WARNS OF REVOLUTION

The president's research committee on social trends, after three years' study, reported Sunday night that there "can be no assurance" that "violent revolution" in America can be averted, "unless there can be a more impressive intergration of social skills and fusing of social purposes than is revealed by recent trends."

EXPECTED TO SPEED UP

As 1933 began Sunday, Congress looked more and more to the incoming President—Franklin Delano Roosevelt—for guidance in legislative steps that Democratic leaders hope will make the new year an era of better times for the nation.

CHURCH DESTROYED BY FIRE

Hundreds of panic-stricken children were saved without a single mishap Sunday morning when the Smithfield Methodist church, at Smithfield, was found to be in flames in various rooms of the brick edifice. The fire gutted the main auditorium and assembly rooms, damaging property valued at approximately $30,000.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE

An early morning fire discovered at 1:30 o'clock Sunday, destroyed the home of P. D. Ross, of Salisbury. Mr. Ross, who was alone, his family being out of town, had a narrow escape from the flames which had gained great headway before discovery.

WOULD SAVE WOMAN

Maricopa county's grand jury Friday addressed a resolution to the Arizona board of pardons and paroles strongly urging that Winnie Ruth Judd's sentence of death for murder of Agnes Anne LeRoi "immediately" be commuted to life imprisonment.

ROOSEVELT STUDYING SITUATION

Determined to carry out his "new deal" without new federal taxes, President-Elect Roosevelt Friday night discussed means by which large savings could be effected through reductions in appropriations and consolidation of governmental functions.

STIRS UP SENATE

Senator Connally, (D), Texas, stirred a half-filled Senate into prolonged debate Friday when he charged the war department was concentrating military units in the vicinity of great cities because it feared "Reds and Communists."

CIGARETTE PRICE CUT IS RUMORED

The tobacco stocks suffered a tremor on the New York stock exchange Friday on a recurrence of unconfirmed rumors that the "big four" manufacturers were considering a slash in cigarette prices.

DIPLOMATIC CHANGE

The State Department at Washington announced the following change in the foreign service: Fred Van Denarend, of Fairview, N. C., vice-consul at Pernambuco, Brazil, assigned at Amsterdam, Netherlands.

GETS BOND PRIVILEGE

Associate Justice Willis J. Brodgen, of the state supreme court, Friday ruled that Dr. Mike Roberson, Durham physician who had been held in jail at Raleigh without privilege of bond under charges of first degree murder since the preceding Tuesday, could be released under $10,000 bond.

MCCOIN CASE STILL MYSTERY

Uncertainty continued to shroud the disappearance of R. S. McCain, of Henderson, Monday. Sheriff J. E. Hamlett continued to hold in jail A. F. Holden, 33, picked up Saturday for questioning, but expressed belief he had nothing to do with the case.

SEE EAS DEFICIT

The treasury registered a $100,000 below zero Monday as the legislature assembled to begin its task of thawing financial difficulties.

NEW FARM RELIEF BILL

A newly devised emergency relief plan designed to guarantee the farmer his pre-war purchasing power despite fluctuations was the bill chosen by Democratic leaders Monday for aiding agriculture.

MAGICIANS HIT "FAKERS"

At a meeting of the North Carolina Association of Magicians in Winston-Salem Monday night, a resolution was passed condemning "so-called mystics or second-night artists" who claim to have supernatural powers in reading human minds and revealing "secrets" of the gullible.

REYNOLDS CUTS PRICE

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company Monday night announced a reduction in the price of Camel cigarettes effective Tuesday morning, notification being sent to wholesale jobbers throughout the United States by telegraph. The new price is $6.00 per 1,000, a reduction of 85 cents.

160 NEW YEAR DEATHS

Automobiles, guns, fires, and poison liquor took a heavy toll of life during the two-day holiday occasioned by New Years falling on a Sunday. More than 160 deaths were attributed directly or indirectly to the celebration, a survey showed.

INCOME TAX

The internal revenue bureau sent out its new year's greetings to the nation's taxpayers Monday, reminding them to file income tax returns by midnight of March 15.

WILL URGE BALANCE BUDGET

President-elect Roosevelt will urge Democratic congressional leaders to exert strenuous effort towards federal budget balancing in an attempt to avoid, if possible, an extra session of Congress in the spring, his advisers indicated Monday night.

Yadkin High Schools To Open Next Monday

Boonville, Yadkinville, Courtney and East Bend high schools, all scheduled to reopen after the holidays on January 2, will not start work until Monday, according to J. T. Reece, superintendent of schools. It was stated that the recent snow and rain have made the roads over which the school busses must pass, almost impassible.
