.

"Act 1. The central powers make peace proposals based upon and unacceptable by reason of territorial enlargement, annexation, both open and disguised, a colossal strengthening of Germany as a military power.

"Act 2. The allies, who will fight to secure a true and lasting peace based on mutual understanding and putting an end to military states, reject these peace proposals—exactly as the German government foresees.

"Act 3. And curtain. The German people is informed through the belligerent (field-gray) press that the wicked enemy will have absolutely nothing to do with peace, that they insist upon the complete annihilation of the German people; that therefore naught is left but to endure through everything, to starve to the very end, to shed their blood to the last drop—until Junker and captain of industry have attained the object of their war, which is the robbery of other peoples, the enlargement of their power both abroad and at home.

"When the matter is artfully put upon the stage the instigators of war can hope after this novel and original fashion to fan anew the 'righteous wrath' of the starving, war-weary German people against the enemy, to exhibit its inevitable fate of being bled white."

REVEALS HIDDEN GOLD

Note in an Old Shoe Tells Sister Where to Find It.

A message hidden in an old shoe by Charles R. Hill, who took his life in Hills Valley, Utah, directed his sister to a spot at the base of a tree, where $2,400 in gold was found. Hill was an eccentric recluse, who lived in the foothills named after him. He left an estate valued at about $50,000.

Work.

There is nothing but what's bearable, as long as a man can work. The nature of things don't change, though it seems as if one's life was nothing but change. That the square of four is sixteen, and you must lengthen your lever in proportion to your weight, is as true when a man's miserable as when he's happy; and the best of working is, it gives you a good grip-hold of things outside your own lot.—George Elliot.

Forced To Sell Sugar

The Wilmington Branch of Garrett & Co., Inc., having been discovered to have a large amount of sugar were instructed to dispose of all above their immediate requirements at a reasonable profit above cost to them. The company promptly agreed to comply with the instructions. This is an instance of interference for the public good under which normal conditions would never have been dreamed of. As a reputable business concern, the right of Garrett & Co. to purchase sugar for their use for any period of time they desired would never have been questioned but the whole course of Food Administration is without precedent and the few precedents which may be cited are being smashed to smithereens. And yet, because every reasonable person recognizes its activities as a necessary means of winning the war and of protecting the 100,000,000 consumers of foodstuffs at home, nobody is kicking and a gratifying spirit of cooperation is being shown.

TELLS HOW TO BUILD UP SYSTEM

If Kidneys, Stomach, Appetite and Strength Need Building Up, Lumberman Tells How To Gain Back Health

Many Friends of His Endorse What He Says.

"I want to tell folks who wake up in the mornings with aches across their back, weak kidneys, and lost appetite and energy, how to get relief," declared Clyde Lafon, a well known lumberman of Waiteville, W. Va.

"I suffered that way for months and my back would feel so stiff on waking up and pain me so much I suffered awfully. My kidneys bothered me and urinating was painful. I was weak and thin and would often get real sick at my stomach. My appetite wasn't much either, but I want to say that Acid Iron Mineral is the thing for people troubled like that. I took some of it and it did more good than any medicine I ever used and I always keep it in my home. Lots of people I know have also been helped. It builds your system up and makes any one hearty and stout," continued Mr. Lafon.

Acid Iron Mineral is the highly concentrated product of a natural medicinal iron deposit. There is no alcohol or narcotic added and it does not affect the bowels or liver, upsetting the system.

It is stronger, much cheaper, better iron medicine. A few drops to a teaspoonful mixed in a glass of water makes a wonderful tonic and iron medicine for blood, rheumatism, kidneys, digestion, and whole system generally. Lots of people in this State recommend it. Get a bottle today.

In Danger.

A few days ago a five-year-old boy came with his mother to visit the latter's cousin. The first night, upon retiring, they were given a room which contained a folding bed, which was something new to the young man. He watched the process of opening, then got into bed, lay there, and thought for a few minutes, then looked up and said: "Mother, we will have to look out, for this bed has a self-starter, and is liable to go up on us."

Asthma-Catarrh and Bronchitis

Can Be Greatly Relieved by the New External Vapor Treatment.

Don't take internal medicines or habit-forming drugs for these troubles. Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Salve is applied externally and relieves by inhalation and vapor and by absorption through the skin. For Asthma and Hay Fever, melt a little Vick's in a spoon and inhale the vapors, also rub well over the spinal column to relax the nervous tension. 25c, 50c, or $1.00.

VICK'S VAPOR SALVE

"THE LETTER E"

Someone has advanced the opinion that the letter "E" is the most unfortunate character in the English alphabet, because it is out of cash, forever in debt, never out of danger, and in hell all the time.

But we call attention the fact that "E" is never in war and always in peace. It is the beginning of existence, the commencement of ease, and the end of trouble.

Without it there would be no Rexall store, no coffee, no bread, no life, no heaven, no service, no business, no appreciation, no regrets, no Fetzter's—The Words "Fetzter's Pure Drugs"—and "Service" are synonyms and, we appreciate your patronage.

Try us next time and we will make it our business to see that you have no regrets.
