METHODIST MISSIONARY CIRCLES MEET FRIDAY

The Circles of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met Friday afternoon in the following homes:

Circle No. 1 with Mrs. R. B. Harrell, with eleven members present. The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. Herbert Graham and Mrs. G. T. Roth conducted the mission study.

Circle No. 2 met with Mrs. J. L. Hall, with fifteen members present. The meeting opened with the song "Send the Light," followed by a reading on prayer by Mrs. Fred Colhard. A special song "Evening Prayer" was also sung by Mrs. Colhard. The Bible study was conducted by Mrs. Hall.

One new member, Mrs. Carl Lambeth was enrolled. Circle No. 3 met with Carl Poindexter, with Mrs. James Poindexter as associate hostess with fifteen members present. Mrs. R. L. Harris conducted the devotionals. This was followed by a program on the "Week of Prayer." Mrs. A. M. Smith conducted the mission study.

A social hour was enjoyed immediately following each program and each hostess served refreshments.

MRS. FRED COLHARD IS BOOK CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. Fred Colhard was hostess to her Book club and several additional guests at her home on Church street Wednesday afternoon. The lovely home was attractively decorated with early spring blossoms, including jon-quils and forsythia. A round table discussion of current events and the exchange of books filled the business hour. During the social hour a contest was enjoyed. Mrs. W. R. Welborn was the winner of the club prize.

A beautifully appointed salad course supplemented with sweets was served by the hostess assisted by her daughter, Miss Dorothy.

The guests were Mrs. E. E. Brown, Miss Effie Crater, Mrs. Richard Chatham, Mrs. Charles Armfield and Mrs. W. J. Thurman. Club members were Mrs. J. G. Abernethy, Mrs. J. L. Hall, Mrs. French Graham, Mrs. W. E. Jones, Mrs. G. P. Dockery, Mrs. W. R. Welborn, Mrs. E. C. Brier, Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, Mrs. Ivan Johnson, Mrs. Mason Lillard and Mrs. Harry Barker.

LITTLE BETTY ARMFIELD IS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Honoring little Miss Betty Armfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Armfield on the occasion of her eighth birthday, Miss Ophelia Paul entertained at a pretty birthday party at the home of Dr. J. W. Ring on Terrace avenue Thursday afternoon.

Decorations suggestive of St. Patrick's Day were used throughout the home and further accentuated in the favors, which were small baskets, each having a shamrock leaf on the side, filled with white and green mints. The central decoration in the dining room was a huge birthday cake with eight lighted candles. Ices and cake were served to the guests after several interesting games and contests. Vista Lee Johnson and Dicky Shugart were each awarded fancy paper hats for the skill in the contests.

The guests were Sarah Reich, Margaret Abernethy, Mary Crater, Estaline Burcham, Rosamond Neaves, Mary Elizabeth Allen, Peggy Royall, Jimmy Harrell, Jimmy James, Dicky Shugart, Dicky Smith, Ray Harvison Smith, Vista Lee Johnson, Frances Hendren, Lucile and Frances Alexander, Jean Wooster, Fred Shores, Helen Finney, Wilda Mae Mathis, Bobby and Betty Gray Chatham, Blanche Myers and Jo and Jerry Barker.

The return to fashion of the separate skirt should be cause of satisfaction to women who have to make the most of a slim allowance. I do not mean to indicate that a good looking separate skirt and a separate blouse may be bought or made at home for any less than an equally good looking one-piece dress. But it is true that one good looking ready-made skirt may be worn with two home-made blouses to fill needs in the wardrobe at a surprisingly small outlay. Or one may make the skirt and buy the blouses, if that seems a more satisfactory arrangement. Then there are advantages to the woman who has difficulty in getting satisfactorily proportioned one-piece dresses—the woman whose hips are disproportionately large or small.

In lieu of a jacket suit for late winter or spring wear there are all sorts of ways of combining the separate skirt with a separate jacket of some sort, at reasonable cost. One may combine a tweed skirt with hip-length leather coat for cool days or for sports wear, and the same skirt may be worn with a jersey cardigan when a lighter weight wrap is desired.

In the costume illustrated, an orange colored jersey blouse was chosen to wear with this skirt, separate, brown tweed skirt, showing the new hip yoke and flaring gored.

Frozen Pudding

A frozen pudding, or some other elaborate frozen dessert is not difficult of worthy any guest. These concoctions are not difficult of little ingenuity, plus the ingredients called for, to put them through.

Baked Beef Hash

Put two tablespoons of butter in frying pan and add one-half onion sliced thin, and fry to a golden brown. Add one cup of milk and two ounces of bread. Now add two cups of finely ground cold cooked beef, one teaspoon of curry powder, three eggs and a little sauce. Mix

Half-cup of rice, one pint of milk, one quart of cream, two cups of sugar, yolks of six eggs, one table-spoon of vanilla. Rub the rice well in a clean towel, put it on to boil in one pint of cold water, boil a half-hour; drain over with the milk, and boil a half-hour longer. While this is boiling, whip the cream. After you have whipped all you can, add the remainder, and what has drained from the other, to the rice and milk. Stand the whipped cream in a cold place until wanted. Now press the rice through a wire sieve, and return it to the farina boiler in which it was boiled. Beat the yolks and sugar together until light, then pour over the gelled rice, stir well, return again to the fire, and cook two minutes, or until it begins to thicken. Take from the fire, add the vanilla, and turn out to cool. When cold, put into the freezer and freeze. When frozen, stir in the whipped cream, remove the dasher and smooth down the pudding, repack and stand aside for two hours.

The Biggest $58 Worth Radio Has Ever Known

For a hundred dollars, most anywhere—a passable-looking radio.

For a hundred and fifty-eight, at our store—a SILVER—just fifty-eight dollars difference—and what a difference it makes—for months or years to come!

For the hundred—the novelty of a "new radio"—then, most likely—"I don't understand what he's saying"—"Can't you tune out that other station that's messing it up?"—"No, we never get that program on our radio—it's only a Dumpedset, you know?"—"Oh, mother, the radio won't work; shall I call the service man?"—"Oh, no, we don't listen to the radio much any more"—(but why go on?)

And for the hundred and fifty-eight—first the uncanny sensation of new "real voices" in your home—then the gay brilliance of dance music that sparkles and scintillates—the thrill of "riding the ether waves" from city to city at will—the proud confidence that you can play clearly for your guests any station that can be brought in on any set—and finally the habit—"why go out to a show tonight at all—you can't beat the show we get right here at home."

And all that difference—because you own the finest product of America's Oldest Maker of Screen-Grid Radios!

See us—see, hear, and tune the new SILVER—then decide if you can afford to buy or own any other!
