The guests were invited for luncheon at one o'clock and following the luncheon bridge was played. Mrs. Carl Poindexter won the attractive high score award.

Inose making up the tables were Mesdames Charles Calhoun, E. C. Grier, Eugene Spainhour, H. C. Graham, Richard Chatham, Raymond Chatham, Carl Poindexter and Alex Chatham.

Intermediate G. A. Meets With Miss Newman

The Intermediate Girls' Auxiliary of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church met at the home of Miss Beatrice Newman Wednesday afternoon. The meeting opened with the hymn, "Work For the Night Is Coming," which was followed by the devotional period, in charge of the leader, Mrs. W. F. Reece.

The program for the afternoon was under the direction of Miss Pauline Gilliam, assisted by Misses Mattie Lee Eldson, Lorene Fulp, Hoyland Harris, Fannie Sue Harris, Hannah Reece and Virginia Lawrence.

Miss Virginia Lawrence, president of the auxiliary, presided over the business meeting at which time routine business was dispatched. Five new members, Misses Louise Cothren, Mable Spencer, Oleen Norman, Frances Scott Tilley and Amy Myers, were welcomed into the society.

During a pleasant social hour the hostess served tempting refreshments.

Mrs. Wellborn Entertains Garden Club at Enjoyable Meeting

Mrs. W. R. Wellborn entertained the members of the Yadkin Valley Garden Club at a most delightful meeting at her home on Bridge street Thursday afternoon. White hawthorne and pussy willows were used in the living room, and decorations suggestive of George Washington's birthday were used in the dining room and to decorate the refreshment plates.

A program on the culture, planting, pruning and different species of roses was directed by Mrs. H. C. Salmons. Others contributing papers were Mrs. George Royall and Mrs. H. P. Graham. Two piano solos, "To A Wild Rose" and "To A Water Lilly" (McDowell) by Mrs. J. H. Beeson, concluded the program.

Members enjoying Mrs. Wellborn's hospitality were: Mesdames George Royall, H. P. Graham, H. C. Salmons, Mason Lillard, E. F. McNeer, J. H. Beeson, J. F. Hendren and W. W. Whitaker. Mrs. W. A. Shores was a special guest of the club.

Homemakers Class of First Baptist Church Enjoys Oyster Supper

The Homemakers' Sunday school class of the First Baptist church enjoyed an oyster supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Nichols on West Main street Thursday evening. Members of the class, which is composed of young married women, had their husbands as guests. The guests were met at the door by Mesdames Enoch Harris and Eugene Nelson and were given numbered hatchets, by which they found their supper partners. Small tables in the dining room were decorated in miniature cherry trees and red, white and blue streamers were festooned from
