PEARL JOHNSON CIRCLE HEARS MISS DIXON TALK

The Pearl Johnson Circle of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt Tuesday evening, with Mrs. John Park as associate hostess. The usual business was dispensed with on account of the society having as their guest Miss Alice Dixon, who recently returned from the Orient. Miss Dixon gave a very interesting talk on her trip, and told of the habits and customs of both the Chinese and Japanese, this was in keeping with the new mission study book for the year, "Christianity, China's Creation."

One new member, Mrs. Coy Bates, was enrolled, and two visitors were present, Miss Alice Dixon and Miss Maria Baird. The hostesses served individual heart shaped, decorated cakes with an ice course.

MUCH ACTIVITY AT COUNTY SEAT

er Dobson to Mrs. Malissa Reece, White Plains; Earnest Moore, Jonesville, to Dacie Pardue, Elkin.

Hunting seasons regulated under the State laws are rapidly drawing to a close in all parts of the state with some of the sectional seasons already closed. The shooting of quail and rabbits will end for the season on February 15th. The squirrel season has already closed, the season closing in Western N. C. Jan. 1st. The current hunting season, according to reports received by state game warden C. H. England, has been generally the most satisfactory experienced in N. C. in many years. Game of various kinds in this county has been more abundant than for many years.

A wedding of more than usual interest to this community occurred Thursday when Mrs. Malissa Reece of White Plains became the bride of D. N. Crowder of Dobson. The marriage ceremony was performed by W. W. Hampton, Justice of the Peace. Mrs. Crowder is 70 years of age while Mr. Crowder is 79 years of age. Their many friends wish them a happy and prosperous married life.

Think It Over!

THE MARRIED MAN:
Supposing your salary gives you, and your family a comfortable living and a few dollars extra (most any man can have a few dollars extra, if he TRYs) you spend the extra ones foolishly, you get sick, your income stops, and the first thing you know your family is HUNGRY. "If I had deposited the extra dollars."
THINK IT OVER.

THE SINGLE MAN:
FREE! To spend, plenty of money, money to throw at the birds. But your income stops coming in. Broke without a dollar in the bank. THINK IT OVER.
