

NEWS OF REIDSVILLE AND ROCKINGHAM

The freight boat will be closed Thursday, the Fourth.

Eighty-five automobiles were counted in the triple funeral procession here Sunday afternoon.

First Lieut. Linwood G. Koger, colored, has notified his mother here of his safe arrival overseas.

You will have an opportunity this week to see the finest pictures that are produced at the Grande Theatre.

We learn that our good friend and patron Mr. H. A. Badgett, son of L. Badgett, near Spock, is on the way to the battle zone.

News has been received here of the safe arrival overseas of Berkley Daniel, Frank Turner, Glyn Carter and J. Allen, all of Caswell county.

The first show at the Grande Theatre will start promptly at 10:30 a. m. July 4th. Second show at 2 o'clock p. m. and continue all afternoon. Night shows 8 o'clock promptly to 11:30 p. m.

James Green McBryde of Spray was the first Rockingham county man drawn in the nation's second draft lottery. His number was 246.

The manager of Grande Theatre announces to the general public of two special attractions for this week. "Barbary Sheep" in six acts Tuesday and "The Little Princess" in six acts Thursday, July 4th, featuring Mary Pickford.

Sgts. Gifford and Robertson en route to Camp Sevier from Baltimore, Md., reached Reidsville Saturday driving a mammoth Packard 5-ton army truck. After resting here they resumed their journey Monday morning.

The Moose charter closed Saturday night with a membership of over 300 for the Reidsville lodge. A request has been made to headquarters to receive members up to September 1 for an initiation fee of $10. After that time it will be $25.

The Sandy Cross Canning Club will meet at the home of Mrs. G. W. Baker, Wednesday, July 3, at 2:30 p. m. Every member is asked to bring some berries, beans, etc. to put up. Any one in the community who wishes to come is welcomed.

Mrs. Joe Lane died at her home in Leaksville Friday following a lingering illness. The remains were buried Saturday. Mrs. Lane is survived by her husband, who is the assistant postmaster at Leaksville. Messrs. Ernest and Cabell Wall are brothers of the deceased.

Private John Walker, 25 years old died Friday at Camp Jackson following a lingering illness. Five or six months ago the young man was one of the many victims of the spinal meningitis. He later contracted pneumonia. His remains will be buried at Bethlehem. He is the son of Mrs. Venie Walker.

Earl Allison of the U. S. Navy, left today for New York, after a visit to relatives and friends. Mr. Allison was on the U. S. ship "Rockefeller," when it was sunk by a German submarine. He made his escape through a hole on the side of the vessel and was picked up by a life saving boat. The "Rockefeller" sunk in seventeen minutes.—Yanceyville Cor.

Djalma Marshburn, twenty years old, of Raleigh, who was killed by a seaplane accident one day recently at sea near France, was a grandson of Mrs. Winstead and a nephew of Mr. Numa A. Winstead of Reidsville. The young aviator's father was a former rural mail carrier of Raleigh and is now living in Richmond, Va.

WOMAN WORKS 15 HOURS A DAY

Marvelous Story of Woman's Change from Weakness to Strength by Taking Druggist's Advice.

Fern, Ind.—"I suffered from a displacement with backache and dragging down pains so badly that at times I could not be on my feet and it did not seem as though I could stand it. I tried different medicines without any benefit and several doctors told me nothing but an operation would do me any good. My druggist told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it with the result that I am now well and strong. I get up in the morning at four o'clock, do my housework, then go to a factory and work all day, come home and get supper and feel good. I don't know how many of my friends I have told how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. ANNA METERIANO, 36 West 10th St., Fern, Ind.

Women who suffer from any such ailments should not fail to try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

and Mrs. Marshburn also have another son in the aviation department.

At a congregational meeting at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning the members voted to release Rev. Carl B. Craig and allow him to accept the pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Laurinburg. He has been co-pastor of the church here the past few years with his father, Dr. D. I. Craig. His many friends of every denomination regret very much to seem him leave Reidsville.

Ex-judge Thomas A. Jones of Asheville, an eminent lawyer of Western North Carolina, and State Senator from Buncombe county in 1917, has taken a position with the legal department of the War Insurance Bureau at Washington. Judge Jones has had a large and lucrative law practice for years, his annual income being from $6,000 to $7,000, but he has given up this work to help the government at a salary of $2,500. Judge Jones is a brother of Mrs. Robt. Johnston of near Reidsville.

At a meeting of the directors of Citizens Bank, held on June 27, the regular semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent was declared and ordered paid to stockholders on July 1. In addition to this cash dividend of $1 a share, the bank was able to carry a good round sum to its surplus account, as a result of its six months business ending June 30. The president's report to the directors showed the bank to be in the strongest condition ever shown at any other time during its long and prosperous career. For many years the Citizens Bank has been paying dividends twice a year, which custom is much appreciated by its stockholders.

I see from the daily press that a number of cities will establish the angelus and that at the sound of the bell at 7 o'clock every evening the people will pause and say a silent prayer for the success of the allied arms. The first town to have notified taking this action is Reidsville. Here the bell will ring and the people will bow their heads and pray. At Greenville, S. C., the lights will flash off for five seconds, then on again, indicating that the time for universal prayer has arrived. It's a plan that is worth copying in every community in the United States. "Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet."—Junior Editor in Charlotte Observer.

Mrs. J. N. Watt motored over to Greensboro Friday taking with her the following members of the executive committee. Mrs. J. C. Mills, Mrs. Eugene Irvin, Mrs. Robt. Hairston, Mrs. Will Williams, Mrs. Russell Tucker and Mrs. Dillard Watt to hear an address by Mrs. Victor Cluis of Atlanta, Ga., who is head of the instruction department of the Red Cross work at Atlanta. Mrs. Cluis is an interesting and a most charming woman and has been most cordially received on all her tours through the Southern District. From Greensboro Mrs. Cluis went to Winston-Salem where she was entertained Friday by Mrs. Lindsey Patterson at her home, Branlette.

Don't forget the benefit entertainment at the Grande Theatre on Friday evening for the Daughters of the Confederacy. The money that is raised will be spent in procuring markers for the graves of Confederate veterans. There are about 78 graves and there is absolutely no way to distinguish a great many of them. If "Uncle Billy" Fitzgerald should pass away, no one would be able to locate these graves as they are at present. The Daughters want to put a simple bronze marker at each grave and are beginning to raise the money in this way. We must not forget those who died for us, nor must we neglect those who are fighting for us. Keep the memories of both green by doing your bit.

Rev. J. W. Wells, colored pastor of St. Paul M. E. church, this city, has been transferred to the pastorate of Clark Memorial M. E. church, Nashville, Tenn. The great church to which Rev. Wells has been sent to requires the services of a man who can do things, but the people who know him believe he will more than live up to the expectations of those to whom he goes. His life in the North Carolina Conference has made an impression that will live after him. Among the most important charges he has served as pastor are: Forest City, Lenoir, Hickory, Maxton, High Point, Leaksville and Reidsville. His work in all of these places has meant much to the church and the race.—The Voice.

Among the out of town guests attending the funeral of Misses Windsor and Bolya here Sunday were: Mrs. J. B. Clarke, Mr. W. B. Clark, Mrs. J. C. Saunders, Miss Vera Saunders, Mrs. W. L.
