

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lawrence spent Tuesday in Greensboro.

Mr. Paul Gwyn is spending this week in Concord, on business.

Mr. DeLos Underwood, of Galax, Va., spent Friday afternoon in Elkin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bivins and son, Joe Gwyn, spent Sunday at Blowing Rock.

Mrs. B. E. Pulliam and Miss Bertelle Lineberry spent Saturday in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Carl Bumgarner, of North Wilkesboro, was a business visitor in Elkin Friday.

Miss Miriam Tuttle attended the Duke-Navy football game at Annapolis, Md., Saturday.

Mr. J. D. Roscoe, of Winston-Salem, spent the week-end in Elkin the guest of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Jennings, and son, Alan, of Statesville, spent Saturday afternoon in Elkin.

Mesdames Frank Whitaker, M. Q. Snow and Miss Grace Snow spent Friday in Winston-Salem.

Bub Price returned to his home in Jonesville Friday, after an extended stay in Kentucky.

Miss Sadie Franklin spent the week-end at North Wilkesboro, the guest of Mrs. A. W. Horton.

Mr. Martin Bennett, prominent real estate man of Mt. Airy, spent a few hours in Elkin last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Graham of Winston-Salem, spent the week-end here, at their home on Terrace Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young and Mrs. W. E. Bohannon spent Sunday at Gullford College, the guests of relatives.

Mrs. A. L. Scott, of Badin, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNeely, at their home on West Main street.

Mr. A. O. Bryan, proprietor of the Double Eagle Service Company, spent yesterday in Charlotte, on business.

Mrs. W. G. Lindsay and daughter, of Elkin, and Miss Flora Shaw, of Winston-Salem, are on a ten-days' motor trip to Norfolk, Va.

Mr. Willie Powell, of Blythewood, S. C., spent last week here with Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Jeffries at their home on Bridge street.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Woodruff motored to Mountain View last Sunday where they spent the day with their daughter, Mrs. Clyde Wright.

Mrs. H. L. Brande of Bloomington, Ill., is on an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. Jack Wooster and Mr. Wooster, at Hotel Elkin.

Mr. M. R. Bailey attended the funeral of his cousin, Miss Sarah Bailey, at Center church, near Mocksville, Monday of this week.

Mr. J. P. Ipock returned to his home here Sunday from Davis Hospital in Statesville, where he has been a patient for the past several days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson spent Thursday in Raleigh, the guests of their daughter, Miss Maie Johnson, who is a student at Meredith College.

Mrs. Magness Watts returned to her home in Taylorsville Tuesday, after spending the past week the guest of Mrs. C. L. Kerley in Jonesville.

Miss Ethel Gilliam left today for Long Beach, California, where she will spend the winter, the guest of her brother, John Gilliam and Mrs. Gilliam.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Poindexter and Mr. and Mrs. Avery Neaves spent Sunday at Sparta, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. McNeer at their summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Burchette and sons, of Winston-Salem, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Harris, at their home on West Main street Sunday.

John Reich, who is attending Gullford College at Gullford College, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Reich, at their home on Vine street.

Miss Pearl Johnson, who has been the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt at the Baptist pastorium for the past several days, left Saturday for Winston-Salem, where she will visit friends. Miss Johnson is on an extended furlough from the mission fields in China.

Harold Sale, who is a student at the University of North Carolina, spent the week-end here, the guest of his mother, Mrs. W. S. Sale, at her home on Bridge street.

Mrs. J. Lorraine, of Barium Springs, is spending several days here, the guest of Mrs. Fred McNeely and Mr. McNeely, at their home on West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Surratt and Mrs. H. M. Davis and three children, of Hillsville, Va., were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Walls, at their home on Front street.

Miss Maie Johnson, who is a student at Meredith College, Raleigh, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson at their home on Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Trivette, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday here, the guests of Mrs. Trivette's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Franklin at their home on West Main street.

Sam Maguire, who is a student at the University of North Carolina, spent the week-end here, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Maguire at their home on Gwyn Avenue.

Mrs. Robert Transou was taken to Davis Hospital, Statesville, this week, where she will take treatment. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery to health.

Misses Grace Cockerham and Elizabeth Walker, teachers in the city schools at Durham, spent the week-end here in the home of Miss Cockerham's father, Mr. J. N. Cockerham.

John Franklin, who is a student at North Carolina State College, at Raleigh, spent the week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Franklin, at their home on Gwyn Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Price spent yesterday in the city seeing old friends. Mr. and Mrs. Price were formerly residents of Elkin, and have a host of friends here who are always glad to have their visits.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Gwyn, of Lenoir, and Mr. and Mrs. Weathers, and son, of Wilmington, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Poindexter and Mr. T. L. Gwyn, at their home on Gwyn Avenue, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Hadley and children, Ruth and Charles, of Statesville, spent the week-end here, the guests of Mrs. Hadley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Snow, at their home on Gwyn Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Snow and Mrs. Hadley and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Fulton at their home in Walnut Cove.

Lieut. and Mrs. Albert Bivins and daughters, Barbara and June, of Dayton, Ohio, are spending two weeks here the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bivins, at their home on Surry Avenue.

Miss Margaret Harris spent the week-end in Roanoke, Va., the guest of Miss Anna Atkinson. She was joined in Winston-Salem by Misses Ruth Atkinson, Lillian and Rebecca Miller, who accompanied her.

Misses Sallie and Julia Jeffries, Misses Mary and Ruth Short and Misses Ruth and Martha Saunders, of Mount Airy, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Jeffries, at their home on Bridge street, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pegram and Miss Sullie Finney, of Statesville, and Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Eskridge, of Winston-Salem have been the guests of their mother, Mrs. C. F. Finney, at her home in Jonesville, during the past week.

Miss Louise Transou, who has been a patient at a Statesville hospital for the past several days, returned to her home on West Main street Saturday. Her condition is much improved, her many friends will be glad to know.

Mrs. C. F. Finney, who suffered a slight stroke of paralysis at her home in Jonesville last Tuesday is much improved, although she is still confined to her bed. Mrs. Finney is the mother of our townsman, Mr. W. A. Finney.

Mr. R. B. Boren, Sr., Mrs. R. B. Boren, Jr., and children, Margaret Wiley and Richard Boren, III, of Greensboro, spent the week-end here the guests of Mrs. Boren's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Reich at their home on Vine street.

Mrs. Sid Hudspeth, who has been a patient in the Twin-City Memorial Hospital in Winston-Salem, for the past several days, is expected to return to her home here this week. Her many friends will be glad to learn that her condition is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ring, of Mt. Olive, spent the week-end here, the guests of Mr. Ring's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Ring, at their home on Terrace Avenue. Mr. Ring returned to Mount Olive Monday, while Mrs. Ring remained for a longer visit.

Mr. C. L. Reeves, of Visalia, Cal., spent a few days here the latter part of last week, visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Reeves formerly lived here, and is well and favorably remembered by many of our citizens. He left Saturday for his home in the Golden West.

Misses Ethel and Irene Abernethy, of Charlotte, spent the week-end here with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. L. B. Abernethy, at their home on Market street. They brought as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Reinhardt and Mrs. John Vogler, all of Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruohs Pyron left Sunday for Charlotte, where they spent Monday, going from there to Columbia, S. C., where they attended the South Carolina State Fair. Several of the prize winning Guernseys from Klondike Farm have been entered in the cattle show.

Friends of Dr. J. W. Ring, who has been ill in a Statesville hospital for the past two weeks, will be interested to know that his condition has improved sufficiently for him to be removed to his home on Terrace Avenue. In spite of his 81 years, he has a remarkable constitution and an early recovery is predicted.

Misses Margaret and Carolyn Lillard, who are students at Queen's-Chicora College, at Charlotte, spent the week-end here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Lillard, at their home on Gwyn Avenue. They brought as their guests Misses Mary Ivey and Anne Smith of Orange, Va., and Miss Annabelle Smith, of Dunn, N. C. Miss Mary Robinson Smith, who is a member of the school faculty here, was also their guest for the week-end.

W. A. Jackson Dies at His Home Near Elkin

William Albert Jackson, died at his home near Elkin early Monday morning. He had been ill for three weeks, suffering from a complication of diseases.

Funeral services and interment were from Grassy Creek Baptist church Tuesday morning, in charge of Rev. C. S. Morrison.

He is survived by his widow and three children.

TWO MEN ARE ELECTROCUTED; AUTO SPRING MAKES CONTACT

Decatur, Ind., Oct. 19.—When Ivan Baker, 36, ran his automobile into a city lamp post here early today he walked to a restaurant and asked Hugh Hitchcock, 29, to help him push the car back into the street. A few minutes later both men were found dead, electrocuted by 2,200 volts of city current, with which the spring of the automobile had come into contact.

R. H. Spainhour Passes After Long Illness

R. H. Spainhour, 62, passed away at his home in Chatham Park, Saturday evening after a prolonged illness of heart trouble, with complications. Funeral services were conducted from the home Sunday afternoon, by Rev. Eph Whisenhunt, pastor of the First Baptist church, and interment was in the Woodruff cemetery, near Roaring Gap.

Surviving are his widow and ten children.

Tyre Wood's Hand Caught By Belt Hook

Tyre Wood, perhaps one of the oldest employees of the Chatham Mfg. Co., sustained painful injury to his hand Tuesday morning while oiling a machine in the company's plant. His hand was caught by a flying belt hook, and a slight infection has resulted, which is proving quite painful to the injured.

AMPLE RESOURCES

STAND BEHIND

THIS BANK

CONSIDER

The safety of your money
* * *

The courtesy of employees
* * *

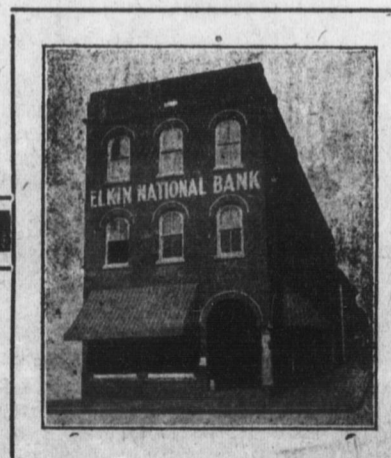

The strength of the bank
* * *

And its officers.
* * *

Consult us for banking needs
* * *

Of any kind—at any time.
* * *

We are at your service.

"A HOME FOR YOUR DOLLARS"

ELKIN NATIONAL BANK

ELKIN, NORTH CAROLINA

Bradley Sweaters

"Slip into a BRADLEY and out of doors". A most complete line is now ready for your approval, Pull-ons, coat styles, in fact all the seasons favorites. You will note from the prices quoted below that wonderful values are being offered.

Ladies' Coat Sweaters, 100 percent wool, colors Buff and Navy—
$2.98

These are not Bradleys but are exceptional values.

Boy's Slip on Sweaters, sizes 30 to 36. All colors—
$2.98

Children's slip-on sweaters, sizes 22 to 30, all colors—
$1.25

Slip-ons and Coat sweaters, all colors and sizes—
$4.95

"Slip into a BRADLEY, and out-of-doors". This season we are offering a complete line of these famous sweaters in Pull-ons, and coat styles. The prices are very reasonable, and the wear one obtains, they are wonderful values.

Sydnor-Spainhour Co.
ELKIN, N. C.

7 ADDITIONS TO METHODIST ROLL

The membership of the Elkin Methodist church has been made stronger in two ways as a result of the revival meeting which has just closed, conducted by the pastor, Rev. L. B. Abernethy.

In addition to absorbing the strong sermons delivered by the local pastor which strengthened the faith of the membership, seven additions were recorded, and several others are expected to add their names to the church roll within a short time—some by letter and others by professions of faith but who have not yet united with the church.

SMALL BOY INJURES KNEE WHILE PLAYING AT SCHOOL

Sam Sprinkle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eb Sprinkle, received a severe gash on his knee Wednesday noon, while playing in the yard at school. He fell on a tin can, cutting a deep wound that required six stitches to close. While the injury is not serious, it is of a painful nature.