Remorse.

For all the wisdom that is spilled, for all the punishment that's earned, it seems that life is always filled with lessons that are never learned; a mortal creature it appears will seldom fall to grab the chance to fill his little lot with tears and wail in woe-filled circumstance. He knows the paths that he should shun, he knows the better ways, of course, he knows the folly of the fun that brings him weeping and remorse, he knows that it is all a snare, yet falls he for temptation's lure to later moan and tear his hair and beat his bosom for a while. This train of moral platitudes (though wise, it's nothing new in truth) the writer pens in pensive mood for woes have prompted it forth; and many times he'd thought were learned the lessons that had cost him pain, but ah, the evil hour returned and he had slipped from grace again. O fates, endow him with the strength to see the folly of his way, to find the better course at length and nevermore to fall or stray; pray lead him not through ways beset with thorns and rocks and holes and mire—he simply can't afford to get another sixty-dollar tire—Illinois State Register.

Reidsville Did Well

The Red Cross Membership Drive throughout the South was most successful. Before the drive membership was 189,448; on January 25, 1918 the membership was 540,831, a gain of almost 300 per cent. Lexington and Reidsville in North Carolina led in the per cent. gained above the required number. It may be interesting to know the amount paid into the Red Cross treasury up to the close of 1917 was $97,525,955 had been received by the campaign committee up to December 28. It is conservatively estimated that another 6,000,000 will be paid into this fund. This would make a grand total of $103,000,000. Of this $13,613,153.04 has been paid to chapters to be used in local war relief work. $37,445,137.2 has been appropriated for Red Cross work in France.

Mr. William G. McAdoo, who is treasurer of the Red Cross War Fund, has on deposit in 3,748 banks scattered throughout America the sum of $45,948,256.32.

These are big sums and it may be interesting to know some of the wonderfully big things that have been done with these and the remaining millions.

The total amount actually expended up to date by the War Council of Red Cross is $30,000,000.

IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Margaret Somers died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Numa Cobb, of Ruffin, February 6. Her beloved husband, James K. Somers, preceded her to the grave about six years ago. Mrs. Somers was born April 26th, 1842, making her stay on earth 75 years, four months and six days. She is survived by seven children, namely, Mrs. T. S. Bowman of Reidsville; Mrs. J. M. Jordan of Alamance county; Mrs. G. Gilliam of Guilford county; Mrs. R. G. Somers of Alamance county, Mrs. P. G. Haggood of Martinsville, Va., and Mr. James Somers of Martinsville.

She was laid to rest at Lowe's M. E. church where she had been a member since she was sixteen years old. Services were conducted by Rev. Walter M. Smith, pastor of Ruffin M. E. church.

Mrs. Somers was a noble woman a faithful wife, and devoted mother. May God bless her dear children left to mourn her departure and help them to meet her in the Great Beyond, where troubles and sorrows are never known. It is hard to part with loved ones, but we feel that she is not dead, but resting 'till the resurrection and there forever blest.

Singing with the angels,
There'll be no sorrow there.
In heaven above where all is love
There'll be no sorrow there.

SCHOOL NEWS.

RUTH TEACHEY (Tenth Grade) Editor-in-Chief
KNOX LIVELY, GEORGE IRVIN, ROY KNIGHT Associate Editors

The preliminary for the Triangular Debate was held in the graded school auditorium at a called meeting of the Dialectic Literary Society Monday night. The debaters selected were as follows: Affirmative Frank Hall, Jr., William Harris; negative Wm. Cummings and Wm. Hester. These four boys will now begin a final drive for the spring debate to be held with Winston and High Point.

The ball suits for the baseball team have arrived. The boys have begun to practice since the weather broke and hope to begin playing out-of-town games.

On Friday morning the chapel exercises at the Franklin street graded school were in honor of George Washington's birthday. In connection with Washington's birthday exercises Thrift Stamp buying was emphasized. The government has asked that every one who is unable to buy Liberty bonds to buy War Savings Stamps. This is only a small service that shall be rendering our government in comparison with the sacrifice that our young men are making of their lives. The children in the various grades at school have taken an active part in the buying of Thrift Stamps and hope to buy more stamps later on.

The Junior Class delightfully entertained the Senior Class last Friday night at the Franklin street school. Enjoyable games and contests were enjoyed throughout the evening. Also music and dancing were enjoyed by all. At the conclusion of the games and contests the Juniors invited the Seniors upstairs where many tables were beautifully decorated. Delicious cream, cake and mints were enjoyed by all. The color scheme, pink and white, was splendidly carried out in decorations and the refreshments. At a late hour the guests departed, declaring the Juniors very delightful hosts.

NO INDIGESTION, GAS, HEARTBURN, ACIDITY

"Pape's Diapepsin" Fixes Sick, Sour Upset Stomachs In Five Minutes

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain, unfailing action in regulating sick sour gassy stomachs. Its quick relief in indigestion, dyspepsia and gastritis, when caused by acidity, has made it famous the world over.

Keep this wonderful stomach sweetener in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes into contact with the stomach it helps to neutralize the excessive acidity, then all the stomach distress caused by it disappears. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming such stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

Cincinnati Man Discovers Drug That Loosens Corns So They Lift Out

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept dispensing freezings, the recent discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

A quarter of an ounce costs very little at any drug store which handles drugs, but this is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn or toughened callus and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn or callus is so shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.

REIDSVILLE MAN HAS MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

"I was told by our family physician that I could not live without an operation, as my liver and gall sack were in such bad condition. I set the day to go to the hospital, but then I saw the advertisement of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. Since taking it I am feeling like a two-year-old. I am sure I never could have survived an operation." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or your money refunded.

Chronic Constipation

It is by no means an easy matter to cure this disease, but it can be done in most instances by taking Chamberlain's Tablets and complying with the plain printed directions that accompany each package.
