PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS FEATURES CONVENTION

Mrs. Lucy H. Robertson, Of Greensboro, Opens Methodist Mission Meeting.

EXPECTING 300 DELEGATES

Morganton, May 5.—The address by the president, Mrs. Lucy H. Robertson, of Greensboro, featured the first session of the annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Society which opened here today. The Morganton Methodist church is hostess to the convention, which is the largest missionary society of the western North Carolina conference and second in the past only to the annual conference.

Delegates are arriving in every train and it is expected that by tomorrow the convention will have reached 300.

Following Mrs. Robertson's address last night, Mrs. H. A. Tomlinson, of Asheville, corresponding secretary, gave a most interesting report of the recent meeting of the general board in Raleigh City. Mrs. Tomlinson will make report of her work as secretary of the board at the annual meeting of the conference at which Mrs. Robertson will be present. Mrs. Tomlinson is the wife of the editor of the Asheville paper, Mrs. W. H. Harris, of Asheville.

Reports from the district associations will be given by the district secretaries and at eight P. M. Mrs. W. H. Harris, of Asheville, will make an address on the world's work and responsibility. The convention will continue through Friday and Friday evening with an adjournment at the hotel for the first of Friday afternoon.
