Gambill-Gentry
Coming as a complete surprise to friends is the announcement of the wedding of Miss Eunice Gambill to George Gentry, which was solemnized at Independence, Va., Saturday morning. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Till Gambill and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gentry, both of Elkin.

Jonesville Epworth League Has Social
The Epworth League of the Jonesville Methodist church held a delightful social meeting at the home of the pastor, Rev. R. H. Kennington and Mrs. Kennington, Friday evening with twenty members present. Miss Clara Bell directed the games and contests, which were suggestive of St. Patrick's Day. A tempting refreshment course was served during the evening.

Lucy Hanes Chatham Club to Have Luncheon Today
The newly organized unit of the Lucy Hanes Chatham Club for the night shift of Chatham Manufacturing Company will have a luncheon this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the private dining room of the Blue Moon Cafe. The Easter motif will be carried out in detail in the appointments of the table. Covers will be placed for approximately 20 members.

Special features of the meeting will be an address by Charlie Calhoun, and vocal solos by Miss Estelle Powers.

Easter Dance At Mount Airy
The Granite City Cotillion Club of Mt. Airy, N. C., will sponsor a dance to be given at Mount Airy Country Club, Friday, March 30th.

Jelly Leftwich, the South's finest college orchestra, will furnish music for the occasion; also featured is Miss Kay Keaver torch singer who needs no introduction to those who have heard her croon the blues. The dance will begin promptly at 10 and will be chaperoned.

Jonesville Methodist W. M. S. Meets Wednesday

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Jonesville Methodist church met Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Eloise Greenwood, with ten members present. Miss Mildred Ingram, president of the society, presided over the business meeting at which time plans were perfected for the organization of a children's auxiliary to the society.

Miss Maxine Mathis, assisted by Misses Clara Bell and Mildred Ingram, presented an interesting study of the mission fields in Brazil.

During the social hour the hostess served a refreshment course.

Baptist W. M. U. Has Inspirational Meeting Monday Afternoon

The monthly inspirational meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church met in the church parlor Monday afternoon with twenty-five members present. Mrs. Eph Whisenhant, president of the society presided over the business meeting.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. F. M. Norman, chairman of the Naomi Shell circle. The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. T. V. Cockerham. Assisting Mrs. Norman in the presentation of the program on "Periods of Lost Power" were Mesdames S. O. Maguire, C. A. Crews and T. G. Harris.

Philathea Class of Elkin Valley Church Meets

The Sunshine Philathea Sunday school class of the Elkin Valley Baptist church met with Misses Lucille Newman and Hallie Collins in the regular March meeting. The president, Miss Nancy Hanks, presided over the business meeting at which time a committee, composed of Misses Lulu Johnson, Iris Jane Collins, Marybelle Davis and Lucille Newman, was appointed to prepare programs for the meeting. Miss Grace Lawrence, Miss Marybelle Davis and Miss Christophena Jordan were appointed to compose a class song.

During the social hour the hostesses served tempting refreshments.

Mrs. Gwyn Entertains Two-Four Club at Luncheon Thursday

Mrs. Paul Gwyn entertained the members of the Two-Four Bridge club at a beautifully appointed luncheon at her home on Gwyn Avenue Thursday at one o'clock. Upon the arrival of the guests luncheon was served from small tables centered with bouquets of spring flowers. In the bridge competition Mrs. Eugene Spainhour received a double deck of cards for scoring the highest number of points.

Those making up the tables were Mesdames E. C. Grier, H. L. Johnson, James Poindexter, C. H. Brewer, R. G. Smith, Eugene Spainhour and Miss Maude Greenwood and the hostess, Mrs. Gwyn.

Faithful Workers' Class Meets With Mrs. R. L. Poindexter

The Faithful Workers' Sunday school class of the First Baptist church held a business-social meeting at the home of the class president, Mrs. R. L. Poindexter, on West Main street Thursday evening.

During the business session the class selected the last Thursday in each month as the regular meeting date. The name "Faithful Workers" was also adopted at this time. Mrs. L. F. Walker, class teacher, discussed items of interest for the up-building of the class.

During the social hour Mrs. Walker, directed various amusements and later the hostess served refreshments to the fifteen members present.

Wednesday Study Club Meets With Mrs. C. H. Brewer

Mrs. C. H. Brewer entertained the members of the Wednesday Study Club at a most enjoyable meeting Wednesday afternoon at Hotel Elkin. Mrs. Marion Allen presented a most interesting paper on Queen Isabella of Spain, this was in keeping with the program for the year's study on famous queens of history. Current events of interest were given by Mrs. R. C. Freeman.

During the social hour a beautifully appointed refreshment course, in which St. Patrick's motif predominated, was served the following members: Mesdames W. B. Lentz, Fletcher Harris, Hugh Royal, Marion Allen, R. C. Freeman, H. L. Johnson, R. B. Harrell, J. H. Beeson, Errol Hayes, Fred Neaves and C. G. Armfield.

Lewis-Jones Wedding Announced

Announcement of the wedding of Miss Hilda C. Lewis of this city, to C. Hilton Jones, of Boonville, comes as a complete surprise to friends of the young couple. The marriage was solemnized in Hillsville, Va., on January 6, 1934, with Rev. Carl Looney of the Methodist Episcopal church officiating, using the ring ceremony.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley C. Lewis of Elkin and was educated in the city schools. For her wedding she wore a becoming suit of brown with matching accessories.

The bridegroom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jones of Boonville, and is a graduate of Boonville high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones will be at home in Boonville after April first, 1934.

Miss Franklin Is O. B. H. Club Hostess Thursday Evening

Miss Sadie Franklin delightfully entertained the members of the O. B. H. Club and several additional guests at her home on West Main street Thursday evening. Jonquils and pussy willow made a pretty background for the four tables which were placed for progressive hearts. Mrs. Jones Holcomb received an attractive souvenir at the conclusion of the play for scoring the highest number of points. When the games were finished the hostess served an appetizing refreshment course.

Members present for the delightful affair were: Misses Ned Ball, Betty Allen, Maude Greenwood, Elizabeth Anderson, Effie Crater, Emma Cooke, Ruth Eads, Clara Bell, Margaret Lillard and Grace Cockerham. Additional guests were: Mrs. H. B. Holcomb, Mrs. Carl Boyles, Mrs. Jones Holcomb, Mrs. J. A. Carpenter and Miss Mary Virginia Barker.

Mason Lillard Class Has Meeting Tuesday

The Mason Lillard Bible class of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Fred Colhard on Gwyn Avenue Monday evening, with Mrs. R. B. Harrell associate hostess with twelve members present. Mrs. Jones Holcomb, class president, presided over the business meeting.

The program on "Springtime" was under the direction of Mrs. E. G. Click and Miss Mayme Blackwood. The opening number was a vocal trio "April Eyes" by Mesdames Fred Colhard, H. P. Graham and E. G. Click. This was followed by a poem, "The Loveliest of Trees" by Mrs. J. O. Bivins. A vocal solo, "The Swallow" by Mrs. E. G. Click, was followed over by a reading "In A Spring Garden", by Mrs. H. P. Graham. The concluding number was a vocal duet, "Come Where The Blue Bells Grow", by Mesdames Fred Colhard and H. P. Graham.

During the social hour a tempting refreshment course was served.

Benefit Party at Hotel Elkin Is Well Attended

One of the most widely attended events of the week was the benefit party sponsored by the Department of Literature of the Woman's Club which was held at Hotel Elkin Tuesday evening. Eighteen tables were placed for contract and auction bridge and mah jong. Mrs. Walter R. Schaff received a blanket for making the highest score in contract and Dr. R. B. Harrell was awarded a hickory swing for gentlemen's high score prize. Mrs. E. C. Grier received a book case for second high in contract and J. M. Cheek, Jr., received a night stand for runner-up. Mrs. Dan Barbour was given a what-not for the highest score in auction bridge and the mah jong prize, lingerie, was awarded Mrs. M. A. Biggs. The guests were allowed to draw for one prize and E. S. Spainhour drew the lucky number and was given a magazine rack. The remaining prizes were auctioned off by W. M. Allen and netted a neat sum for the sponsors. The prizes were donation from the local manufacturing plants.

During the evening a salad course and coffee was served.
