Lucy Hanes Chatham Club to Have Dinner Tonight at Hotel Elkin

Members of the Lucy Hanes Chatham club will celebrate the ending of an intensive membership campaign at Hotel Elkin tonight with a dinner. About thirty-five new members will be initiated into the club. W. A. Neaves, superintendent of the Chatham Manufacturing company, will address the guests.

Patriotic symbols, suggestive of Washington's birthday, will be used to decorate the table, and favors will be small United States flags. Covers will be placed for approximately 75 members.

Sue Tharpe Auxiliary Meets With Misses Masten and Hampton

The Sue Tharpe Auxiliary of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church, met at the home of Miss Maude Masten Tuesday evening, with Miss Dorothy Hampton associate hostess, with fifteen members present. Miss Virginia Ray conducted the devotionals and Miss Marguerite Lowery, assisted by Misses Gaynell Phillips, Blendon Byrd, Louise Transou, Dorothy Hampton and Lorene Long, conducted an interesting program.

The business hour featured routine reports. It was decided that the auxiliary would donate a supply of sheets to the Baptist hospital in Winston-Salem.

A salad course with coffee was served during a pleasant social hour at the conclusion of the program.
