

The Way of Life

by BRUCE BARTON

GIVING
A man met his lawyer, and said: "One of these days I shall want you to revise my will."
The lawyer nodded encouragingly. "When you drew it," the man continued, "I hadn't accumulated much. Naturally, I left everything to my family. Now I am better fixed. I'd like to provide for relatives, give to the men who have helped me make my money, and contribute to charities. There's no hurry about it, of course. In another ten years I ought to be considerably richer. The amounts I can give now are small in comparison with what I expect to do then."

The lawyer advised him to have the will rewritten that very day. "If you live ten years and prosper you can revise the figures upward," he said. "But suppose something should happen to you tomorrow. You would die leaving a selfish will."

Two very rich men have died in recent years, leaving very selfish wills. The great business of one of them is already dwindling. The men who manage it were given no share in it; their hearts are not in their work.

The other rich man, a bachelor,

Brazilian Beauty

Senhorita Yolanda Pereira of Rio de Janeiro, who was crowned "Miss Universe" in an international beauty contest in South America.

who paid small salaries but promised his younger associates that they would be "taken care of," left his millions to a museum. By those who do not know the facts it was hailed as a princely gift. It was no gift. Having trained every faculty to get, get, get, he simply could not give. He merely dodged the issue writing in the name of a museum which he had hardly even seen.

You say: "What has this to do with me? I am not a millionaire." The fact is that you, an average American, have more money today than you used to think you'd ever have. Are you giving any?

The muscles of the soul are like the muscles of the body. If you say, "Some day in the future I'll take physical exercise," you find, when the time comes, that you can't. The muscles have atrophied.

If you say, "Some day when I have more I will begin to give," you will never give. The habit requires cultivation.

We are about to have new standards in this country. Our days of worshipping wealth is past. Money no longer confers distinction; a millionaire is no more uncommon than an automobile, and not nearly so uncommon as a horse.

The givers will be the heroes of the future. And the time will come when those who merely get will be held up to scorn. And their children will hang their heads.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The George Gray Post of the American Legion, an organization composed of men who served in the armed forces of the United States during the World War, have seen fit to present to the people of Elkin and Jonesville and surrounding counties the moving picture, "THE WORLD WAR" at the Lyric theatre, Tuesday, October 21st. Afternoon and night.

WHEREAS, this picture re-enacts the outstanding events of that important period in the World's history, including America's participation in the World's greatest conflict for the preservation of civilization, and the promotion of justice and human liberty; now THEREFORE, I, M. A. Royall, Mayor of the town of Elkin, dedicate the 21st day of October, 1930, to be set apart to the memory of those who paid the supreme sacrifice, and those, living, who served our country during the trying days of the World War.

I call upon the people of the town of Elkin to support the American Legion in this commendable enterprise by attending at least one of the performances during this presentation in behalf of world happiness.

M. A. ROYALL,
Mayor.

AGED WOMAN DIES FOLLOWING A LINGERING ILLNESS

Funeral services were held from the Round Mountain church Monday morning for Mrs. Cella Johnson Felts, age 83, who passed away at her home Saturday, following a lingering illness due to the general infirmities of her advanced age.

Mrs. Felts united with the Covenant Baptist church in her early womanhood and later transferred her membership to the Round Mountain church when the church was constituted. She remained a consecrated Christian member there until her death. With her passing there passes the last one of the little group that was in the constitution of the Round Mountain church.

She was married to James Newton Felts, who died several years ago. Surviving are six children, Mrs. Almedia Myers, Mrs. Rhoda Roop, J. C. and Harrison Felts, of Hayes, Mrs. Ellen Wood, of North Wilkesboro, and R. E. Felts, of Jonesville.

The funeral was in charge of her pastor, Rev. James Harrold, assisted by Revs. Owen and Wood. Interment was in the church cemetery.

"What's the sixth sense?"
"That must be the one that's used for looking into the fourth dimension."

MARTIN'S, INC.

Mr. Raymond Adams is moving into his just completed new home in "Arlington," and Gus Foster having selected his lot and given contract for a six-room bungalow in "Arlington" shows you that you are making a mistake by putting off selecting your lot before it is too late to get the one you wanted.

Remember—In "Arlington" we have the National Highway running through, giving us our paved streets, but "no street assessments" and we have "SPU Electric" power and are living in an "incorporation" but do not have any town taxes. This is some of the reasons that four-fifths of the building in and around Elkin and Jonesville for the past two years has been in "Arlington," our new town.

For anything in real estate be sure to see us. Some good oak fire and stove wood for sale. Phone 195.
