Rose Marlowe Circle of Jonesville Celebrates Anniversary

The Rose Marlowe Circle of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Jonesville Baptist church celebrated the first anniversary of its organization on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. M. A. Holcomb. The members invited their husbands to share the evening with them and Mrs. H. G. Craver, president of the Yadkin county W. M. U., was guest of honor.

The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. E. R. Castevens. Mrs. Castevens also presided over the meeting. An interesting program was presented by Mrs. Hugh Holcomb, who used "World Peace" as her topic.

Following the program a delightful social hour was enjoyed. A beautifully decorated cake with one lighted candle was the central decoration. This was surrounded by lovely jonquils, completing a color scheme of yellow and green. Delicious refreshments were served.

Dobson Woman's Club Meets

The Woman's Club of Dobson held its regular monthly meeting on last Thursday evening at the club house, with almost one hundred per cent attendance.

The president, Miss Emma Comer, was in the chair at the appointed hour and opened the meeting by the entire club repeating the Collect, followed by the club song.

Reports from the various departments and committees were heard and approved. During the business hour plans were laid to further the side-walk problem in the town.

The program for the evening, directed by Mrs. Emma Mock, chairman of the program committee, was opened by piano duets, "Beetle's Dance" and "Iris", by Mesdames M. A. Lewis and Grady Cooper.

A group of readings were given by Mrs. J. W. Thore, entitled "La Veuvoise", "Grandmother Discusses Men", and an impersonation of a mountaineer child struggling through the lines of Twinkle Little Star.

Miss Emma Comer, by way of introduction, graciously presented our townsman and friend, Mr. R. A. Freeman, who made a fine constructive talk on "Patriotism". Mr. Freeman very forcefully opened up new avenues of thought for the club. Miss Comer voiced the sentiment of each member as she briefly assured him of the clubs appreciation of his splendid address, as was further evidenced when Mrs. F. F. Riggs presented to him a small gift in behalf of the club.

During the social hour an ice course and cake was served by the following entertainment committee: Mrs. Wendell Stone, chairman, Mesdames R. A. Freeman, Callie Hasler, John Richards, D. T. Sparger, A. D. Folger, F. F. Riggs, B. W. Douglas, S. R. Coalson and Miss Myrtle Burgess.
