Dobson, March 22.—The Dobson Womens club held its regular monthly meeting at the Brady hotel on Thursday evening. The president, Mrs. A. D. Folger, presided. The reports of the secretary and treasurer were heard and approved. An unusually fine report was given by the chairman of the finance committee showing large proceeds received from a play sponsored by the club. Miss Eva Hancock, chairman of the Finance committee for March, presented a lovely gift to Mrs. J. W. Thore in behalf of the club, expressing the appreciation of the club for her fine work in successfully coaching the play. Definite plans were laid for further cleaning up and beautifying the Dobson cemetery, a project which the club has recently undertaken. An American Home program followed the business meeting. A splendid lecture on "Home Making" was delivered by Miss Anita Hobson, head of the Home Economics department of the Dobson school. Miss Hobson introduced her talk with a touching appeal on the meaning of Home, bringing a personal message to each of her hearers. The key note of her address was summed in these words "to be content with what we have, but not satisfied until our homes reflect the best in ourselves." The speaker followed with a delightful and instructive discourse on the interior and exterior of the home, showing the effect of proper coloring, picture hanging and furniture arrangement. A poem on what makes a home a home was effectively read by Mrs. W. L. Reece. Mrs. M. A. Lewis delighted the members with a beautiful solo "Cottage Small by a Water Fall". The Pilot Mountain Womens Club is extended an invitation to be guests of the Dobson Club in April. A delicious ice course, suggestive of St. Patrick's Day, was served by the following members serving on the entertainment committee for this month: Miss Myrtle Burgess, Chm., Misses Georgia Fuik, Thelma Shore, Emma Comer, Verdye Jackson, Mesdames Frank Riggs, W. W. Ashburn, A. D. Folger, C. W. Fowler and J. E. Monday.

Mrs. A. D. Folger entertained the members of the Womens Club Council at a beautifully appointed dinner on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. L. Reece. The guests were received at the door by Miss Thelma Shore and directed by the hostess into the dining room where they found their places at the table by means of dainty green baskets with St. Patricks place cards attached and holding green and white mints. The table bore as its central decoration a lovely green and yellow Easter nest decorated with gaily colored eggs, fluffy chicks and tiny rabbits. Crystal baskets holding yellow jonquils graced each end of the table. A delicious three-course turkey dinner was served, each course carrying out St. Patrick color scheme of green and white. Following the dinner an executive business session was held. Those enjoying this delightful occasion were Mesdames W. M. Jackson, Grady Cooper, B. F.

Folger, W. E. Reid, W. E. Hancock, W. W. Ashburn, G. E. Mock, Misses Eva Hancock, Thelma Shore, Emma Comer, Minnie Chandler, Elizabeth Norman and the hostess, Mrs. Folger.

A delightful comedy-drama entitled "A Fortunate Calamity" was presented under the auspices of the Dobson Womens Club at the high school building on Wednesday evening. The play as a whole registered a great success and the large audience swelled the proceeds which will be used by the club for charity and civic purposes. Much credit should be given all the players for the roles so ably played by each. The play was given under the management of Miss Eva Hancock, chairman of the Finance committee for March, and coached by Mrs. J. W. Thore. Those taking part in the play were as follows: Misses Verdye Jackson, Emma Comer, Edith Reece, Minnie Chandler and Mrs. John Comer, and Messrs. Bill Freeman, Morgan Stanley, Franklin Folger, and Spencer Norman.
