MASON LILLARD CLASS MEETS WITH MRS. GRAHAM

The Mason Lillard Bible class held its regular business-social meeting at the home of Mrs. French Graham Monday evening, with eleven members present. After a brief business session a most interesting St. Patrick's Day program was featured. Mrs. Joe Bivens read a brief history of St. Patrick. This was followed by an interesting contest. The home was decorated with early spring blossoms and green candles in silver holders. Delicious refreshments, in which the St. Patrick's idea was further accentuated were served by the hostess.

GENERAL MEETING OF BAPTIST CIRCLES

The general meeting of all the circles of the Woman's Missionary society of the Baptist church met at the church Friday afternoon.

The Lou Bray circle was in charge of the program and the subject was "Beyond the City." The program opened with the song "Faith of our Fathers," which was followed by the devotionals conducted by Mrs. T. G. Harris. A paper "Our Debt to the Country Church" was read by Mrs. Ida Cockerham and Mrs. Lela Weir read "Changes Affecting Rural Church Life." This was followed by a questionnaire by Mrs. T. V. Cockerham which was responded to by Mesdames W. W. Byrd and T. G. Harris.

During the brief business hour which was presided over by the circle leader, Mrs. Ida Cockerham it was decided that the executive committee of the society meet at the home of Mrs. Cockerham Friday afternoon.

MRS. RUOHS PYRON BRIDGE CLUB HOSTESS

One of the loveliest club meetings of the week was Thursday when Mrs. Ruohs Pyron was hostess to her bridge club and two additional guests at her home at Klondike Farm. The guests were invited for one o'clock and a beautifully appointed luncheon was served. The St. Patrick's Day idea prevailed throughout the home and in the course luncheon was played at two tables, one of contract and one of auction. After several interesting progressions scores were counted and the auction high score fell to Mrs. A. O. Bryan and contract to Mrs. E. C. Grier.

Those enjoying Mrs. Pyron's hospitality were Mesdames James Poindexter, Jack Wooster, E. C. Grier, Eugent Spainhour, A. O. Bryan, Herbert Stevens of Highland Park, Ill., and Miss Maude Greenwood.

MR. AND MRS. C. F. LINEBERRY ENTERTAIN WITH DANCE

The outstanding social affair of the week was the lovely dance given by Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lineberry and Miss Bertelle Lineberry at Hotel Elkin Saturday evening. The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. H. L. Brande of Bloomington, Ill., Mrs. E. H. Wooster of Sterling, Ill., and shown to the ballroom where they were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Lineberry. The ballroom was a scene of loveliness the windows were banked with fern and jonquils and the shaded lights were festooned with vari-colored balloons. Punch and sandwiches were served from a table covered with St. Patrick colors, by Misses Bessie Lee Wellborn and Edith Neaves. About forty couples attended the dance.

METHODIST MISSIONARY CIRCLES TO MEET

The general meeting of all the circles of the Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet at the church Friday afternoon at 3:30. The program will be on Social Service and will be in charge of Mrs. W. W. Whitaker. All members are urged to attend.

the new Kelvinator is here!

A Special Offer!

Celebrating the arrival of the striking and altogether wonderful new models of Kelvinator, the Southern Public Utilities Company is making a special offer to all customers on its lines who are not already using a Kelvinator. The small cash payment and the long terms, which are among the features of our special offer, make it possible now for almost any housewife to enjoy the advantages and economies that come through the use of this wonderful appliance.

The new Kelvinator is absolutely the last word in electric refrigeration. It maintains four distinct temperatures, each independent of the other, to meet the various refrigerator needs in your home—quick freezing, normal freezing, cold storage, and food storage. These features place the Kelvinator in a class by itself as an electric refrigerator.

In addition to all of its conveniences and other godd points the Kelvinator is most economical. It gives you not only PERFECT refrigeration, but it will SAVE YOU MONEY on your refrigeration and food. As a matter of fact a Kelvinator is all but indispensable in the modern, well-managed home.

Every housewife owes it to herself to at least investigate and determine for herself what a Kelvinator would mean in her home, and at the same time learn how easy it is to own one. You are not only invited, but urged to visit our store and see the various models which we have on display. Such a visit will place you under absolutely no obligation to buy—we shall be delighted to have you call.
