SURRY G. O. P. HAS CONVENTION TO SELECT DELEGATES

MUCH POLITICAL TALK AT MEETING SATURDAY AT DOBSON

HATS IN READINESS

S. O. Maguire, Frank Whitaker and R. L. Lovelace May Toss Derbies in Ring

"Pointing with pride" to the Republican achievements and "viewing with alarm" the Democratic action, the Surry county G. O. P. convention went off smoothly at Dobson last Saturday afternoon with a good attendance on hand. C. B. Franklin of this city, made a further plea that taxes be reduced as he had done in the township convention here and the essence of his speech seemed to be taken as a party keynote.

The convention picked delegates to the district meet at Greensboro Thursday and to the state convention Friday at Charlotte, the Elkin township delegates being selected as follows: Attorney Frank Whitaker, J. F. Carter, Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, J. G. Ray and S. O. Maguire with the following alternates: R. L. Lovelace, L. F. Walker, Mrs. David Gough, W. M. Dickerson, and Mrs. S. O. Maguire.

Political hats were all but tossed in the ring at the session and it was heard that S. O. Maguire of this city will probably toss his derby into the ring as a candidate for clerk of the court while there was also a great deal of talk to the effect that Attorney Frank H. Whitaker, also of this city was slated to get the nomination for representative to the state legislature. R. L. Lovelace also was talked of as a possible candidate, possibly as a candidate against Mr. Maguire for clerk of the court but Mr. Lovelace remains non-committal.

A snag was struck at the meeting when R. T. Joyce, of Stokes who represented the two counties in the state senate during the last session of the legislature, appeared and asked that he be sent back to the senate in spite of the age-old custom of giving the office to a Stokes man one term and then alternate the next term with a Surry man. Senator Joyce claims he has some unfinished bills he desires to get passed into laws and wishes to go back to Raleigh to push his pet measures. Although no actions were taken to his wishes, they were received coldly because the Surry Republicans had their hearts set on sending W. E. Linville of Mt. Airy to the senate.

There was also some talk that Dr. H. Bernard, of Pilot Mountain, who represented this county in the lower house at Raleigh last year, might throw his hat into the three-cornered race thus muss up the whole situation. It was pointed out that if both Surry men come out for senator, the Surry vote would be divided and Joyce run away with the election if his county stood behind him.

Attorney W. M. Jackson was unanimously re-elected as county chairman for the next two years in spite of the fact that Mr. Jackson seemed inclined to see some one else at the steering wheel. The convention failed to instruct the delegates to vote for Duncan of Greensboro, as state chairman and left the delegates free to vote for whom they please.

W. W. Hampton, veteran wheel horse of the party presided at the session Saturday and blamed the present "hard times or Hoover prosperity" on the Democrats alinged with a few insurgent Republicans and called attention to the fact that the failure to pass the present tariff bill a year earlier had brought about a stagnation in business.

The present permanent convention organization, was composed of Mr. Hampton and Mrs. S. O. Maguire and R. A. Inman as secretaries. Speakers during the meeting were S. O. Maguire, R. L. Lovelace, Berne Franklin of this city and Vestal Taylor, Dr. H. Bernard and A. E. Tilley.

MRS FRANK WHITAKER HOSTESS TO CLUB

Mrs. Frank Whitaker was hostess at one of the prettiest club meetings of the week when she entertained her Study Club at her home on Circle Court Wednesday afternoon. The lovely home was decorated with apple blossoms and tulips. A very interesting program, under the direction of Mrs. John Akins was given, the subject being, "Artists and Poets." Papers were read by Mesdames Akins, Fletcher Harris, Mrs. Marion Allen and Fred Neaves.

During the afternoon a handsomely appointed salad course was served.

HOTTEST APRIL DA YON RECORD MERCURY UP TO 94

J. H. THARPE WHO KEEPS TAB ON WEATHER, REMARKS ABOUT BREAK OF SEASON

Last Saturday was perhaps the hottest April day in the memory since August 1928, according to any person in Elkin and perhaps hotter than at any time Mr. J. H. Tharpe, who has been a close observer of the weather in this community for the past forty years. The thermometer at Mr. Tharpe's home on last Saturday noon registered just 94 degrees. The same thermometer which is on the back porch of his home, did not go above 92 any time last year.

The torrid period of the last week seems to be general over the whole country, especially in the mid-west where mid-summer temperatures seemed to be general.

Older residents have remarked that they have never seen a year when the trees and vegetation came out so fast as they did the last few days. According to Mr. Tharpe, who made a trip to Harmony last Thursday the trees there seemed to be about four but upon returning home and in days ahead of the trees here, vestigating vegetation here he figured the trees here were in bloom equal to the trees there the day before. Thus he figures that spring shrubbery and vegetation is coming out four days faster than usual because he reckons that trees on the south side of the Brushy mountains are about four days ahead of those here in the spring.

WILL REBUILD BLUE RIDGE LODGE ON OLD SITE

FLAMES OF UNDETERMINED ORIGIN BURN BUILDING AND GUNS EARLY MONDAY

Fire of an undetermined origin early Monday morning completely destroyed the Blue Ridge Lodge, owned by James G. Hanes and James Weeks, of Winston-Salem. The loss was said to be around $20,000, partly covered by insurance.

Although it is believed by some that the lodge was struck by lightning, it will probably never be known just how the blaze started and was discovered by Roy Eldridge, a caretaker, about three o'clock. The lodge was located about three miles north of Elkin.

About $4,000 worth of guns were stored in the lodge and these were destroyed together with the buildings and furnishings. The owners plan to rebuild the place at once. They and their friends used it extensively for their hunting excursions in this vicinity.

Those attending from here were, Mesdames McNeer and Roy Harrell.

WYTHEVILLE AND ELKIN BUS LINE TO BE STARTED

TO MAKE ROUND TRIP DAILY; MARTIN AND DORSETT BUY CONTROL OF ELKIN-WINSTON LINE

Elkin now has bus service to Wytheville, Virginia and a schedule will be made this week whereby a round trip each day will be made between Elkin and the Virginia town, according to an announcement. The bus will probably leave Wytheville early in the morning and call at the intermediate points of Independence, Spasta and Roaring Gap arriving in Elkin somewhere around noon and will make the return trip in the afternoon.

Another announcement of interest to the bus line development in this section was made when it was stated that D. C. Martin and Robey Dorsett had purchased the controlling interest in the Elkin-Winston-Salem bus line and an improvement in the service is contemplated.
