Akin-The Best Little Town In North Carolina

THE ELKIN TRIBUNE

After Santas Visit

VOL. No. XX No. 8

KIWANIANS MAKE CHANGE IN MEET

Decide On Every Other Friday Night Instead of Weekly; No Meeting to Be Held This Week.

The regular meeting of the Kiwanis club was held last Friday evening in the Kiwanis Room at Hotel Elkin, and was presided over by President J. G. Abernethy.

No regular program had been mapped out, and the time was consumed in discussions relative to the tobacco growers co-operative association and the prospects for its organization. The distribution of day-old chicks by the club to those who are interested in receiving them, was also scussed. While numerous reests have been received, no ack-wledgement has been made, and to those who are interested in the movement The Tribune is asked to say that the club is working on the proposition and will make a definite nnouncement at an early date.

Considerable interest has been shown since announcement was first made, and it is expected that the idea if put into practice will greatthrough this section. It is planned SAM MATHIS IS distribute a liberal number to those who desire them, under the ondition that they not be sold or killed for a period of two years, giving assurance that they will be used for the purpose intended-to create flocks of thoroughbred chickens as an extra income for the farmer. On January 2, the Kiwanians will hold their annual Ladies' Night pro- the axe became caught in it and regram, and a lively affair is anticipated. At this meeting the newly elected officers of the club will be bated installed, and a full attendance is desired

Christmas Program On Wednesday Night

The Methodist church of Jones-He will hold its Christmas exers on Wednesday night, featured propriate program in connection. The exercises will begin at 7 p. m.

Early Service Held On Sunday

On account of the slippery condition of the streets and sidewalks of can't wear this, dear; it's three sizes license to the following couples durthe city, the Sunday evening church too big. hour was moved up about two hours in order that those attending might it's got to go over the radiator of eliminate much of the danger of the car in cold weather . That's Mountain; Dock Golden to Lovie night travel.

ELKIN, N. C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1980

The Tribune Goes To Press Tuesday

In order that the force of The Tribune may enjoy a few days off during the holiday season, the paper is being issued early this week, going to press Tuesday aftern

While it has been a custom in past years to issue a "dummy" edition, containing only four pages and filled with legal and other advertising that must be printed consecutively to - comply with the law, The Tribune comes to you this week in a little less abbreviated form, and is filled with Christmas messages from the leading business firms of the city, together with the latest news obtainable, in addition to Christmas stories and the very latest photo of Santa Claus, himself, who is expected to pay a visit here tomorrow night.

The Tribune desires to expres its sincere appreciation for the loyal support given it in the past, and wishes for every reader and friend a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

HURT BY AN AXE

Mr. Sam Mathis, of Jonesville, was painfully injured early Monday morning while cutting wood in the basement of his home. Unaware of a rope that had been tied overhead, bounded to his head, inflicting an ugly gash, which bled profusely.

Injured Pouring

Eugene Hall, young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hall, was painfully injured Tuesday morning when he attempted to pour kerosene oil inrecuperating the fire.

The flames rushed out the opening of the door, and burned the young man severely about the face before he could withdraw from the close range at which he was working.

Jones (buying new overcoat); I Register of Deeds, issued marriage

what we have to consider first ing the past ten days: Wife: Yes you can! Remember to Stella Bullin, both Siloam; James Mabe, Pinnacle to Laura Pack Pilot proved in health. Flippin, both Round Peak; C. E. Airy; William Callahan, to Mary Parks, and Ed Allen students Gillespie, both Dobson.

> partment of Conservation and Devel- College, Salem, Va., are spending opment, Division of Game, sold resisible to get their heating plant in-Miss Lois Folger, who has been a patient at the Martin Memorial C. C. Hardy Hospital, Mt. Airy, for several days returned home Saturday much im Misses Lucile Freeman, and Kath ryn Folger, students at N. C. C. W. Edwards, to Cloa Baker, both Mt. Greensboro, Bill Freeman, Roy State College, Lakey Harkrader, Bausie Marion, authorized license student at Duke University, and selling agent, representing the $d \rightarrow$ Claude Monday, student at Roanoke

Collins, and Chas. Fowler. A red fox about half grown was miles of Dobson, during the recent deep snow. The fox was brought to Dobson and is being safely kept

Marvin Collins, Ben Folger, Early

caught within a distance of three ton-Salem

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ELKIN

the best ltitle town

in North Carolina

WANT A SONG? PUT OUT CANDLE

The members of the Epworth League of the Methodist church will sing Christmas carols throughout the city on Wednesday evening, leaving the church at 7:30 o'clock.

The League will be divided into groups, under the leadership of Mesdames Fred Colhard and J. O. Bivins, and will sing Christmas songs in various parts of the town, especially where it is known there are shut-ins. In order that no home may be overlooked, where it is desired to have the Christmas carols sung, it is requested that a candle be placed in the window or other place where it may be seen, as a guide for the League groups.

Free Cripple Clinic Postponed a Week

Many readers of The Tribune will be interested in the following announcement, which appeared in the Mount Airy News last week, relative to the free cripple clinic, which has been postponed a week on account of the Christmas holidays:

. Due to the fact that everyone will be engaged in enjoying the holiday season, the next-cripple Clinic will be held in the County Health office, Friday, January 2, 1931 instead of the fourth Friday in December.

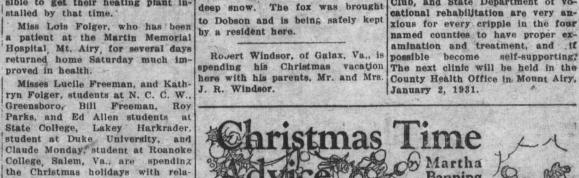

This clinic will be the fourth in the series of Cripple Clinics to be held every fourth Friday in every month of the year. These clinics are made possible by the Mount Airy tiwanis Club, and are under the suervision of an Orthopedic surgeon, Dr. R. A. Moore, of Winston-Salem. these clinics are also in accordance with and affiliated with the State Department of Vocational rehabilitation. At each clinic a member of the State Department is usually present to outline the training to help make every cripple self-supporting. The state also aids in buying braces and helps to pay hospital bills for those who are unable to pay.

Many have taken advantage of these clinics from Surry, Alleghany, Wilkes, Stokes and Yadkin. Several have also been treated from Virgin-

Examinations and treatments ia. are done in Mount Airy with the exception of operations, which are done in the Baptist hospital in Wins-

The Health Department, Kiwanis. Club, and State Department of vocational rehabilitation are very anxious for every cripple in the four named counties to have proper examination and treatment, and .if self-supporting? County Health Office in Mount Airy,

Banning

Henry C. Hampton Dobson, Dec. 22 .- W. M. Gray stalled by that time.

OVER Judea the night clouds had fallen, The wide-spreading country lay quiet and still And all were at rest save a few humble shepherds

That First Christmas

By Katherine Edelmait

And all were at rest save a rew number shephends when here at rest save a rew number shephends where a rew number shephends where a rest save a rew number of the state of the "Earth can rejoice, for the long night is o'er.

AN from his bondage of darkness and doubting Now can be free, for a Savior is born, God has come down from the glory of heaven, is morn. To bless and to gladden the earth on this morn.

WER in Bethlehem, hallowed forever Because he has chosen the place for his birth, There, as a baby, lies Jesus the Savior, A the second second TE, who could come on the wings of the morning In power and splendor, to palace or hall, Has chosen the humblest and poorest of dwellings. A stable in Bethlehem —a cold manger stall.

Whose hand guides the sun and the stars their way,

Has come from the glory and splendor of heaven For love of mankind on this glad Christmas day."

RILLED by the message, the shepherds stood atching,

Awe-stricken, speechless, they gazed at the si ning enchanted as angel songs echoed inco Over the hills on that wonderful night./ E, too, can hear the glad songs of the angels, $W_{1}^{r=35}$ And feel their deep music so true and sublime, if we open our hearts to the becutiful message, white s To the joy and the peace of this glad Christmas time.

dent county hunting license for the season 1930-31 the past week, to The heaviest snow fall in many the following citizens: Connie years fell here last Tuesday night Butcher, Kapps Mills; J. E. Davis, and Wednesday morning, practical-Rockford, Geo. Davis and D. Y. ly to a depth of 20 inches. All traf Marion, Dobson.

vish through the columns of this paper to thank their friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindnkess shown them during the illness and death of the late W. W. Hampton.

Misses Julia and Catherine Comer left Saturday for Bluefield, W .Va. where they will spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wright.

The W. M. S. of the Dobson Methodist church, held their December meeting Tuesday evening with Mrs. Grady Cooper. The president, Mrs. Elmer Simpson, was present and presided. The devotionals were conducted by Mrs. R. C. Freeman, Jr., Mrs. W. B. White was program leader. The topic for discussion "Christ-ian Education in Mexico" was interestingly discussed by Misses Minnie Chandler and Bertha Byrd. The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs. Simpson, with the members feeling that the year's work had been a success financially and much been a success financially and much spiritual good had been derived from the Bible and Mission study courses. During the social hour the hostesa During the social hour the hostess served delicious refreshments. Mrs. J. E. Monday was added to the membership roll. The January meeting will be held with Mrs. R. C. Freeman, Jr.

will render their Christmas service an active part in all of its activities will render their Christmas service exercises at the church Thursday evening beginning at 7:30 o'clock A Christmass tree for the children will be one feature of the occassion. The Sunday school of the Methodist church will render their Christmas Service exercises Wednesday night beginning at 7:30 o'clock. A Christ mas tree for the children will also as a Magistrate. He will be greatly missed in this community. Surviv-ing are his wife, Mrs. Rosa Whit-tington, four sons, Lindsay, Beverly. John and Jim Whittington, two daughters, Mrs. M. A. Brooks and Mrs. T. L. Cox, all living in Surviv-be one feature of the occassion. County, The pail bearers we be one feature of the occassion. County. The pail bearers wer-They are making every effort 203- Emmett Gillespie, Spotford Cave.

fic was suspended until about noon Mrs. W. W. Hampton and family before the streets were cleared of snow sufficiently for cars to run. The local school which would have closed Friday for the holidays, did not open and was suspended until December 29th. Busses from the rural schools were unable to run. Rural mail carriers were unable to go their rounds. Despite the bad roads due to the recent snow there was a large num ber of people who attended the fu neral services held for Rev. Ed Wright Sunday afternoon at the New Hope Baptist church. Inter-ment was made in the church cemetery. He died Thursday evening following a brief illness. He was widely known and highly respected He was about 60 years of age. He has many friends throughout Surry county who mourn his passing. He was a minister of the Union Baptist Faith. Surviving are his wife and several children.

The funeral of M. G. Whittington 65, which was held Saturday after noon at the Dobson Baptist church ted the services. Interment was made in the Dobson cemetery. He was born and reared in this com-munity and was well known and highly respected. For thirty years he had been a consistent member of The Dobson Baptist Sunday school the Dobson Baptist church and tool

There is a cictum," said, the oak, That ancient tree who seldom spoke At Christmas time for men to hew OUL The spruce and pine and hemlock, too, S Down to their roots with saw and shout And drag them through the woods and out. He paused, and rustled through his leaves (Now old and thin) like one who grieves While spruce and hemlock whispered low Among themselves "And you must to Away from this familiar place To entertain the human race.

They'll set you up in street and store, In huts, hotels and mansions for-

The children's pleasure. They will trim. Each tiny branch, each sturdy limb:

Instead of snow, your green will weat Tinsel and baubles everywhere:

Instead of stars, your eyes will see Electric bulbs . . . but you must b

Patient and strong: your boughs will so Under their gifts: your arms will drag

Down to the floor, and night and day You'll have no rest in any way.

You must endure the thirst for no The need of night, the aching pain

Of loneliness," thus said the oak, That ancient tree who seldom spoke,

But here's one dream by which to live Think of the Christmas joy you'll give!"