

SOCIETY.

L. B. Abernethy Sunday School Class Elects Officers

The L. B. Abernethy Sunday school class of the Methodist church met in a business meeting at the church Monday evening, with Dr. R. B. Harrell, teacher, as host. Approximately thirty members of the class were present. During the business meeting Alan Browning, Jr., was elected president, Miss Josephina Paul, vice-president and Miss Edith Neaves, secretary-treasurer.

Punch and cookies were served during the social hour at the conclusion of the business session.

Hemric-Spicer

A wedding of interest to friends in this section is that of Miss Flora Hemric to Thomas Spicer, which was solemnized at Independence, Virginia, Saturday, September 23, 1933, with Rev. T. L. Funk officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Poley Hemric as maid of honor and Verlin Lyons served as best man. Only intimate friends of the young couple witnessed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hemric and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Spicer, both of the Ronda community. They will make their home at Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Allred Honored by Miss Eads

Miss Ruth Eads was hostess to the members of her bridge club at the home of Mrs. William Price, on Church street, Saturday evening, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Allred of Elkin and Mt. Airy, who were recently married. The honoree was presented with a lovely bedspread.

Those making up the two tables were: Mr. and Mrs. Allred, Miss Sadie Franklin, Miss Bettie Allen, Miss Betty Harris, Miss Mary Hendren, Miss Ophelia Paul and Miss Eads.

At the conclusion of the games a prettily-appointed ice course with numerous accessories was served.

O. B. H. Club Resumes Meetings

The O. B. H. Club met in the first meeting of the club year on Thursday evening, with Miss Bettie Allen as hostess at the home of Mrs. Marion Allen of Church street.

During the brief business meeting the new club books were selected and a former member, Miss Grace Cockerham, was welcomed back into the club.

Hearts were played at three tables, with Miss Elizabeth Anderson winning the high score award. Mrs. J. H. Allred, a member of the club and a recent bride, was presented with a lovely set of crystal as a gift from the club members.

A salad course was served late in the evening to the following guests:

Misses Ophelia Paul, Mary Hendren, Elizabeth Anderson, Margaret Lillard, Betty Harris, Sadie Franklin, Grace Cockerham, Emma Cooke, Elizabeth Turner, Mrs. J. H. Allred and Mrs. Marion Allen.

Nan Johnson Honored On Tenth Birthday Anniversary

Honoring her little niece, Nan Johnson, of Winston-Salem, who is spending the winter with her, Mrs. M. A. Biggs entertained at a delightful party on Saturday afternoon, in celebration of the tenth birthday anniversary of the honoree. Outdoor games were enjoyed, under the direction of Miss Beatrice Burcham. Peggy Royall was winner of the first prize in the games. Later the guests were invited into the living room, where they fished for prizes and each one was given a lovely souvenir.

A color scheme of pink and blue was carried out in detail in the dining room, where a pretty birthday setting was effected, with a large decorated cake with ten lighted candles as the central attraction. Ices and cakes were served the little guests and favors were dainty pink baskets filled with candy.

Those enjoying the afternoon with little Miss Johnson were: Eleanor Hayes, Peggy Royall, Dorothy Jean Salmons, Pansy and Camilla Burcham, Maxine Allridge, Sarah Lee Griffith, Dorothy and Mary Ellen Harrell and Mary Elizabeth Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reece Celebrate Fortieth Wedding Anniversary

A doubly significant celebration was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Reece in Jonesville, Sunday, when Mr. and Mrs. Reece celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary with a family reunion. Only the immediate family of Mr. and Mrs. Reece, including their eight children and twenty-four grandchildren, were present.

An elaborate wedding dinner was prepared by the members of the family and served Southern style from the huge table.

Mr. Reece is 74 years old and Mrs. Reece is 58, and they are one of the most highly esteemed couples in this community. During their forty years residence in Jonesville they have been leaders in civic and religious activities.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Reece present for the event were: Mrs. Walter Wright, Yadkin county; Mrs. Horace Feimster, Winston-Salem; Mrs. William Hudspeth, Elkin; Mrs. Marvin Mayberry, Mrs. Talmage Blackburn, Mrs. Clyde Shugart and Ed Reece of Jonesville and William Reece, Jr., of Winston-Salem.

HOLD FUNERAL FOR DR. E. F. HARTSELL

Former Jonesville Police Chief Dies In Hospital

Funeral services for Dr. Eli Franklin Hartsell, 56, who died Friday in a Morganton hospital, were conducted Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Jonesville Baptist church, in charge of Rev. D. G. Reece of Jonesville and Rev. Eph Whisenhunt, pastor of the First Baptist church of Elkin. Interment was in the Jonesville cemetery.

The deceased was a veterinary surgeon by profession and for several years was chief of police of the town of Jonesville. He had been a patient in the Morganton hospital for several months, suffering from a nervous disorder, due to a long period of ill health. His death was due to a fall on Friday morning, in which he sustained a fractured hip. He is survived by his wife and the following sons and daughters: Mrs. Frank Small and Spencer Hartsell, of Mooresville; Shelton Hartsell of East Flat Rock; Mrs. J. H. Brown, Roscoe and Billy Hartsell, of Jonesville. Brothers and sisters surviving are Mrs. John Smith, Concord; Mrs. William Thompson, Clearwater, Florida; Mrs. Adley Byers, Cornelius, Mrs. James Overcash, East Monbo; Bub and William Hartsell, of Statesville, and Duke Hartsell, of Troutman.

M. P. I. TO OPEN FOOTBALL SEASON

Will Meet Children's Home Here Saturday Afternoon

Mountain Park Institute football team will meet the gridiron forces of the Children's Home, of Winston-

Salem, here at Riverside park Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Both teams are said to have unusually good material this year and the game is expected to provide many thrills. It will mark the opening of the season for M. P. I.

Other games on the M. P. I. schedule for this fall are as follows:

October 7—Belmont Abbey at Belmont.

October 14—Mars Hill at Mars Hill.

October 21—Campbell College at Elkin.

October 28—Wingate College at Elkin.

November 4—Rutherford College at Rutherford.

November 11—Boone Freshmen at Boone.

November 18—Open.

November 25—Presbyterian Junior College at Maxton.

Plans for developing a $2,000,000 federal coastal park in Northeastern North Carolina were outlined at Raleigh last Thursday by Frank Stick, of Manteo, chairman of a council that will seek to interest the government in the project.

Methodist Stewards To Meet Saturday

The Stewards of the Methodist churches, comprising the Jonesville charge, will meet for the annual supper at the Jonesville parsonage next Saturday evening, September 30, at 6:30. Rev. L. B. Abernethy of Elkin, and Mr. L. F. Amburn of Booneville, associate district lay leader, will be the speakers for the occasion.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Jonesville Methodist church will serve the supper.

WAGES INCREASE $12,000,000 IN MONTH

A $12,000,000 increase in the payrolls of manufacturers operating under the NRA codes and agreements during the month July 15-August 15, was reported Thursday by Secretary of Labor Perkins. Figures gathered by trained statisticians formed the basis for the report which is the "first real information distinct from 'ballyhoo' we have had," Miss Perkins said.

LYRIC THEATRE

TODAY AND TOMORROW—

"Hold Me Tight"

— with —

JAMES DUNN — SALLY EILERS

Paramount News — Magic Carpet

Admission 10c-25c

SATURDAY—

TOM KEENE

— in —

"Son of the Border"

— also —

CHAPTER 1 OF NEW SERIAL

Comedy

Admission 10c-30c

Next Week--A Full Program of BIG PICTURES at No Increase In Admission!

Monday-Tuesday—

CROWDS TELL THE STORY...

It's Bigger Than "42nd Street"

Warner Bros. Musical Super-Show with 13 Great Stars and More Than 200 Beautiful Girls.

Comedy — News

ADMISSION

10c-30c

WEDNESDAY — FAMILY SHOW —

"The Girl In 419"

With James Dunn-Gloria Stuart

Admission Only 10c

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY—

Gather 'round little children and let Professor Crosby give you your lesson for the day... What did Cleopatra to Mark Antony say? "Without you I cannot make my way... I Surrender Dear"—It's All In Fun

With Bing Crosby, Richard Arlen, Mary Carlisle, Burns and Allen, Jack Oakie

Admission 10c-25c

Saturday---

Tom Mix in "The Fourth Horseman"

ADMISSION 10c-30c

$33,406.68

In Dividends

PAID OUT TO OUR STOCKHOLDERS IN PAST FIVE YEARS

OCTOBER 1ST DIVIDEND IS BEING MAILED OUT THIS WEEK

60th SERIES

STARTS OCTOBER 1ST

NO MEMBERSHIP FEE! JOIN NOW!

26 YEARS OF SERVICE

TO THIS COMMUNITY WITHOUT A SINGLE LOSS!

ELKIN-JONESVILLE BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION

PAUL GWYN, Sec.-Treas.