Plan Scenic Highway

Washington, Oct. 17.—Senator Reynolds said tonight he looks for "immediate action" on the petition laid before Public Works Administrator Ickes today requesting a grant of $20,000,000 for the construction of a scenic highway connecting the Great Smoky Mountains National Park with the Shenandoah National Park in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia.

TWO PARTLY BLINDED

Two Apex high school students lost the sight in their right eyes and seven others and their teacher were cut by flying glass Friday when chemicals, which the teacher was mixing, exploded in the class room and shattered the glass container.

Norman H. Davis, chief American delegate to the disarmament conference, sought to allay fears of critics in the United States Monday night by issuing a statement firmly reiterating that the American delegation is avoiding European political entanglements.
