FARMERS—BUY BONDS

Farmers have been told so often that they are the backbone of the nation's prosperity that they sometimes grow tired of hearing the phrase repeated. But this year the words have more than ordinary significance. It costs money to raise and transport the produce of American fields and farms. The farmer made money, he received higher prices for his crops than had ever been paid before in the history of the country. It is true, that the war has been gloriously ended. But the job had not been done. When the American puts his hand to the plow he does not look back. When he puts his name on a note he makes good. It is the American way. And nobody doubts that the American people will make good on the Victory Liberty Loan. In entering the war they put their name to a promissory note to their government which is about to fall due. These words are just a reminder of obligations. The farmer has prospered, in some cases even beyond his dreams. And prosperity is coming to him in the future in even greater measure. The world must come to America for food. The war is over, but the job is not. America will finish it in true American 100 per cent style.

The reception held at the Occidental Cafe last Thursday night under the auspices of the Retail Merchants Association was one of the most entertaining and agreeable get together occasions that our business men have enjoyed in a long time. Spreads had been laid for seventy-five and nearly every seat was taken. Mr. W. S. Reich, president of the Association, was the presiding genius and Mr. J. S. Atkinson acted as toast master. These gentlemen performed well their parts and made every one feel glad that they were present. After welcoming the guests, the president explained that the object of the meeting was to get together the business men and others interested in the growth and welfare of the town to exchange ideas, and suggest plans etc., for the best interests of the town and people. Rev. G. C. Brinkman invoked the blessing of Deity upon the occasion and the assembled guests. A five course luncheon had been prepared, consisting of Soups, Vegetables and meats, Fruit Salad, ice cream and cake and cigars. Following the first course, Dr. J. W. Ring made an interesting talk on Elkins' past history, going back 75 or 80 years ago when the first foundation of the town was laid and following on up to the present. J. S. Bell was next called and in a few brief sentences reviewed the growth of the town during the past 50 years when it had only a cotton mill and one small store and where Main street with its massive brick business blocks lining each side was then only a common cart way used for the convenience of the neighborhood. Mr. Frank Gray then spoke a few words along the same line and closed with the slogan "Watch Elkin Grow." These three having lived here continuously for the past 50 years and identified with the town made their remarks especially interesting to those who have cast their lots here in later years. Messrs. G. T. Roth, Prof. Z. H. Dixon, A. G. Click and several others were called and in their responses after reviewing present conditions set forth some splendid suggestions which will prove of great benefit to the town if put into practice. Mr. J. Frank Morris, of Winston-Salem, and Mr. J. Paul Leonard, of Statesville, who are President and Secretary, respectively, of the State Merchants Association, were present and addressed the meeting. Their addresses were principally intended for the members of the local Association here and embodied such suggestions and advice as would be of great benefit to it and they proved full of interest to everybody present. The Association then proceeded to elect officers for the ensuing year which resulted in the election of J. G. Abernethy for President and H. P. Graham as Secretary. A number of new names were added to the membership roll. By this time the hands on the clock pointed to "Low Twelve," when adjournment was in order and all wended homeward, with the hope that we might meet again in another social gathering as we labor co-operatively for our goal, "A Greater Elkin."

We have on our table a copy of an address made by Mr. Numa R. Reid of Rockingham county before Liberty Council No. 3, of Jr. O. U. A. M. on Memorial day which is a gem of purest ray and filled with touching pathos as he dwelt upon the virtues of the departed brothers and the ties of love and friendship that bind all loyal Juniors together. Seven members of this Council had "Crossed the bar" during 1918 and the Council had met together on this beautiful sabbath afternoon to hold a service in their memory. His subject was "Our Deathless Dead" and he paid a glowing tribute to the Seven loyal, faithful Juniors who have fallen asleep. We would like to print the address in full for the benefit of our Junior friends of Elkin Council but haven't the space to permit our doing so. We do not know how many members of Elkin Council have died during the past year but we would suggest that it would be a fitting tribute to them if the Council would hold a memorial service in their behalf. During the past year sorrow and grief have been so universal. War and pestilence have driven us, let us hope closer to the Cross, and it is in times of sorrow, stress and storm the Junior Order points you to the sacred Word of God.

MEETING OF THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Mrs. R. L. Hubbard was the popular hostess to the Woman's Missionary Society of Elkin M. E. Church on Monday afternoon, April 7th. The afternoon was beautiful, and it was known that echoes from the annual conference were to be heard, consequently there was an unusually large attendance. The Society now enrolls forty members, and thirty-one members were present. Mrs. Mason Lillard, the President, conducted the meeting. The Bible lesson being "The Life of Prayer and Life of Devotion." The regular routine of business was transacted. Mrs. Abernethy was welcomed as a new member. The treasurer, Mrs. R. H. Chatham, gave a fine report. $173.10 had been paid by the Society during the first quarter of the year. The $120.00 for the support of our Bible woman in China has been paid in full for the year. Mesdames G. C. Brinkman, A. M. Smith and S. H. Wilmoth, who attended the annual conference which met in High Point in March, gave interesting accounts of this wonderful meeting. Those of us who have attended these conferences in previous years, know what a feast they had and these fresh echoes make us long to attend each and every conference. Next year the conference meets in Morganton. I shouldn't wonder if there are not several volunteers from our auxiliary.

Bishop Darlington's address must have been inspiring to this great body of christian women. Mrs. Smith told of Bishop Darlington's great desire to be a missionary to Africa and of his reading the book, "Thinking Black," and of the beautiful song bird of Africa which seemed to say to him, "Star the Golden-crested Crane is Calling."

We are glad to note that great progress has been made along all lines during the past year. Surely this Centenary year for greater things will be accomplished in His name. The urgent plea is made for a greater prayer life among the women.

At a prayer special, the Society has adopted Dr. Fred P. Mangat, of Hanchow, China. He is the Missionary supported by Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Smith, of Elkin.

"Maude McNeer," our native Chinese Bible woman is also a prayer special. This interesting meeting was closed by singing "America" and prayer by Mrs. Brinkman.

NOTICE.

Raleigh, N. C. Mar. 10, 1919. To Whom it may concern: This is to certify that Mr. J. S. Bell of Elkin, North Carolina is a duly authorized representative of The Progressive Farmer. He is authorized to solicit and collect for both new and renewal subscriptions. This authority will expire July 1, 1919, but will be promptly renewed upon the request of Mr. Bell. Any courtesy or consideration you can show Mr. Bell will be appreciated by us. Very truly yours, THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER By B. V. Bend.

DEATHS

Mrs. Alice Nichols, aged 51 years, died at her home on Gwyn Avenue last Saturday at 9:15 A. M. She had been in declining health for nearly two years, and for the past three months had been confined to her room and bed. While her sufferings at times was intense, she bore them patiently, leaning on the everlasting arm of her Saviour for support. In early life she gave her heart to God and lived the life of an humble christian woman to the end. She leaves her aged mother, Mrs. S. J. Laffoon; two sisters, Mrs. J. B. Nichols, of Spray, and Mrs. Jennie Chatham of Elkin; two brothers, R. L. Laffoon, of Elkin, and Rev. W. J. Laffoon, of California and two sons, Messrs. H. G. and W. E. Nichols, of Elkin, to mourn the loss of one whose presence in the home as daughter and mother can never be replaced. The funeral was held in the home Sunday at 2 P. M., conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. S. Norville, and interment was in Hollywood cemetery in the presence of a large assemblage of sorrowing friends and neighbors. The pallbearers were Messrs. A. G. Click, W. A. Neaves, H. P. Graham, A. W. George, W. J. Snow and J. G. Abernethy.

Miss Myrtle Hickerson, aged 67 years, died at her home on Gwyn Avenue last Thursday morning at 6:30 o'clock. She had been in feeble health for quite a while, and a week ago she was stricken with double pneumonia, which, in her feeble condition, found her an easy prey. Soon after the death of her father, Major Hickerson, at Ronda, she moved to Elkin where she has since made her home. She was a faithful and consecrated member of the Episcopal church and her greatest pleasure was in doing her Master's will and making others around her happy. Her remains were taken to Ronda on the noon train Friday where the funeral was held, being conducted by Rev. J. D. C. Wilson, of Wilkesboro, and interment was made in the family cemetery at 3 o'clock, P. M. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Alex. Chatham, Sr., of Elkin, and Mrs. M. A. Parks, of Oklahoma, and two brothers, Mr. R. G. Hickerson, of Ronda, and Mr. Lytle Hickerson, of Batesville, Ark.

Mrs. Newton Combs, aged 66 years, died Saturday morning at 6:30 o'clock at her home in Bryan township, after a lingering illness with cancer of the stomach. Funeral and burial services were held at Union Hill church, Monday, at 12 o'clock, M. Four sons survive her.

BETHEL NEWS
Ronda Route 2, March 7—The farmers of this section are very busy these warm spring days getting ready to plant corn. The Sunday School is doing nicely at this place. Every body seems to be taking a great interest and there is a good attendance. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gilliam received a telegram last week from their son, J. Paul, who has been over sea for some time saying he had arrived all safely in the good old U. S. A. again. They are expecting him home in a few days. It makes us all feel good to see the boys come back home. Private John F. Driver, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Driver, arrived home last Tuesday from France. Mrs. —, —, Bryant, of Trap-hill, is the pleasant guest of her daughter, Mrs. N. E. Burchette. Mrs. J. W. Gilliam, who has been confined to her room for quite a while, does not seem to improve very much we are sorry to state. Mrs. Mary Pardue, is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. M. F. Bumgarner at Miller's Creek. Miss Mary Belle Gilliam returned home yesterday after spending a week with her sister Mrs. W. A. Stroud at Wilkesboro.

THE RESULTS VERY WONDERFUL.

Wilmington Man Claims Dreco, The New Herbal Remedy, Did Him Much Good.

Just because you are not incapacitated from your business or pleasure, the warning of stomach trouble should not go unheeded, or serious results are bound to follow. These warnings take the form of dyspepsia, indigestion, dizziness, nervousness, constipation, headache, backache, pain in the back and side, that tired, rundown feeling and various other symptoms of a deranged stomach, which can be restored to its normal condition by Dreco, the great herbal compound. Under the influence of its great restorative effect, these symptoms rapidly subside. It clears up the liver, kidneys, bladder, and enables these organs to perform their proper functions; eliminates uric acid from the blood, which causes rheumatism, and brings back the flush of health to pale cheeks by enriching and purifying the blood. Mr. F. B. Futrell of 102 Orange St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I have been bothered with constipation, and stomach full of gas, indigestion and dyspepsia. I have taken Dreco and the results are wonderful; all my troubles are over and I feel fine again. I am glad to endorse this medicine." Dreco is sold by all good druggists throughout the country and is highly recommended in Elkin by Turner's Drug Store and Abernethy's Cash Pharmacy.
