On The Wing.

Leaving Elkin Monday morning, June 21st on a two weeks vacation, evening found us in the beautiful city of Charlotte, the Queen city of North Carolina.

Gastonia is a beautiful town, with wide streets, handsome buildings and more than forty cotton mills inside the town limits, and forty more in the county.

We spent Friday and Saturday with friends and relatives in Charlotte and made a tour over a part of the city, but felt like a stranger in a strange land.

Concord was our next stop-over and here like Charlotte we found a wonderful change had taken place within the past half century.

On Friday at noon, after a 12 day's ramble, we again set foot in Elkin, glad to be once more at home, a sweet home.

Automobile accidents. Are we not getting a little caloused to the seriousness of the automobile hazard?

Remember that you are in danger at all times in being associated with a person sick with typhoid fever.

Dr. E. G. Click, Dr. R. B. Harrell, Dentists. Office Over S. H. Wilburn's Store, ELKIN, N. C.

Resolutions of Respect. We as a body of the United Methodist church, submit the following resolutions of respect to our beloved brother, John Wellborn, son of sister, Ida Park and Tina Henry.

Resolved, 1st. That the church and neighborhood has sustained a great loss, one of its strongest pillars in the death of Bro. Wellborn.

Resolved, 2nd. That the church and neighborhood has sustained a great loss, one of its most precious jewels, while sister Gentry's death cast a shadow over our church and Sunday school.

Resolved, 3rd. That the church has lost one of its most devoted christian workers in the death of sister Park, and that her good christian spirit will be greatly missed in the church.

Resolved, 4th. That by the death of our brother and sister the church, Sunday school and community has sustained a great loss.

Resolved, 5th. That while it is with sad hearts that we bow our heads in humble submission to Him that doth all things well and pray God that we all will meet on that great celestial shore where parting comes no more.

Resolved, 6th. That we extend to the bereaved families our deepest sympathy in this sad hour of bereavement, and that a copy of these resolutions be spread on our church record, one sent to each of the bereaved families, and one sent to The Elkin Tribune for publication.
