TEMPERANCE SUN-DAY—SPIRITUAL WEAPONS IN A WORLD WAR Galatians 5:13-26

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D.

It is hard to find a new argument, for the liquor question has been before mankind from the earliest days. The family of Noah, for example had to face the shame and disgrace of a drunken father. Today no one undertakes to refute the facts that science presents when it is demonstrated that alcohol is a poison. These deadly reactions are always exact and clearly understood. Personal liberty is about the loudest argument that is presented in fence of the habit. Here our lessons text meets us and shows that Paul punctured that fallacy in his ly a display of farm products. The people have individual liberty but no one should do as he pleases to that the farmers of the State can the detriment of self or of society. grow and harvest a variety of pro-Real character makes one a servant mankind and therefore one must tion of the world.

If they would endeavor to walk in Grantham Community, of Wayne accord with the Holy Spirit they would at once cease to center their thinking in themselves and see that they might obtain for their own satisfaction. All were aware of the works of the flesh, yet Paul catalogues them. Nearly every one is incited or increased by the use of alcoholic beverages.

Then note Paul's contrast-even the cumulative fruit of the Spirit, that matures when people seek to do righteousness. This mastery is gained through the Spirit, and thus he had seen in 22 years of judging. men are free indeed to work out the best in their lives.

STATE FAIR EXHIBITS

SHOW FARM PRODUCTS

Again the North Carolina State Fair at Raleigh last week was largeletter to the Galatians. Of course fair presented a cross section of crop and livestock entries showing ducts second to no other similar sec

BEAUTIFUL and CHARMING! It's an added special quality that makes the beauty of a pretty girl. But she's a natural favorite to begin with. And for the same reason Camels are favorites with the modern crowd. Scientific principles govern their manufacture; but the mildness, the fragrance, the delicate flavor are natural qualities of the tobacco.

There's enjoyment in the smoking of a Camel. Camels go with happy faces . . . a lift of spirits with the opening of every fresh, fragrant pack. For Camel's delightful-mildness holds all the natural goodness of "over-treated" cigarettes.
