WARN OF DANGER TO CHILDREN WHO WALK OUT IN THE STREET

School Asks Parents to Aid In Combating Evil

DANGEROUS HABIT

Alarmed over the way in which school children, especially the younger ones, swarm into the streets instead of remaining on the sidewalks while enroute either to or from school, local school authorities have asked that every parent join with them in a concerted effort to caution the children and help them be more careful while on their way to and from school.

A number of near accidents have occurred on several occasions when a child has heedlessly dashed into the street in front of an approaching automobile, and it is this thoughtlessness on the part of the children that the school authorities are attempting to combat.

Two important rules in safety education, authorities point out, are (1) cross streets carefully and (2) walk on the sidewalks instead of on the streets.

The situation here is especially bad during the lunch hour when the students are on their way home. Many congregate on street corners awaiting a ride home which results in much double parking and the danger of other students stepping from behind one of these double-parked cars into the path of an approaching automobile, while attempting to cross the street.

HOLD FUNERAL FOR PHILLIP COLVARD

Sustains Fatal Injuries When He Jumps From Car

His skull fractured when he jumped off the running board of a moving automobile, Phillip Colvard, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Colvard, of Jonesville, died in Hugh Chatham hospital here Sunday.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock from Island Ford Baptist church, near Jonesville.

The Colvard child was said to have picked up a ride with D. C. Caudle, of Booneville, who was on his way to Elkin Saturday night. It was said that Mr. Caudle told the child, who was accompanied by his brother, to get into the car, but that both boys refused, stating they would ride on the running board.

Young Colvard sustained his injury when he jumped from the moving car, to recover his cap, which had blown off. His skull was badly fractured when it struck the hard surface with terrific force. He did not regain consciousness.

He is survived by the parents and four brothers and sisters.

Hold Funeral Sunday For Yadkin Co. Child

Funeral services for Verdel Kimer, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kimer of the Shady Grove community of Yadkin county, were held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock from Shady Grove Baptist church. The services were in charge of Rev. J. L. Martin of Jonesville and Rev. Robert Spear of Booneville. Interment was made in the church cemetery. The child died on Saturday, following a few days' illness from an infected tooth.

She is survived by her parents and the following brothers and sisters: Mozelle, Hazel, Doris, Howard and James Kimer and an infant not yet named.

LATE NEWS from the State and Nation

Mob Beaten Off

Salisbury, Md., Nov. 28.—A mob of more than a thousand men stormed the state armory here today in an unsuccessful effort to free the four men accused of participating in last month's lynching at Princess Anne.

Beaten back by tear gas and bayonets, the mob dispersed only after the state troopers, sent by Governor Albert C. Ritchie to arrest the alleged slayers of George Armwood, a negro, abandoned their headquarters in the armory and returned to Baltimore with their prisoners.

Kidnapers Freed

St. Paul, Nov. 28.—Four members of the Roger Touhy gang of Chicago were acquitted by a federal court jury today of the kidnaping and interstate transport of William Hamm, Jr., wealthy brewer.

The verdict was returned at 2:30 p. m., almost 18 hours after it was given to the jury.

Touhy and his co-defendants, Gustave Schaeffer, Edward McFadden and William Sharkey, were re-arrested immediately on fugitive warrants in connection with the abduction last July of John (Jake the Barber) Factor, Chicago promoter and stock plunger.

2,000,000 To Work

Washington, Nov. 28.—Out of the broad-fronted endeavor to put men to work and boost buying power, there came a prediction today from Harry L. Hopkins, director of the civil works administration, that two million men who were receiving relief November 16 would be at work before the end of this week.

He said one million men and women had been transferred from relief rolls to pay rolls during the last ten days.

Lynch Negro

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 28.—A mob of 7,000 Missourians broke into the Buchanan county jail shortly before midnight, seized a Negro attacker and hanged him. He was accused of attacking a white girl.

The victim of the mob's fury was Lloyd Warner, 19-year-old Negro, who confessed earlier to night to attacking a young girl member of a prominent St. Joseph family.

No Date Set

HEMERIC BEING HELD IN YADKIN JAIL AS RESULT OF SMASHUP

Two Killed, 5 Injured In Collision At Brook's Cross Roads

ONE WAS RUM CAR

Clyde Hemric, alleged driver of the car which last Thursday night crashed into the machine driven by Littleton Pinnix, near Brook's Cross Roads and resulted in the death of two and injuries to five others, is in jail at Yadkinville awaiting preliminary hearing on a number of charges, having been removed from the local hospital Sunday by Yadkin county officers.

Rumors here to the effect that Hemric had been released under $3,000 bond were proven false Wednesday afternoon in a telephone message from the office of the Sheriff of Yadkin county. It is possible, it was learned, that the young man will be charged with manslaughter, assault and battery with a deadly weapon, careless and reckless driving transporting whisky. However, in the opinion of many, Hemric was not responsible for the accident and may have to face only a liquor charge when he confronts a superior court.

Other injured people involved in the wreck have been dismissed from the local hospital, it was learned Wednesday morning.

Death hovered over the highway Thursday night when two cars, one with 75 gallons of whisky aboard, crashed a short distance west of Brook's Cross Roads on the North Wilkesboro road. Two were killed and five injured.

Those to meet death in the accident were Mrs. Frank Pinnix, 65, of Brook's Cross Roads, and C. W. Allred, 23, of Winston-Salem. Mrs. Pinnix was killed instantly. Allred died enroute to the local hospital.

Those injured, none of them seriously, were Littleton Pinnix, bruises and lacerations; Mrs. Dallas Wiles, of Hamptonville, bruises and shock; Ruby Wiles, Mrs. Wiles' daughter, broken collar bone. Each of the above was in the machine driven by Mr. Pinnix.

Clyde Hemric, said to be the driver of the liquor car, suffered a

TO SUE GOVERNOR FOR $1,000,000

Claimed That He Incited Lynching of Kidnapers

San Jose, Calif., Nov. 28.—Public opinion here today apparently was agreed that Jack Holmes and Thomas Thurmond met a justified fate when they were lynched in a public square Sunday night.

Members of Holmes' family, however, were preparing to institute a $1,000,000 damage suit against Governor James Rolph, Jr., and other public officials, contending that the governor "incited" the lynching.

Announcement of the suit was made by Vincent W. Hallinan and Nathan C. Coghlan, who had been retained as counsel for Holmes last Saturday.

Governor Rolph, they said, will be charged with inciting the lynching of the two men on the ground "that his public statement before the lynching inflamed the mob spirit and caused the hangings; that after the mob began storming the jail, he refused to uphold the law as sworn to do as the state's chief executive; that after the lynching he condoned the crime of mob violence."

Officials of Santa Clara county and of the city of San Jose will be charged with failure to take proper precautions to prevent the mob from seizing Holmes, the attorneys said. San Francisco authorities likewise will be named in the damage action because they permitted Holmes and Thurmond to be transferred from the city prison there to the San Jose jail without a complaint being filed against them, "a violation of law whereby the prisoners were exposed to lynching."

Friends of Mrs. Bertelle Hineberry Price will regret to know that her condition shows little improvement. Mrs. Price reentered Hugh Chatham hospital the latter part of last week for further treatment.

"Dr. L. B. Abernethy—whom we respect as a scholar, love as a minister and honor as a man among men."

With these words expressed by Kiwanian Walter R. Schaff on behalf of the entire club, Elkin Kiwanians gathered at Hotel Elkin Friday night to pay tribute to the Methodist minister—for nine years one of Elkin's best loved citizens—who at the recent Methodist conference was transferred from the local charge to Newton.

The club was also unanimous in its regret at the loss of Rev. Garland R. Stafford, for the past year pastor of the Jonesville Methodist church and a valuable member of the local organization.

The meeting, which featured farewell talks by both Dr. Abernethy and Rev. Mr. Stafford, was opened by a short but highly impressive talk by Kiwanian Schaff in which he paid sincere tribute to both pastors. He commended highly the notable work done here by Dr. Abernethy, summing up his activities with an appropriate quotation from Emerson—"What you do sounds so loud I cannot hear what you say."

In a brief talk, Dr. Abernethy expressed his appreciation to the club for the cooperation which it has given him during his stay here. He recalled the history of the club from the time he first came to Elkin when meetings were held at the George Paul cafe on Main street, and enumerated a number of projects the club had helped put across, among them being the establishment of the local hospital and the bringing of the Southern Public Utilities company, with its adequate electrical service, to Elkin.
