

THE REIDSVILLE REVIEW

THIRTY-FOURTH YEAR.

REIDSVILLE, N. C. FRIDAY, MARCH 24TH, 1922.

ISSUED TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

COAL STRIKE IS CALLED MCH. 31

An Associated Press dispatch from Indianapolis says: Suspension of work by all union coal miners at midnight, March 31, was ordered today by officers of the United Mine Workers of America, the call being the first ever issued for both bituminous and anthracite workers to walk out simultaneously. Six hundred thousand men will be directly affected by the order, it was estimated officially. The suspension, the order provides, will continue until stopped by union officials.

The order, which was sent to the 3,000 local unions, directed the miners to give the operators their fullest cooperation in the protection of property and counseled against violence and violations of the law. In addition to affecting all union miners in the United States, the order also directed approximately 6,650 union men in Western Canada to join in the walkout, but did not apply to 14,000 miners in Nova Scotia.

Never before in the history of the coal industry has a suspension or strike order called for cessation of work by all union miners in the United States. In the past, wage contracts in the bituminous and anthracite fields have not expired at the same time but a complete tie-up in union fields was considered during the great anthracite strike in 1902. A sympathetic strike by the bituminous miners at that time was rejected by the union's convention, it being argued that the soft coal workers were bound by a contract.

Crew Throws More Sands In the Gear

Cooperation seems to be the order of the day! Certainly such is the case with Rockingham county officials who are bending their efforts in breaking up the illicit rum traffic hereabouts.

Deputies Strader, Stallings, Trent, Garrison, Mobley, Dallas, Jones and Cummings captured an Essex touring car and a Ford touring car near Bethany School Wednesday night about 1 o'clock.

Two white young men, Clarence Wilson and ——— Smith, both from Winston-Salem, were towed in with the cars and 86 gallons of booze.

The public school fund is richer by several hundred dollars as a result of this capture.

THE METHODIST INTEREST CENTERS ON WORLD SUNDAY

Southern Methodists throughout the connection are centering their interest on World Sunday, March 26, at which time every member of that denomination who made a subscription to the Centenary or Missions movement will be asked to make a payment on his pledge.

The "World Sunday" movement which is now sweeping this section was inaugurated, it is said, to arouse Methodists to meet their obligations for overdue missionary money, and according to the plans of the leaders a special effort will be made in this direction on March 26, the official "World Sunday" of Southern Methodism, when the theme of world missions will be presented in every church within the bounds of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

During the week following "World Sunday" a church-wide canvass will be made to collect arrearages in Centenary payments. It is said that there is a shortage of $4,000,000 in collections to be made up before the meeting of the General Conference in May, 1922.

CARL TALLEY'S MONEY MAY GO TO DECEASED POLICEMAN'S ESTATE

Judge B. F. Long, presiding over Guilford Superior court, on Tuesday morning set aside the verdict returned by the jury in the case of S. S. Mitchell, administrator for the late W. T. McCulston, Greensboro policeman, against Carl Talley and his wife, Mrs. Ethel K. Talley.

The jury's verdict was that Mr. Mitchell should recover no damages from Talley as a result of Mr. McCulston's death. Judge Long set aside the verdict on the ground that it was rendered contrary to the greater weight of the evidence and against the instruction of the court. The case will be heard at a future term. The News says:

The case tried Tuesday grew out of the killing of Mr. McCulston last May. Carl Talley was in the automobile from which the bullet was fired that killed the policeman. Talley fled and is now an outlaw. Attorneys for Mr. Mitchell, the administrator, instituted suit against Talley to recover $25,000 damages for what they alleged to be a wrongful killing. Talley's home in Spray, and $8,111 in the Greensboro National bank were then attached by the plaintiff.

Then came Mrs. Talley, as an intervenor, asking the court to vacate the attachment on the ground that it would not lie. An appeal to the Supreme court was taken, resulting in the higher court overruling Judge Webb.

But since that time Louis Edwards was tried and convicted of killing Mr. McCulston. Following in the wake of his conviction, attorneys for Mrs. Talley made a motion Monday afternoon to have the attachment vacated on the ground that the affidavits in the case were false, to-wit: Carl Talley did not kill McCulston inasmuch as the court found Edwards guilty of the charge. No decision was rendered by the judge Monday afternoon. Tuesday morning attorneys for both sides told the judge that they could adjust the matter insofar as Mrs. Talley and Mr. Mitchell were concerned. In the adjustment, the attorneys for Mr. Mitchell agreed to release to Mrs. Talley the home place and a portion of the money in the bank here.

That left the question: How much damage should the plaintiff recover from Talley. This went to the jury with instructions from Judge Long that the plaintiff was entitled to recover something. But the jury failed to comply with the court's instructions. Thereupon, O. L. Sapp, for Mr. Mitchell, moved that the verdict be set aside.

Road Foreman Shot By Negro

A special from Danville says: Nelson Clayton, foreman for a road gang working on a Caswell county highway between Purley and Yanceyville, is in a Danville hospital with a serious body wound, while Harvey McMullen, a negro, is in Yanceyville jail charged with the shooting, which occurred Saturday night.

The negro was under arrest a few minutes after first word of the shooting reached the local authorities. His description was given and two police officers started for the county line in an automobile. They went a considerable distance and on coming back sighted a negro answering the description, waiting alone the road. The automobile noiselessly approached the negro when he turned around, found two revolvers covering him. He lifted his hands, surrendered, confessed the shooting, the officers say, and told them that he had a pistol in the bosom of his shirt. It was quickly removed.

Clayton was up late Saturday night going over his figures. He was passing through a grove when, it is alleged, the negro shot him the bullet penetrating the side. The white man is too ill to talk. The negro states that Clayton made a suspicious move as though for a pistol and he fired point blank at Clayton and then ran away. Other men about the camp hearing the pistol shot ran to the spot and found Clayton on the ground wounded.

At the present rate of Tanlac sales it is estimated the grand total will reach 24,000,000 bottles at the end of the present year.—Tucker's Drug Store.

Local Republicans Getting In Action

"Look here," said one of our Republican friends yesterday, "you evidently must think that the Republicans are not going to be in the running in Rockingham county this year." Pressed for some G. O. P. dope he continued: "We are going to nominate and elect Lytt Gardner sheriff; Numa Reid has been landed, and Tom Malloy will get the clerk's place; Bob Joyce is going to be our next solicitor, and in fact we are going to make a clean sweep. The prospects were never better for Republican victory," declared this bit of fooled prognosticator.

MISS SMITH RETURNS TO HER SCHOOL AFTER A SIEGE STRANGE ILLNESS

Miss Irene Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Smith, has entirely recovered from her recent illness, and on last Monday returned to Gritton, N. C., to take up her work again as a teacher.

The strange illness of Miss Smith was referred to in these columns recently. While teaching near Kinston she developed a case of sleeping sickness. After being treated by a physician she was sent to a hospital at Kinston where she received treatment for several days but as her condition showed no improvement she was brought home by her parents on the 8th inst.

As the disease did not respond to medical treatment her parents called Reidsville's chiropractic physician, Dr. W. I. Bowman, who saw and treated her first on the 9th inst. She responded readily to Dr. Bowman's treatment and within a few days the strange malady had been practically overcome, and she was able to read her mail and converse with her family and friends. From this time her restoration to normal health was rapid, and when she left home Monday to resume her work she was entirely well.

The case is one of more than passing interest for the reason that it seemed to baffle the physicians, and is the first case of sleeping sickness that we have heard of in this section.

"I would not take $1,000 for what that wonderful Tanlac medicine has done for me," said Mrs. Mattie Lutes of Lexington, Kentucky. Sold by Tucker's Drug Store.

TWO BASEBALL MEETS ARE TO BE HELD IN REIDSVILLE THIS WEEK

Two baseball meetings in Reidsville are scheduled for this week. On Friday night the local fans will hold a massmeeting at the C. & A. Hall, and the night following directors of the Bi-State League will meet here for the purpose of formulating a permanent organization.

It is not generally known but it is nevertheless true that Reidsville is in grave danger of being without the national sport the coming season. The directors of the local association are going to put it squarely up to the public at the meeting Friday night. They declare that they have no intention of forcing baseball on the folks if the folks don't want it. Friday night's meeting will afford every one an opportunity to say just what they want. Of course the people who remain from the meeting will let it be known by their absence that they are sufficiently amused. In other towns and cities the merchants, bankers, manufacturers and other business concerns are lending financial aid to their respective teams and find it a pretty good investment for themselves and their town. What is Reidsville going to do about it? One share of stock may turn the tide on Friday night, so if you are sick or will be out of town notify Jess Fetzer or one of the directors that you are with the gang.

Don't fail to attend this mass-meeting Friday night!

Rotarians At the Weekly Luncheon

The weekly meetings of the Reidsville Rotary Club are becoming more interesting. The novelty of the events is wearing away, and each member realizes that he is meeting his fellows on these occasions for no vain purpose.

The meeting Tuesday was full of interest and the hour allotted for it was too short a time within which to discuss matters that were suggested by different members. The individual member is realizing that Rotary is something larger than himself; that it is as large as the combined interests and influence of all his fellow members. Therefore when the time for meeting comes he lays aside for one hour the personal or individual matters that may be engaging his attention, and joins his fellow members having in his heart only the big idea of SERVICE.

The local club missed its president, Price Gwynn, at the luncheon Tuesday, but he was at that time learning more about Rotary at the District Convention in Winston-Salem.

The next meeting of the club will be at 6:30 next Tuesday evening. More time may be devoted to this meeting than the usual noon-day hour, if necessary, and it seems as if such will be the case, for some out-of-town gentlemen have been invited to be the club's guests on that occasion.

The meeting Tuesday was a delightful one. Mrs. J. F. Watlington, at the piano, assisted the men in singing a few of their Rotary songs.

The "objects" of the Rotary Club which has just been organized in Reidsville are:

To encourage and foster:

High ethical standards in business and professions.

The ideal of SERVICE as the basis of all worthy enterprise.

The active interest of every Rotarian in the civic, commercial, social, and moral welfare of his community.

The development of a broad acquaintanceship as an opportunity for service as well as an aid to success.

The interchange of ideas and of business methods as a means of increasing the efficiency and usefulness of Rotarians.

The recognition of the worthiness of all legitimate occupations and the dignifying of the occupations of each Rotarian as affording him an opportunity to serve society.

Later these financial institutions will be merged with the Boulevard Bank & Trust Co. into a national bank under one management, but doing business at the same points as usual.

Urges Teachers To Cooperate in Live-At-Home Movement

A personal appeal from Governor Morrison to every rural school teacher in North Carolina to cooperate earnestly and effectively in the "Live-at-Home" campaign is being mailed this week. The Governor declares that probably no other individuals in the State are in quite so advantageous position to render effective service in this movement for economic independence as are the teachers, and probably no other class of our people is in better position to realize the appalling need from a standpoint of health as well as economic independence, as are the teachers.

The Governor appeals to the teachers "to put before your pupils effectively and continuously the advantages of our people raising their living at home, and particularly the advantages of making this living well balanced and wholesome, through the tending of a real garden, the keeping of one or more cows and an ample flock of poultry, and the raising of sufficient hogs to provide the family with meat the year around."

"If every rural teacher in North Carolina will do his or her part in this matter we can not only stop the economic drain of $100,000,000 a year which we are now sending to other States for food for our people and feedstuffs for our livestock, but we would be safe in adding to this another $100,000,000 a year as an economic gain from greater physical efficiency and better health conditions as a result of more wholesome living," declares the Governor.

The Governor is also addressing a letter to each school committeeman in the "one-crop" sections of this State, in which he appeals to them to see their influence in every community to further the "Live-at-Home" program.

LITERARY CLUBS HEAR TALK BY MISS SLOAN

The Tuesday Afternoon Reading Club at the close of its last regular weekly meeting joined the Art and Travel Club in the rare enjoyment of hearing Miss Annie L. Sloan, of Winston-Salem. Mrs. Eugene Watt's lovely home was thrown open for this occasion. The subject for the afternoon was Thomas Carlyle.

Miss Sloan by her charming personality and with her rich fund of thought reviewed the works of this hitherto unpopular writer. Her address was taken from notes given by Dr. Mims, of Vanderbilt University, and was based on Carlyle's three best known books, viz: Past and Present, Sartor Resartus, Hero and Hero Worship.

Miss Sloan at once gripped the attention of her audience by asking the unique question: "Why do brilliant men make poor husbands?" The following are a few of the facts gleaned from her talk: 1-The unpopularity of Carlyle's writing is due to repetition and eccentric style. 2—History and religion overshadowing politics play an important part in his works. 3—Habit and imitation form the fundamental basis of our daily life. 4—The underlying thought to be ever present is that "Duty Precedes Happiness." The clubs thoroughly enjoyed the many quotations given from the master writer himself. Especially noteworthy was the one in which Carlyle was proved not only a writer but a poet.

Miss Sloan closed her address with a most impressive quotation from Goethe. The guests were then inited into the dining room where sandwiches and tea were served.

During the social hour Miss Margaret Womack, accompanied by Miss Sarah Watt, played several violin solos which added greatly to the program of the afternoon.
