

NEWS OF REIDSVILLE AND ROCKINGHAM

Miss B. Gordon of Spray spent Tuesday in the city. Born to Mr and Mrs. R. L. Coe on March 12, a daughter. The Baptist Sunday School has donated $5.00 to the local Red Cross. Mr and Mrs. Arthur Borland are spending this week with Mrs. R. L. Coe. Mr. Z. W. Griffin of Moorehead honored us with a pleasant call Tuesday. Supt. of Schools L. N. Hickerson has a very interesting offer in this issue. Read it. Take time to read the offer of the War Savings Committee of Rockingham to the schools. Mrs. J. S. Hutcherson is spending the week-end in Winston with Mr. and Mrs. Grady Broome. Every one that possibly can should see Annette Kellerman Tuesday at the Grande Theatre. Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Hickerson and Mrs. A. T. Julian of Wentworth spent Tuesday in Greensboro shopping. Mr. M. J. Durham a popular young farmer on Route 3, was in town Wednesday and gave us a pleasant call. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dyer of Leaksville are visiting their daughter, Mrs. F. C. Sharp, on Piedmont street. Every one that possibly can should attend the day shows next Tuesday at the Grande Theatre to avoid the rush at night. All selectmen in Class 1 and those 21 years of age since last June are invited to attend the drill at the C. and A. hall every Thursday night. You will have the opportunity next Tuesday to see the finest picture ever produced, "A Daughter of the Gods." Our breezy bachelor friend, Mr. W. S. Smothers of New Bethel township was in town Wednesday and honored us with a pleasant call. The Reidsville Basketball team will play the Spray Basketball team on the Franklin Street school grounds Friday afternoon at 4:30. Admission 15c. Mr. C. O. McMichael, Grand Warden of the I. O. O. F., grand lodge of North Carolina delivered an address before the district lodge at Montezuma last week. He also delivered an address before the district lodge which met in Greensboro this week. Revival services will begin at the Wentworth M. E. church the fifth Sunday night. Rev. W. H. Wills of Lexington will assist Pastor Townsend. A victrola, piano or handsome library may be secured by any school selling the largest number of War Savings Stamps. Read the offer elsewhere. Mr. W. J. Talley, who is stationed at Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C., returned ednesday after a five days' furlough to his parents on North Arlington street. Farmers are hauling out an immense amount of fertilizer this week. At present prices of farm products a liberal use of good fertilizers will doubtless pay well. At a recent meeting of the Reidsville Tobacco Board of Trade it was decided to close the local market on April 15th. A resolution was also adopted requiring all tobacco on the warehouse floors, beginning with the next tobacco year, to be put in baskets before being offered for sale. This is a great labor saving plan and is now in force on most of the big markets. Rev. J. T. Strader will preach at the Reidsville Christian church next Sunday at 11 o'clock. Public invited. The annual commencement of the Bethlehem school will be held Friday and Saturday nights, March 29 and 30th. The exercises of the 29th will be given by the primary department and on the 30th the play "Single Life" will be given. Everyone invited. No admission. The final entertainment of the Dan River School will be given Saturday night, March 23, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited to be present.
