

LOCALS

L. M. Nelson, of North Wilkesboro, was a business visitor in Elkin Monday.

Mrs. Jayne Smith spent the early part of the week in Guilford College, the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Roy Harrell spent Tuesday in High Point, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Sam Davis.

Miss Dixie Byrd left Tuesday for Winston-Salem, where she has accepted a position.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruohs Pyron spent Thursday in Greensboro, where they were the guests of friends.

Walter Doughton, of Sparta, spent the week-end here the guest of Brite Burgess.

W. C. Douglass, of State Road, was a business visitor in Elkin Tuesday.

Mrs. E. F. McNeer and Mrs. John Reich spent Tuesday at Sedgfield, the guests of their sister and mother, Mrs. S. B. Miller.

Mrs. Charles Lewis, of Winston-Salem, spent Thursday here, the guest of friends and attending to business matters.

Mrs. George Cheek, of Sparta, is the guest this week of her sister, Mrs. Roy Barker, at her home on West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Whitaker spent the week-end in Mount Pleasant, the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Hoy Moose.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Hunt have moved from the home of Mrs. R. L. Poindexter on West Main street to the Reich home on Vine street.

Mr. and Mrs. Van W. Dillon returned Sunday from a brief honeymoon and are now at home at Hotel Elkin.

Mrs. C. F. Lineberry, of Statesville, is spending this week here the guest of her daughters, Mesdames William Price and Fred Neaves.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Wilmoth and little daughter, of Winston-Salem, spent the week-end here, the guests of Mrs. Wilmoth's father, W. S. Reich.

Misses Josephine Paul, Sarah McCracken, Margaret Lillard, Ruth Gwyn, Thorburn Lillard and Mrs. Thomas Roth spent Saturday in Charlotte.

Ben Kirkman, who is a student at North Carolina State College, Raleigh, spent the latter part of last week here the guest of his mother, Mrs. R. L. Kirkman, at her home on West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tharpe left today for Statesville, where they will spend several days the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Elias Tharpe and other friends.

R. L. Wilmoth, of Winston-Salem, spent the week-end here the guest of Mrs. Wilmoth and little son, Bobby, who are the guests of Mrs. Wilmoth's father, W. S. Reich.

Mrs. G. T. Roth and Albert Bryan left Thursday for Aiken, South Carolina and Pinehurst, where they will spend several days on a business and pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Beeson and Miss Anna Kate Jones of Greensboro, were the guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beeson at their home on West Main street.

Friends of Mrs. Gwyn Poindexter will be glad to know that she is resting comfortably following a tonsil operation at Hugh Chatham Hospital on Monday.

Mrs. R. L. Poindexter, who has been spending the past several months in Jacksonville, Florida, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Ross, returned to her home here Tuesday.

W. A. Neaves, Gavin Dortch, Fred Neaves and Charlie Calhoun, of Chatham Manufacturing company, are spending this week in New York attending the annual spring exhibition of Chatham blankets.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Savoie and H. A. Skinner, all of Barre, Vermont, are the guests of Capt. and Mrs. C. S. Currier, at their home on West Main street. Mr. Skinner is a brother of Mrs. Currier.

Rev. and Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt, Mr. and Mrs. Parks Hampton and Miss Effie Crater attended the performance given by the Jubilee Singers at the First Baptist church in Winston-Salem Monday evening.

Miss Irene Roberts will return Friday from Davenport College, Lehigh, where she has been taking special work. Upon her return she will work in the office of Attorney W. M. Allen.

Mrs. Hardin Graham has returned to Winston-Salem after spending a week here at her home on Terrace Avenue. She was accompanied by Mrs. Minnie Kimball of Winston-Salem, who was her guest for the week-end.

R. G. Smith, accompanied by about thirty-five members of the Young People's department of the Methodist Sunday school attended the address given by Rev. E. Stanley Jones, at the Reynolds Memorial Auditorium in Winston-Salem, Sunday evening.

Miss Tommye Frye, of Pilot Mountain, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Frye, will give her graduation recital at Salem College, Winston-Salem, Monday evening, April 3, at 8:15. Miss Frye is well known here, having frequently visited in the home of her aunt, Mrs. W. W. Whitaker.

Mrs. J. H. Ball, Mrs. R. L. Kirkman, Miss Ned Ball and Robert Kirkman spent the week-end in Sanford, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joyce. They were accompanied home from Jamestown by Mrs. E. C. Kirkman and Mrs. L. L. Hendrix. Mrs. Kirkman had been spending several days in Jamestown the guest of Mrs. Hendrix.

SOCIETY

Woman's Club to Hold Open Meeting Tuesday

The Elkin Woman's Club will hold an open meeting in the club room at Hotel Elkin Tuesday afternoon, April 4 at 3:30. Mr. R. A. Palmer, of Charlotte, will address the meeting, which is under the direction of the Department of Citizenship. All members and visitors are cordially invited to attend.

Miss Manaken Day Celebrates Birthday

Miss Manaken Day celebrated her ninth birthday on Tuesday with a small party at her home. Games, recitations and songs were enjoyed, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Those enjoying the happy affair with Miss Day were: Dorothy and Emma Steele, Izetta Wilcoxon, Fred and Wilda Barnette, Margaret and Howard Day, Louise Wilkins and Burley Day.

Helen Wall Celebrates Birthday

Miss Helen Wall celebrated her eighth birthday on Thursday, when she entertained seventeen of her little friends at her home in Arlington. Delightful games were played after which the guests were invited into the dining room where a prettily appointed refreshment course was served.

The guest list included, Peggy Jean Blackwood, Norma Reece, Minnie Sue Correll, Mary Correll, Annie Mae Simmons, June Boles, Marie Simmons, Francis Wall, Mildred Wall, Vena Shore, Elizabeth Minnich, Susie Mathis, Frawline Simmons, Marshall Pittman, Harry Correll, Avery Wall, Jr., and Harold Simmons.

Miss Louise Laffoon Honored on Tenth Birthday

Mrs. H. F. Laffoon entertained at her home on West Main street Saturday afternoon, honoring her daughter, Louise, on her tenth birthday anniversary.

Numerous games and contests were enjoyed by the little girls, with Nelda Fulp and Jerry Barker winning prizes.

Following the games the little guests were invited into the dining room where a pretty birthday setting was effected, with a color scheme of yellow and white. The birthday cake was white, graced with ten yellow candles in yellow holders and was surrounded by brilliant Easter novelties. Ices and cake were served.

Mrs. Reich Honored at Lovely Afternoon Party

Complimenting Mrs. John Reich, who was Miss Virginia Miller prior to her marriage two weeks ago, Mrs. Alden Hunt and Mrs. R. G. Wilmoth of Winston-Salem, entertained at a lovely party at the home of their father, W. S. Reich, on Vine street, Saturday afternoon. Japanese cherry blossoms and spirea were used in profusion in the reception rooms, where four tables were placed for bridge. Bride's cards marked the places of the players. Mrs. J. N. Freeman scored highest in the progressions and was awarded lovely cards. Mrs. Reich received an electric toaster as guest of honor gift.

When the cards were removed an attractively appointed salad course followed by a sweet course was served. A color scheme of green and yellow was carried out in detail in the refreshments.

Much Interest Is Being Shown In Night School

Much interest is being shown in the adult night school which is being conducted by the Elkin Woman's Club, under the supervision of the Department of Education, with Mrs. W. W. Whitaker in charge. The classes are under the direction of Mrs. E. E. Browne, assisted at times by other members of the club.

The classes are being conducted at the local school on Monday and Thursday evenings and at Jenkins-town on Tuesday and Friday mornings. There is an enrollment of 35 pupils in both schools and much progress has been made in the four weeks that the classes have been in session. They will continue for six weeks.

Local Girl Is Page To D. A. R. Convention

Mrs. R. G. Smith, Mrs. W. R. Wellborn and Miss Sarah Click returned Wednesday from Charlotte, where they attended the North Carolina Conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Miss Click was an officers' page to the convention. On Tuesday afternoon the pages were entertained at a tea at the home of Mrs. W. H. Belk. Tuesday evening the Pages' ball was held in the ballroom at Hotel Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Turner, of Columbia, S. C., spent the week-end here the guests of the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Turner, at their home on Circle Court. Mr. Turner returned to Columbia Monday, while Mrs. Turner remained for a longer visit.

OUTSTANDING NEWS EVENTS —of the— PAST WEEK

COURT ASKED TO DECIDE

A Baltimore court was asked Friday to determine what share Libby Holman Reynolds, Broadway torch singer, and her infant son, will have in the fortune built up by the late R. J. Reynolds, and also the validity of her marriage to the late Smith Reynolds.

REVISION IN PROSPECT

President Roosevelt's plan to enlist 250,000 men in a "civilian conservation corps" apparently was scheduled Friday night for extensive revision by Congress after organized labor had denounced it as "smacking of fascism, Hitlerism and a form of sovietism."

TWO FLIERS KILLED

Hurled to earth when their plane went into a tail spin at 300 feet, two army fliers were killed at Miami, Fla., Friday. Lieutenant Charles Stouff, 24, of Throntdale, Pa., and Sergeant Gale M. Lestler, 30, of Mitchell Field, N. Y., were the victims, Stouff was the pilot.

SIGNS BANK BILL

Resources of the federal reserve system Friday were made available to non-member banks for loans during the period of emergency, following the signing of legislation for that purpose by President Roosevelt.

MOUSE STOPS SHOW HERE

An inquisitive mouse, investigating a transformer at the Lyric theatre here Tuesday afternoon during the course of the show, not only was electrocuted but caused a short circuit that halted the projection of the picture until a trouble shooter could find and correct the trouble.

ANTI-JEWISH SITUATION CLEARING

The State department Sunday night reported that an official investigation of conditions in Germany indicated that, "whereas there was for a short time considerable mistreatment of Jews, this phase may be considered virtually terminated."

MERGE CREDIT AGENCIES

President Roosevelt Sunday drafted an executive order for the consolidation of the several government agricultural credit agencies as the first step in his plan for a wholesale federal reorganization.

DRYS MOBILIZE

The Woman's Christian Temperance union began rallying its forces Sunday night for the "big drive" in its war against repeal of prohibition. Union leaders believe the beer legalization battle which they have just lost was only a skirmish. The real "war" they believe, is just beginning.

BEER SELLER IN N. C.

The Goldsboro News Argus said Tuesday that "the beer bootlegger" had arrived in Goldsboro. "Order book in hand," the paper said, "a man from Maryland solicited local business men. He promised to deliver kegs and cases two days after the national law is effective."

YOUTH KILLED

Horace Ware, 22-year-old-son of Policeman Greel Ware, of Kings Mountain, was almost instantly killed about 12:30 o'clock Sunday morning when an automobile collided with a truck on the outskirts of Gastonia on the Kings Mountain highway.

CONGRESS SPEEDS UP

Congress hastened Monday toward enactment of the first two steps in President Roosevelt's unemployment relief program—work for 250,000 men in the nation's forests, and $500,000,000 for direct federal aid to the destitute.

EMBEZZLER GONE

Frank N. Littlejohn, chief of Charlotte detectives, Monday received a letter from Havana, Cuba, police stating H. J. Gibson, former Charlotte broker wanted on a charge of embezzling $2,000 from a Concord woman, had left Havana three days after he had arrived there March 17.

SENATE ASKS OPINION

The State Senate Monday night passed under suspended rules the Waynick-MacLean resolution to ask the supreme court for an opinion on the constitutionality of two bills to provide for elections regarding a convention on the Blaine amendment to repeal the national prohibition law.

JAPS BOMB CHURCHES

The United States will make representations to the Japanese diplomatic authorities at Peiping, China, as a result of an air raid by Japanese planes that bombed the American Methodist Mission property at Taotowing, near Peiping, it was announced Monday.

BURNED BY GASOLINE

Joe Williams, gang foreman of the state highway commission, was badly burned near Lumberton when a bucket of gasoline took fire and was accidentally turned over on Williams.

JAPAN RESIGNS FROM LEAGUE

The privy council at Tokyo Monday unanimously approved a communication to the League of Nations announcing Japan's formal resignation from the League.

NOTICE OF SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in an order issued by Judge J. Paul Frizelle, holding court at Dobson, N. C., I, the undersigned, receiver of the Elkin Hardware Co., will sell at public auction for cash, on April 23, 1933, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the office of W. M. Allen, Attorney, in Elkin, N. C., all of the notes, mortgages, accounts and other evidences of debt due the said Elkin Hardware Co.

The former date of sale was extended on account of the bank moratorium being in effect over the United States.

This the 27th day of March, 1933.
C. G. ARMFIELD,
Receiver.

Tailoring — Dress Making
All Kinds of Sewing
Mrs. Hester Wall Laffoon
W. M. Wall Residence
Phone 146-R. W. Main St.

The Tub Holds No Terrors for these Pretty Tub Frocks

Tub Frocks
1 to 16 years

Charm, daintiness, sturdiness, style! These frocks have all that, and more! For they're tubfast, too! Prints, pongees, lawns, and gingham—all in the smartest little-girl styles!

49¢
and 98¢

Let Us Be GAY! —and Thrifty!

Cotton Frocks
98¢

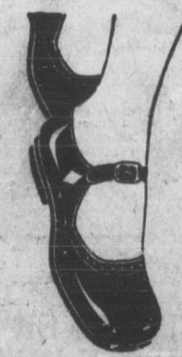

Adorably "Different" — Enchanting as Spring!

Dainty dresses! With that extra "something" even masculine eyes will appreciate! Fine fabrics, too — in checks, plaids, stripes, florals!

Another For Every Dress That Fades!

Misses', Women's and Extra Sizes

"Step Out, Young Feet!"

98¢

in Penney's Greatest Shoe Value!

PATENT LEATHER PUMPS for misses, children and infants! All leather, one-strap. See them and marvel!

J.C. PENNEY CO.
East Main Street Elkin, N. C.

TAXI
Call No. 265, Hotel Elkin, for Taxi and Bus Service.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC
Regular visiting hours at the local hospital are 10:00-11:30; 3:00-5:00 and 7:00-8:30.
Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital

SPRING
CALLS FOR A NUMBER OF THINGS!

—And among them are a number of articles sold by this Drug Store. For instance there's nothing like a good spring tonic to restore pep to jaded systems. Then there are sprays and deodorants that you should need for spring cleaning... simple first aid supplies for the mashed fingers and skinned places spring cleaning always brings. So come and get it and we'll throw in cheerful, courteous service at no extra charge.

Abernethy's
A Good Drug Store Phone 42