

ELKIN TRIBUNE

Published Weekly by THE PRINTING COMPANY, ELKIN, N. C. $1.00 Per Year, Cash in Advance. Thursday, Jan. 3, 1919

BAPTIST CHURCH DIRECTORY

Rev. Chas. N. Harris, Pastor. Sunday School every Sunday morning at 10:00. Morning worship services First, Third and Fourth Sundays at 11 A. M. and 6:15 P. M. Mr. R. Y. P. D. meets Tuesday evening at 8:15 in Walter M. Hudson's Parlor. Women's Missionary Society meets Thurs. day after Second Sunday. Mrs. J. L. Russell, Pres. Monthly Conference, Wednesday night at 7:00. Business Meeting, Monday night after Third Sunday.

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. J. W. Frazier spent Wednesday in Greensboro on business. Mr. C. H. Haynes, of Mount Airy, was a business visitor here Tuesday. The tobacco warehouse will resume sales again next Monday, January 6th, 1919. Miss Fern Young, of Denny, was the guest of Mrs. Hazel Reich several days last week. Mr. R. M. Bowers, of Watauga, is spending a few days with relatives and friends. J. W. Glenn went to Clark Monday on business connected with his warehouse at that place. Mrs. Wm. H. Wolfborn and children, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Henderson, in Charlotte. Mrs. A. W. Weeden, of Blowing Rock, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. G. Armfield, on Church street. Mr. Ernest Allen, of Denver, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Allen, on Church street. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Newman, of Winston-Salem, were the guests of relatives and friends here during the holidays. Mr. J. C. Money butchered twenty-year-old pigs last week that tipped the beam at $10 and $11 pounds each. Miss Ina Cook, of Winston-Salem, spent last Sunday here with her sister, Mrs. L. C. Bell, on Gwynn avenue. Private James Greenwood, of the U. S. Navy, at Norfolk, Va., spent last week here with his mother and sister. Editor T. M. George, of the News-Leader, of Mount Airy, spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. George. Miss Mattie Reid Douchon, of Davenport College, Lenoir, N. C., was the guest of Mrs. E. F. Cooper last week. Miss Bertha Bell, of Mount Airy, spent the Christmas week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bell. Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Chatham, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday here with their father, Mr. H. Chatham, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Sorinkin and children, of North Wilkesboro, were among the visitors here during the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Glenn and son and daughter, Claus, and Miss Della, spent Christmas with relatives in Stoneville. Lieut. H. T. Messenger, of the Q. M. Department in Washington, D. C., spent a couple of days here last week with friends. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Norman, of Thurmond, are spending the winter with their son, Mr. Percy Norman, on Gwynn Avenue. Mrs. S. Y. Strange and little daughter, Elizabeth, spent the holiday week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bell. Mr. Dav'el Holcomb, of the State Normal School, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Holcomb, on Gwynn Avenue. Elizabeth Hendren, of Greensboro, is visiting her father, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hendren, in West Elkin. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hill, of the U. S. Army, spent the holidays here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hill, on Gwynn Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hill, of the U. S. Army, spent the holidays here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hill, on Gwynn Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Albrockley and children spent last week-end with relatives at Lenoir, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bush and little twin daughters, spent Christmas week with relatives and friends at Lenoir, N. C. Mr. Leonard Pearson, of Lexington, arrived a few days ago to spend some time with his uncle, Mr. Hobbs Dorsett, and family. Mr. H. G. Blackburn, of Doughton, sent to our office this week a half dozen apples of a second growth this year from one tree. Miss Edith Etridge, of Winston-Salem, spent several days in Jonesville last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Etridge. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Eskridge, of Snow Hill, are the guests of Mr. Eskridge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Eskridge, in Jonesville. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Whitaker, of Winston-Salem, spent several days here last week with Mr. W. W. Whitaker and family, on Church street. Messrs. Worth Graham, of New York, and French Graham, of the U. S. Navy, spent Christmas week here with their mother and brothers. On Monday, December 23rd, 1918, Mr. T. C. Atkins and Mrs. Ella Spencer were married at State Road. Rev. H. W. Wolfborn officiating. Private O. P. Walls, of the hospital corps, at Camp Jackson, S. C., is spending a twelve days' furlough here with his parents and friends. Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McLaughlin and little daughter, Ruth, of Winston-Salem, spent a few days with friends here during the past week. Mr. Charlie Castevens, recently discharged from the army, is spending a few days here with his sister, Mrs. J. H. Allen, on Church street. Private Walter Mabe, a discharged soldier from Camp Jackson, spent Monday night here on his way home in Alleghany county. Messrs. A. I. and Wm. Brown left last week for Knoxville, Tenn. where they are spending a few days with their brother, Mr. Richard Brown. Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Womble, of Mount Airy, spent the week-end here the guests of Rev. and Mrs. Brinkman, at the parsonage on Market street. Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Miller and little daughters, Dorothy and Virginia, of Statesville, spent Christmas here with Mr. and Mrs. K. F. McNeer. Mrs. J. B. Bivens and Misses Martha Chatham and Sada Franklin attended the funeral of Mrs. R. W. Reese, at Mount Airy last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ross, of Jacksonville, Fla., spent last week here with Mrs. Ross's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Poindexter, in West Elkin. Miss Mattie Bell, of Winston-Salem, who is engaged in hospital army work at Norfolk, Va., spent a few days here last week with Miss Effie Crater. Mr. Ben McEachern, of Rowland, came up last week to spend a few days with Mrs. McEachern, who is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bell. Attorney and Mrs. H. H. Barber and children returned Sunday from Charlotte and Matthews where they spent a few days with relatives and friends. Mrs. R. B. Lewis and little daughter, Jean Gray, of Charlotte, spent the Christmas holidays here with her mother, Mrs. J. H. Greenwood, and family. Mrs. Frank Tharp and Mrs. N. P. Sharp of Monroe, and Mrs. Ma Dorman, of Greensboro, attended the funeral of Mrs. H. F. Gray here last week. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Greenwood, of Winston-Salem, spent Christmas week here with Mrs. Greenwood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Bodenheimer, in West Elkin. We desire to call the attention of our readers, and young men especially, to the ad. of our State University, located at Chapel Hill, which appears on another page. There are several young men of Elkin now attending the University, and we hope to see more of them in the future.

Private Sam Martin, of the U. S. Navy, had an eight days' Christmas furlough, which he spent with his mother and family in Yadkin county, and friends in Elkin. The Woman's Missionary Society, of the Methodist church, will meet with Mrs. J. S. Roth Friday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. All members are urged to be present. Lieutenant and Mrs. Sterling Kelly, of Mocksville, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Lillard. Lieutenant Kelly was recently honorably discharged from service. Mrs. Carl Evans and little daughter, Carline, arrived here Sunday to spend the Xmas holidays with Mrs. Evans' parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Jester, one mile east of Jonesville. Misses Ohns and Louise Harris returned to Greensboro Tuesday to resume their school duties at the Woman's College, after spending the past week here with home folks and friends. On Wednesday, January 1st, at the Methodist parsonage, Miss Bertha Gilliam, of Elkin, and Mr. Claud Ray, of State Road, were happily united in marriage, Rev. G. C. Brinkman, officiating. Lieutenant H. A. Bivens, of the U. S. Aviation service, stationed at "Carlstrom Field," Arcadia, Fla., spent a ten days' furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bivens, in West Elkin during the Christmas holidays. Mr. J. B. Bivens spent Christmas week here with his family on Harry Avenue, West Elkin. He is now a traveling salesman for the South-Country Hardware Co., of Richmond, Va. Miss Mattie Paul, who is teaching near Southport, and Miss Willie Paul, a student at Eastern Carolina Training School, Greenville, spent the holiday season here with their mother and sisters. Lieut. Leo Hampton, of the U. S. Navy, spent several days with friends here during the past week. He is assistant paymaster on one of the transports plying between New York and France and has made several trips across the Atlantic. Mr. S. J. Atkinson and son, Kemp, of Siloson, Mr. Max Butler, of Pinnacle, and Mr. W. G. Miller, of Spartanburg, S. C., spent Monday night and Tuesday here with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Atkinson, at their home in West Elkin. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Aldridge, after spending Christmas here with Mrs. Aldridge's mother at the Hotel Myrtle, left last Saturday for their home at Greensboro. Mr. Aldridge was recently honorably discharged from the naval service. Private Munsey Alexander spent a few days here last week with his sister, Mrs. Phoeby Norman on Gwynn Avenue. He is a member of the Aviation Corps, stationed at Montgomery, Alabama.

Mr. J. B. Bivens spent Christmas week here with his family on Harry Avenue, West Elkin. He is now a traveling salesman for the South-Country Hardware Co., of Richmond, Va. Miss Mattie Paul, who is teaching near Southport, and Miss Willie Paul, a student at Eastern Carolina Training School, Greenville, spent the holiday season here with their mother and sisters. Lieut. Leo Hampton, of the U. S. Navy, spent several days with friends here during the past week. He is assistant paymaster on one of the transports plying between New York and France and has made several trips across the Atlantic. Mr. S. J. Atkinson and son, Kemp, of Siloson, Mr. Max Butler, of Pinnacle, and Mr. W. G. Miller, of Spartanburg, S. C., spent Monday night and Tuesday here with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Atkinson, at their home in West Elkin. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Aldridge, after spending Christmas here with Mrs. Aldridge's mother at the Hotel Myrtle, left last Saturday for their home at Greensboro. Mr. Aldridge was recently honorably discharged from the naval service. Private Munsey Alexander spent a few days here last week with his sister, Mrs. Phoeby Norman on Gwynn Avenue. He is a member of the Aviation Corps, stationed at Montgomery, Alabama.

End Epidemics by 'Catching in Time' the Infection. Colds, Coughs, Pneumonia, Sore Throat, LaGrippe Succumb Rapidly When BRAME'S VAPOMENTHA SALVE is applied to the throat, chest and nostrils. It breaks up congestion, is stimulating and antiseptic, gives instant relief. Will not stain the clothes. Recognized by physicians and druggists as the most effective. For sale at Druggists, 25c, 50c and $1.00 or sent prepaid by BRAME MEDICINE CO., 1005 WILKINSON, N. C.

We Appreciate the Business Given Us in 1919. May Our Future Efforts Merit More of Your Future Business. Turner's Drug Store

Greeting We wish to thank the people for their patronage during the past year, which has been the greatest year in our history, and kindly solicit a continuance of your valuable business during the year 1919! We will endeavor to serve you to the best of our ability. Announcement In this connection we wish to say that it is very difficult to run book accounts in a 5 and 10c Store, and, in addition, hard to get clerical help, and for these reasons we have decided not to run accounts with anybody during the coming year. We believe this will be best for all.

SOMERS & CO'S. 5-10 to 99c Store

Customers and Friends Let us thank you for the nice business you have given us the past year, and wish for everyone a Happy New Year The storm of war is over. The skies have cleared. We face today the rainbow year of the centuries. A year that promises to bring to all people everywhere that Liberty, Peace and Prosperity for which we have fought and prayed, for this let us give our thanks. Yours for business, Surry Hardware Co. By J. R. POINDEXTER

A Happy and Prosperous NEW YEAR To My Friends and Customers

You have made 1918 the best year of my business career, for which I thank you, and I feel that I have merited at least a share of your patronage during the year 1919. We are in better position than ever to serve the public in a high class, dependable line of merchandise, and we trust that you will favor us with your business in the future.

Come to See Us whether U Buy or Don't Buy S. H. Wilms