VISITORS WILL FILL PULPITS

Methodist Pastors Are Out of City Attending the Conference

DR. M'CLURE TO SPEAK

Special Services Will Be Held at the West Durham Baptist Church

While the Methodist pastors are out of the city attending the conference the usual Sunday school services will be held at all of the churches, and some of the pulpits of these ministers will be filled by visiting preachers. Dr. A. D. McClure, of Wilmington, will speak to the young people at the First Presbyterian church today, and will fill the pulpit there at both the morning and evening services. Dr. Vann is to preach at the West Durham Baptist church, and there will also be special services there.

The announcements follow:
EDGEMONT BAPTIST.
Services will be held both in the morning and evening. The sermons will be preached by the pastor, Rev. Charles C. Smith. Sunday school will be held at the usual hour. The public is invited to attend these services.
PRIMITIVE BAPTIST.
Elder C. F. Denny will preach at this church this morning at 11 o'clock. There will be no evening services. The public is invited to attend.
LAKEWOOD BAPTIST.

WITH THE RECORDER.

Several Defendants Faced His Honor Yesterday Morning.
Seven defendants in six cases faced the recorder in yesterday morning's session of police court. Most of these answered to minor charges and the docket was expeditiously cleared. A negro plead guilty to the charge of drunkenness; he was taxed $5 and the costs, half of the fine being remitted.
Cullen Howerton plead guilty to the charge of leaving the engine running on an automobile unattended. Judgment was suspended upon the payment of the costs.
Ruffin Ragan, charged with assault and battery, entered a plea of guilty. Judgment was suspended upon the payment of the costs.
Gregory S. Wallins was convicted of selling quail. In this case also judgment was suspended upon the payment of the costs.
Joseph Gain and Lena Carrington plead guilty to the charge of f. and a. Another case of suspension of judgment upon the payment of the costs.
D. C. Toran admitted that he had "toted" a pistol. Five bucks and the trimmings was the price of Toran's freedom. He was also required to abandon his weapon.

Resolutions of Respect.
Wherein the Almighty and supreme ruler has seen fit in His infinite wisdom to take from us on Oct. 25, 1915, our friend and brother, James L. Jackson, from this world of suffering to his home where sufferings be no more, and Wherein Brother Jackson had reached the age of three score years we are reminded that when the master sends the summons we should be ready to meet Him. Therefore, be it resolved,
1. That Branson council No. 9, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, in the death of Brother Jackson loses a devoted and loyal member and a christian gentleman and his church a loyal member.
2. That while we bow in humble submission to the will of the supreme councilor yet we feel the loss we have sustained in the death of our brother and friend.
3. We was proud of the life of Brother Jackson, the devotion to his family, church and the noble principles of our beloved order.
4. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased
