Miss Gaynell Phillips conducted the devotionals and Miss Emma Cooke, president of the society, presided over the business meeting and was in charge of the program, using as her subject a study of the mission work in Brazil. She was assisted by Misses Gaynell Phillips, Maybert West, Lucy Gray and Louise Transou.
During a pleasant social hour a tempting refreshment course was served.

Mason Lillard Bible Class Meets With Mesdames Harris and Royall

The Mason Lillard Bible class of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Edworth Harris on West Main street Monday evening, with Mrs. Hugh Royall associate hostess, with seventeen members present.

Mrs. D. C. Martin, vice-president of the class, presided over the business meeting and conducted the devotionals. An interesting program on "Childhood and Youth Week" was presented by Mrs. George Royall and Mrs. Fred Colhard. Miss Blanche Dixon concluded the program with two poems, "When the Frost Is on the Pumpkin," by James Whitcomb Riley and "October," by Edgar Guest.

A tempting collation, in which the Halloween motif was accentuated, was served during a pleasant social hour.

W. M. U. of First Baptist Church Celebrates Thirtieth Anniversary

The Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist church in this city celebrated its thirtieth anniversary on Monday afternoon in the church parlor. The celebration was held in connection with the monthly inspirational meeting. Mrs. George Chatham had charge of the devotional period and Mrs. T. G. Harris, president of the society, presided over the meeting.

An interesting missionary program was presented by the Fannie Heck Circle, under the direction of Mrs. J. F. Moseley, circle leader, assisted by Mrs. F. B. Douglass, Miss Ella Cockerham and Mrs. Silas Nichols. A vocal solo, "Wonderful Words of Life", by Mrs. Parks G. Hampton, concluded the program.

The guests were then invited into the Sunday school annex, where two beautifully decorated cakes, in lavender and white, the colors of the union, were sliced and served with coffee to the forty members present. The birthday contribution from the guests amounted to $12.46, each person donating a penny for each year of their age.

Wolverine Shell Horsehide FROZEN 56 HOURS

...Yet Dried Out Soft and Pliable!

In an actual test, a Wolverine Shell Horsehide and a work shoe of another make were frozen in a cake of ice 56 hours. When the ice melted, the Wolverine Work Shoe dried out soft and pliable, while the other shoe was stiff and hard! That's the kind of leather we offer you in Wolverine Work Shoes. Come in and compare the many other Wolverine features of comfort and long wear—at prices that save you money in the long run.

Above shows the one-inch of the hide which furnishes the leather for Wolverine Shell Horsehide. Note the shell that gives you many extra months of wear.
