APRIL TERM FOR CRIMINAL CASES COMES TO CLOSE
25 CASES WERE DISPOSED OF BUT 150 WERE CONTINUED UNTIL NEXT TERM
by H. C. Hampton
Dobson, N. C., May 5.—The April session of Surry Superior Court for the trial of criminal cases adjourned Wednesday after having cleared 125 cases from an unusually heavy docket. More than 150 cases were continued till the next term of criminal court which convenes at Dobson in October. The April term was to have been of two weeks duration but was adjourned three days early by Judge Michael Schenck to permit the attorneys to attend the State Bar association meeting held in Raleigh. None of the major cases were called at this session. Six murder and homicide cases were carried over and it is likely that a special term will be sought to clear the docket.
