Gardening weather is here. Folks who propose to fight the Germans by raising their own vegetables cannot afford to lose any time in getting their gardens in shape for planting the earlier and hardier vegetables.

Some of the balmy days recently have caused a stirring of the blood and longing looks toward the garden spots.

The Old North State smoking tobacco factory is now in full operation in their new quarters in the old sash and blind factory. All the new machinery has been installed and operated to full capacity. The plant is being run night and day in an effort to catch up with orders, which have accumulated since the Old North State factory was burned Christmas Eve.

The union services will be conducted at the Main street M. E. church next Sunday by Rev. L. W. Gerring. Rev. W. E. Abernethy was the preacher of the First Presbyterian church Sunday night. His sermon was a masterpiece. Dr. Abernethy is a scholar of first rank and always has a fine message for his hearers, but his discourse Sunday night could hardly be surpassed.

Last fall it was impossible to impress on many farmers the importance of planting wheat. They knew they had been buying flour and did not seem to realize that time might come when they could not get it. Many who did not plant wheat could have done so if they had believed what was told them about the matter. They did not believe it. Some of them tell The Review that they regret they did not plant more wheat but they are much wiser than they were a year ago.

Mrs. D. B. McKloney died at her home near Melver Saturday afternoon, aged 66 years. Her death was due to heart troubles. She leaves a husband, Elder D. B. Messrs. John C. Hutcherson and Robt. H. Hedgecock of Walnut Cove shipped in a car load of fine pigs to Reidsville one day last week and have had a good demand for them. They sold nearly $2,000 worth Friday and Saturday. They will be here until the middle of the week and those who need pigs should promptly avail themselves of this opportunity.

Howard Penn returned from a business trip North Monday in the interest of the Penn Bros. Suspender Co. He tells us that he has made arrangements to put on two or three new lines—heavy suspenders, boys' suspenders and belts. This means that the business is to be increased.

This concern has closed a deal for the Galloway factory and has let the contract for remodeling. This will give three times as much floor space as is now available. The building is to be modernized in every particular—there will be electric motors, electric lights, water, etc. It also means that they will employ more than double the present labor force.—Madison Messenger.

The death of Mrs. J. Frank Mitchell, which occurred at her home on Tarpley street this morning, is one of peculiar sadness. Mrs. Mitchell was about 30 years old, and was of an unusually sunny disposition. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Evans, and was born in Rockingham county. About fifteen years ago they moved here, and twelve years ago she was married to Mr. Mitchell. They spent a year in Winston but returned here. To the union was born four children, three of whom survive. She is survived by her husband, 3 children father, mother, two sisters and two brothers. Arrangements have not yet been made for the funeral.—Burlington Cor.

As will be seen from a new advertisement in today's Review, Miss Laura Powell has bought the insurance agency of the late John D. Huffines. Miss Powell has been connected with that old established agency for many years and is thoroughly familiar with affairs of the office. She is a very efficient and competent woman and is very well equipped for the insurance business, she has made a life study. She represents a splendid line of insurance companies and will be in position to thoroughly safeguard her patrons. All business entrusted to her will be carefully and conscientiously looked after. The Review takes pleasure in commending Miss Powell to the public as competent and trustworthy and that all business in the insurance line entrusted to her will be placed in safe hands. She will retain the same offices in the Citizens Bank Building until March 15, when she will have her office under Watt's Leader Warehouse, adjoining J. H. Burton's store.

"THE LETTER E"

Someone has advanced the opinion that the letter "E" is the most unfortunate character in the English alphabet, because it is out of cash, forever in debt, never out of danger, and in hell all the time.

But we call attention the fact that "E" is never in war and always in peace. It is the beginning of existence, the commencement of ease, and the end of trouble.
