

ODDITIES

After he had borrowed a dollar from his wife, J. R. Hurst, a well-known character of Greensburg, Pa., went directly to a newspaper office and inserted a notice that he would not be responsible for any debts his wife might contract. The wife immediately instituted proceedings for divorce.

The hobo, whose labor was sought by farmers at harvest time, is now an extinct character, according to the American Land Service, which supplies seasonal workers from the city for farm work during the slack seasons. Prosperity, prohibition and even the war-time "work or fight order" are attributed by farmers as causes for the disappearance of the "Weary Willie."

"Speaking" in his own behalf, Shep (exhibit A in a suit for possession), stood on his hind feet, walked up and down before a jury in the court of Justice of the Peace Frank at Greencastle, Ind., and pleaded his case. D. E. Bush brought suit against Joe Disney for possession of Shep. The jury asked to see the dog and the animal was led into court and coached in its "argument" by Disney's small son. It took the jury only a few minutes to decide that the child was Shep's real master.

Just one case of drunkenness has occupied the attention of the municipal criminal court at Attleboro, Mass., a manufacturing city of 20,000 inhabitants, since the first of the year, and that case came up before the bone-dry Federal law went into effect on January 16. Cells in the local hoosgow usually set apart for drunk and disorderly prisoners are yawning empty, the patrol wagon is getting rheumatic from non-use, and residents predict that if this state of affairs continues the criminal court may as well take a life vacation.

Right Rev. Chas. S. Burch, Episcopal bishop of New York, knows a true New Yorker when he sees one, and he also knows an angel. He defined both for the police officers at the police lieutenants' annual dinner, at the Waldorf-Astoria, a few nights ago. "A true New Yorker," said the Bishop, "is a man who, instead of going to Cuba, carries a corkscrew in his hip pocket." The Bishop believes women are angels, he said, for three reasons: "First, because they are always up in the air; second, because they are always harping upon something, and third, because they are always in need of clothes."

Had Eight Sons in the Civil War. The late Daniel Smyre, of Catawba county, had eight sons, all of whom were in the war.

ONLY ONE THING NOW LACKING—MONEY.

"I have doctored nine years for stomach and liver trouble and spent thousands of dollars, but instead of becoming cured of these ailments, my bloating and pains and attacks become worse, I was persuaded a year ago to take Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and have never suffered since taking the first dose. I wish I had the money back I spent for other medicine." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

When the Blood Is Bad

Alton Park, Tenn.—"Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cannot be excelled as a tonic and blood purifier. I have taken it as a spring tonic and to purify the blood and it was excellent. I also found it good for stomach trouble. And Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a fine system regulator. I found them especially good for constipation and bilious attacks and they also tone up the liver and drive impurities from the system in a very mild way, never causing distress. I can highly recommend these good medicines of Dr. Pierce's."—J. S. HUGHES, 114 Rogers St.

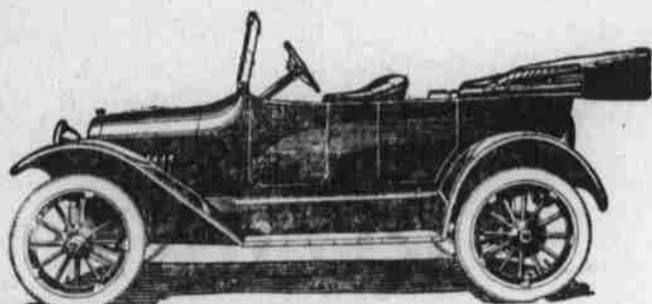

A Household Remedy

Memphis, Tenn.—"From my earliest recollections Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was a household remedy in my mother's home. She always gave it to us children whenever we became run-down or seemed to need toning up. Mother is just as enthusiastic today in her praise of the 'Discovery' and I am sure she has been repaid for the care she gave us when small for we have all grown to strong and healthy womanhood and manhood. I have so much faith in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that I would never hesitate in giving it to my own children should they become sickly or weak."—MRS. SADIE HOLT, 1428 La Fiore Pl.

Run-down, Nervous, Stomach Trouble

North Chattanooga, Tenn.—"I have been greatly helped by using Dr. Pierce's remedies. I had become the mother of twin babies and did not regain my strength. I was all run-down in health and was in a very nervous and weakened condition. I had stomach trouble, gas would form and seemed to affect my heart. I smothered so at times that I could scarcely get my breath. I cannot begin to tell how miserable I was until I began taking Dr. Pierce's medicines. I took three bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one of the 'Favorite Prescription' and they completely restored me to health and strength."—MRS. M. J. CARTER, 215 Stringer St.
