Club 13 Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bryan Saturday and a handkerchief, respectively. evening, with only the members Bridge was played at two tables In this compettition, Mrs. James Poindexter was awarded a nest of ash trays as high score prize.

Lyons-Smith

The following announcement has been received here: Mrs. Eli W. Smith announces the marriage of his daughter, Verlie, to Mr. Ted W. Lyons, on Wednesday, November twenty-sixth, nieteen hundred and thirty, Elkin N. C. At home after December 1, Elkin. North Carolina.

Kerley-Emerson

A wedding that came as a surprise to friends, was that of Miss Grace Kerley, to Larry Emerson on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Emerson is the daughter of of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Emerson, of

Monday Bridge Club Guests of Miss Atkinson

After several interesting to business. progressions scores were counted and Miss Kathleen Bailey was hold-

FINE REPAIR

Years of experience in jewelry, watch, and clock

repairing—and prices are

moderate to an appreciable degree. If it can be fixed,

we can do it. If it can't

T. E. STEELE

LYRIC THEATRE BLDG.

—Perfume Sets

we'll tell you so.

er of the highest score and Mrs. Frank Whitaker was lowest scorer. Club Thirteen met at the home of They were presented with a compact

> After the cards were recalled the hostess served an elaborate salad Those making up the tables were: Mrs. Frank Whitaker, Miss Kathleen Bailey, Miss Grace Snow, Miss Elizabeth Turner, Miss Sue Byrd, Miss Margaret Harris, Miss Norma Church and Miss Ola Church.

Baptist Circles in Regular Meeting day with Mrs. Stroud's parents, Mr. Th circles of the Womans' Missionary Society of the Baptist church met Monday afternoon in the the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar following homes:

The Fannie Heck Circle met with Mrs. M. A. Royall, at her home on Church street, with eleven members present. Mrs. W. F. Reece conducted parents' home here the devotionals and Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt discussed the "Travels and of Jonesville, visited their daugh Customs of China.'

The Lou Bray Circle met with last Sunday. Mrs. Lula Weir, at her home on Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kerley, of Jones-ducted the devotionals. A very in them were weighed, but it was estiville, and Mr. Emerson is the son teresting mission study class on the mated that all of their weight was ols and Albert Vanhoy.

The Lottie Moon Circle met with mark. Mrs. J. R. Johnson, at her home on All school children enjoyed a Miss Anna Atkinson was hostess Church street, with seven members holiday last Thursday, while those to the members of the Monday eve- present. Mrs. H. F. Laffoon con- attending high school had Friday ning Bridge Club at her home on West Main street Monday evening, no mission study class at this meet-Two tables were placed for the ing, the hour being devoted wholly school room. How essential to evtess served a refreshment course.

Miss Kate Fletcher Weds Fred L. Key marriage of Miss Kate Fletcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Fletcher, of Boonville, and Fred L. of the fine motto, "Today," which Key of Ararat, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ruskin had placed on the wall G. J. Key, came as a complete sur- of his room that it might be readily a private ceremony with only the things we can do during the NEW intimate friends of the contracting DAY. Then when the day's toil is parties present, with Rev. Dunbar over and we view this samemotic, of Mount Airy officiating, Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Key left for an extended wedding trip to Washington, D. C., and to Trenton, N. J.

The bride wore as her wedding gown a handsome ensemble suit of dark blue flat crepe with accessories to match.

Mrs. Key is a charming young woman, belonging to one of the most prominent families in Yedkin county. She is a graduate of the Appalachian State Teachers College at Boone, and also of the Eastern money and eloped with a stenograph-Carolina Teachers College Greenville, N. C., and for the past three years she has been a member of the faculty of the school at HAMPTON TO PRACTICE

THAT

The groom is an alumuns of the National Business College of Roanoke, Va., and is engaged in busi- who has been secretary to Senator and Mrs. Key will reside.

BETHEL NEWS

H. G. and Robt. Green, of Winston- also in North Carolina. This infor-Salem, visited their parents, Mr. mation developed upon the discovery and Mrs. J. B. Green, during the that Mr. Hampton was recently ad-Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stroud, from present term. Wilkesboro, spent Thanksgiving and Mrs. C. W. Gilliam.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Triplett were Martin, at Jonesville, last Sunday. Mrs. Lula Freeman Cook, of Cooleemee, spent last week-end at her

Mr. and Mrs. Will Weatherman, ter, Mrs. Joe Mathis and Mr. Mathis

A number of fine porkers were Surry Avenue, with eleven members butchered in this community last present. Mrs. Ida Cockerham con- week. So far as is known none of book, "Ann of Ava," was under the from three to five hundred pounds direction of Mesdames H. G. Nich- each, while some perhaps would have tipped the scales beyond this ery child to have this grand oppor-Following each program the hos-tunity! Only think, every day they are moulding a character, gaining knowledge, skill and power that they may grow and grow (how tender they are) to make useful men The recent announcement of the and women for our country.

The value of one day to us. If T. we as well as children would think prise to the many friends of the observed, and think on arising in the morning of the blessings we The wedding was solemnized in have in store and the many useful

Man Who Paid Terrible Price For Theft Dies

Englewood, N. J., Nov. 30 .- Fourteen years of mental torture and grief so great that a court said of him," "He has been punished enough" ended last night with the death of Abram Cornelius, 63, who in 1915 stole $11,000 of his bank's Cornelius with the law at his heels and a deserted family to tear his conscience, took the girl, Miss Loretta Adelgais, 22, to Wyoming. The $11,000 was soon gone. Worry and illness broke the health of both. Three children were born to them.

A year ago Cornelius, or Cornell as he called himself, heard his wife had died. He married Miss Adel-From the altar she went almost directly to an insane asylum, Cornelius to an almhouse, children to an orphanage in Cheyenne, Wyoming.

1930. Brought to trial before Federal Judge Guy L. Fake in Newark, the court listened to the story and suspended sentence. Mrs. Arthur B. Reeves, of Englewood, a daughter, took him in and cared for him. He died in her house tonight,

Dies While Trying To Bail Out Drunken Son

Washington.-Frank A. Hampton ness at Cameron, N. C., where Mr. Simmons and chief of his office staff for the past thirteen or fourteen years, after March 4 probably will practice law in Washington as a member of a law firm that will have Ronda, route 2, Dec. 1.-Messrs, offices in New York, and probably mitted to practice in the District of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Burchette had Columbia by the District Supreme as their guest last week their daugh- Court. He, of course, will not begin ter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse practice until after his connection Church and daughters. Miss Edith with Senator Simmons is terminated and little Margaret, of Greensboro. at the expiration of the Senator's

A SURE SIGN Little Girl Next Door: "What's are 1,485,063 Swedes in the United the new baby at your home, John-States. ny, a boy or a girl?'

Disgusted Little Brother: "Aw. An eel from China with a runk it's a girl, I saw 'em putting pow-like an elephant is on view at the der on it."

According to the last censu there

Field Museum, Chicago

NOTICE NOTICE

Pay your electric light bills before the 10th of each month and save the discount.

SOUTHERN PUBLIC UTILITIES CO.

Penney Co., Inc.

East Main Street

Elkin, N. C.

Handkerchief and Garter Set 23c to 98c

disses' silk handkerchief and silk garters, beautifully deco-Many Other Novelties

Jim's Special'

Here's a steel wagon to be proud of ... with a box 31% inches by 13½, and 9½ inch roller bearing wheels with rib tread tires. Aluminum finish handle with rubber bumper. Brake. Low-priced at 3.98 Other Wagons, 98c up

New Silk Dresses

Emphasize the Economy of Smartness Here!

Dresses with all the details of styling and trimming that are smart this season . . . dresses of flat crepe, satin and sheer crepe for every occasion. Black and the new tones of rosy brown, dark green, red and blue. The values are so outstanding that you cannot afford to miss them! Sizes for women

Dolly Rosebud

She will captivate you with her big eyes and long eyelashes and when she cries you will have to pet her. She's smarth dressed in organdie. 16 $1.98 inches high $1.98

Attractively Boxed

23c

98c

Others 98c and Up

Toilet Set

Others Up to $9.90

CHOOSE WISELY-BUY

SUGGESTIONS FOR LADIES:

-Compacts