

OUTSTANDING NEWS EVENTS
—of the—
PAST WEEK

MOFFETT'S BODY RECOVERED
Recovery of the body of Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics, who was lost with the airship Akron, was reported to naval headquarters at New York Monday.

MAY BRING GOOD NEWS
Strong likelihood that Premier Edouard Herriot would announce France's intention of meeting her defaulted war debt payment immediately upon his arrival in Washington to confer with President Roosevelt, was foreseen in authoritative quarters Monday.

REACHES CONGRESS
President Roosevelt's vast Tennessee Valley development project was set for launching in Congress Monday, with the reading of a special message outlining his plan for putting thousands of jobless to work.

SHERIFF HELD FOR KILLING
Charged with the fatal shooting of Mrs. Ida M. Broom during a difficulty at her home at Winstboro, S. C., Sheriff R. A. Feaster, of Fairfield county, was in jail Monday awaiting the outcome of efforts to arrange bond for his release.

TOT KILLED BY TRAIN
Eight-year-old Herndon Johnson was killed Sunday night at Greensboro when he was struck by a Southern Railway engine while playing on the tracks near his home.

PLAN FOR EASTER SERVICE
Three hundred musicians have been organized by B. J. Pfohl, Winston-Salem band leader, to play for the annual sunrise service of the Moravian church there Easter morning. The bands will begin playing at 2 a. m. Easter day and will cover every section of the city before congregating at Home Moravian church for the service in "God's Acre," Moravian burying ground.

GOVERNOR IN NO RUSH
Gov. J. C. B. Ehringhaus tonight reiterated he would wait until the general assembly adjourns before deciding on any of the several appointments to be made by his administration.

WRECKAGE FOUND
A truck load of wreckage from the U. S. Akron and the non-rigid airship J-3, reached the naval air station at Lakehurst Monday afternoon shortly after the naval board of inquiry, convened to investigate the crashing of the Akron, adjourned for the day.

3 BANKERS GO TO PRISON
After deliberating since late Saturday, a jury Monday convicted three former officials of the closed Cherokee bank, of Murphy, of violating state banking laws and Judge John H. Clement, of Winston-Salem, sentenced each to prison.

SET TRIAL FOR APRIL 18
A verdict of second-degree murder will be asked against Mrs. Roy L. Peterman in connection with the shooting of her husband, vice-president of the Southern Public Utilities company, at their Charlotte home about two months ago, it was announced Monday.

SAYS BEER HURTS
Beer, as good as it ever was, declared Henry A. McClung, editor of the State College Technician, has about ruined the soft drink business in Washington, D. C. McClung has just returned from a tour to the nation's capital to quaff the new brew on tap there.

PLANS PUBLICITY DRIVE
The French government has organized an amazing program to flood the United States with pro-French propaganda, utilizing prominent press services, newspapers, magazines, public speakers and the radio to accomplish its purpose.

At Lyric Monday and Tuesday

Richard Dix and Anne Harding in a scene from "The Conquerors," which shows at the Lyric Theatre here Monday and Tuesday, April 17 and 18. In the supporting cast are Edna May Oliver and Guy Kibbee.

RECOVER BODY

The body of William Edgar Edwards, 41, steel worker, who was drowned November 19 in the French Broad river near Asheville, was recovered Saturday within 300 yards of where he went down.

TO SPEED ENLISTMENT

Frankly expressing disappointment at the slow pace of forestry camp enrollment, administration aides plunged ahead Monday to speed the mobilization of idle men and to place selection on a normal basis before the week-end.

NAMES PHILIPPINE HEAD

President Roosevelt expanded his new government machine Friday with the selection of Mayor Frank Murphy, of Detroit, for the prized governor generalship of the Philippine Islands.

WORK ON POSTAL DEFICIT

A drive to convert the customary deficit in the postoffice department into a surplus—lifting from Congress the need of reaching into its pocket each year for an appropriation—is underway in a series of conferences between administration chieftains.

TAKES WAGE CUT

President Roosevelt is taking the regular 15 per cent cut in pay he decreed for other government workers, but he has made his own reduced salary effective as of March 3 rather than April 1.

Farm Loan Office Is Opened At Boonville

J. W. Shore, chairman of the Yadkin county farm production loan committee, has taken quarters in the bank building at Boonville, and is prepared to receive all applications from farmers of Boonville and the surrounding communities, while L. F. Brumfield, Yadkin county agent, is fulfilling the same duties at Yadkinville, Albert E. Rozar, director of farm production loans in Forsyth and surrounding counties, announced Monday.

Farmers of Jonesville, East Bend, Boonville and adjacent territory are urged to file their application with Mr. Shore at Boonville.

BEE SPECIALIST TO VISIT YADKIN SOON

Will Hold Meetings And Give Instructions At Bee Farms

C. L. Sams, state extension bee specialist will be in Yadkin county Thursday, April 13 for the purpose of inspecting several small farm apiaries in co-operation with L. F. Brumfield, Yadkin farm agent, it was learned Tuesday. During the day's visit four meetings will be held for the purpose of giving instruction in bee management, such as re-queening, swarm control, strengthening the colony for more honey, and other farm bee-keeping problems.

At 9 o'clock in the morning a meeting will be held at Yadkinville on the Minnie Casstevens farm north of the school building, in co-operation with M. W. Mackie. At 10:30 a. m. a second meeting will be held at the G. D. Money farm at Brooks Cross Roads.

Other farms to be visited are as follows: 1:00 p. m., John Brendle farm at Boonville; 3 p. m. G. W. P. Baker farm at East Bend. Those interested in bee culture are urged to attend.

Cycle News

Frank Groce, 83, passed away at his home Wednesday night. Funeral and interment were from Oak Grove church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were in charge of the pastor, Rev. W. G. Mitchell, assisted by Rev. V. V. Brown.

Evans school closed a successful term on Friday, with a large crowd attending the closing exercises. Five pupils were awarded perfect attendance certificates and presented attractive mementos by Prof. Nicks, principal of the school.

Friends and relatives of Mrs. Lane Cheek gave her a surprise birthday dinner at her home Sunday. Many friends from Elkin, Wilkesboro and Winston-Salem attended the delightful event.

Gurthrie Nicks, a student at Mitchell College, accompanied by Adolphus Mika, also a student at Mitchell, are spending the spring vacation with the former's mother, Mrs. Victoria Nicks.

Zephyr News

Harvey Laster, of Winston-Salem, was the week-end guests of friends here.

Miss Gladys Cheek, of Jonesville, spent the week-end with friends here.

Joe Layell, of Elkin, visited relatives here Sunday.

Prof. M. G. Stanley, of Dobson, visited here Sunday.

Misses Clettie, Martha, Mary and Ruby Wellborn, of Yadkin county, were the guests of friends here over the week-end.

Messrs. D. C. Smith and Austin Snow were business visitors in Dobson Saturday.

Versie Swift spent the week-end in Elkin visiting relatives.

Mrs. Lena Dockery, of Elkin, visited her daughter, Mrs. Banner Parks, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Bowers, of Mt. Airy visited John Bowers and family Sunday.

Dockery Sale, of Elkin, spent Sunday visiting friends here.

Final Dividend Paid By Furniture Company

A final dividend of 10 per cent was declared to creditors of the Roaring River Furniture company at a meeting Monday morning before Referee in Bankruptcy L. C.

McKaughan, at Winston-Salem. This dividend brought the total dividends declared up to 100 per cent.

It was also voted that the attorneys for the trustees be given $2,000 additional fees, subject to the approval of Judge Johnson J. Hayes. This proposition was immediately forwarded to Judge Hayes for approval.

SMALL BOYS DROWN

Two small boys, fishing for minnows in the Savona Mill reservoir at Charlotte, drowned late Monday afternoon. Their bodies were recovered. They were Jack and Billy Stokes, age 10 and eight respectively, sons of Grover C. Stokes, a textile employee.

Special Notice

FOR

Spring Cleaning!

DOES YOUR OLD VACUUM CLEANER WORK PROPERLY?

Through a fortunate contact with a large finance company we are able to supply our customers with their favorite make vacuum cleaner for as low as $15.50. This group contains only the most popular makes:

HOOVER
EUREKA
GENERAL ELECTRIC
VEE VAC

ROYAL
PREMIER DUPLEX
APEX
HAMILTON BEACH

As we only have a limited number of these machines to offer at these unheard of prices—first come, first served—must be the rule. Yes, we will make you a liberal allowance on your old cleaner. We can furnish repairs or parts for any vacuum cleaner made.

Reich-Hayes-Boren, Inc.

HOME FURNISHERS

ELKIN, N. C.

SUPER-SHELL

At Prices of

Regular Gasoline

A high test gasoline which never before has sold at less than a 3-cent premium, now available at all Shell stations at prices of ordinary gasolines. It's Shell's NEW DEAL for the motoring public.

Quality Northwestern Oil, Inc.

Distributors Surry and Yadkin Counties

NOTICE!

PLEASE PAY WATER BILLS AT THE BANK OF ELKIN

Town of Elkin

WATER DEPARTMENT